

Contents

About the Authors	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
CHAPTER 1
Building the Lawyer-Client Relationship	1
<hr/>
Introduction	1
The Missouri Motivational Study	2
Setting the Stage	3
The First Meeting	4
Timing Fee Discussions	4
Estimating and Discussing the Fee	5
Figure 1.1 Bill Delineating Specific Work and Accompanied by Hourly Time Statement (Conventional Style)	8
Retainers	13
Figure 1.2 Bill Delineating Effort (Narrative Style)	14
The Fee Agreement	16
Presenting a Written Estimate	17
Billing Frequency	17
CHAPTER 2
Establishing Fees and Budgets and Using Billing Technology	19
<hr/>
Avoiding Fee-Schedule Mentality	20
Establishing Hourly Fees	20
Recovering Costs	21

Using Substantive Systems and Forms	22
Budgeting and Establishing Rates	23
Budget the Team	24
Billing Technology	24
Changing Your Billing System	25

CHAPTER 3

Communicating Value 27

Project Effort on Paper	28
Delineate Work Done	28
Figure 3.1 Bill Delineating Effort	29
Use Blocking and Punctuation to Project Effort Visually	30
Figure 3.2 Bill Referencing Discussions to Convey Concern	31
Use Verbs to Convey Action	32
Use Smaller Billing Paper When Possible	32
Figure 3.3 Bill Using Blocking and Punctuation to Project Effort	33
Figure 3.4 Bill Using Frequent Action Verbs	34
Project Honesty, Legal Ethics, and Competence	36
Figure 3.5 Bill Projecting Values and Competence, Printed on 5 ³ / ₈ -by-5 ¹ / ₂ -Inch Stationery	37
Project Fairness	37
Format the Bill Appropriately	38
Draft an Inviting Statement	39
Personalize the Bill	41
Figure 3.6 Personalized Bill: Sample 1	41
Figure 3.7 Personalized Bill: Sample 2	42

CHAPTER 4

Employing Other Techniques That Project Effort 43

Copy the Client on All Key Matters	43
Give the Client Undivided Attention during All Meetings	44
Keep Good Records of Completed Work	45
Use a Proper Timekeeping System	45
Timekeeping in Action—The Harris Morgan Manual System	45
Using Technology for Timekeeping	46
Develop the Habit	47
Make It Easy to Pay	50

CHAPTER 5

Putting the Commandments on Drafting Bills into Action 51

A Summary of Highly Effective Techniques	52
Why Clients Return to You	54

CHAPTER 6
Alternative Fee Arrangements	57
<hr/>
When and Why to Consider Alternative Fee Arrangements	57
Why the Hourly Rate Bill Is Here to Stay	59
POSTSCRIPT
Miscellaneous Timekeeping and Billing Tips	63
<hr/>
First—Let’s Talk about Fees	63
Contemporaneous Timekeeping	64
Review Your Hourly Rates Once a Year and Determine Whether the Rates Should Change	64
When Changing Your Rates, Offer Clients the Opportunity to “Buy” Hours in Advance	65
Consider Whether You Should Charge for Internal Expenses and How	65
Determine If the Types of Work You Do Justify Multiple Hourly Rates	65
Data-Mine Your Files and Bills to Identify Types of Matters That Are Candidates for Alternative Billing Methods	66
Give a Client Choices	66
Look at Substantive Systems and Use Alternative Fees	66
Retainer Policies	67
Consider Evergreen Retainers	67
Written Fee Agreements for Each Engagement—Even for Existing Clients	68
Send Your Client a File for Each Matter	68
Appendices
<hr/>
Appendix A: Ethics and Fees	69
Appendix B: Alternative Fee Arrangements	77
Appendix C: Forms	85
Appendix D: Resources	91
Index	93
<hr/>	