Endorsements for Reinventing Witness Preparation:

“In Ken Berman’s innovative book, the lawyer has as at least as much to learn in the course of witness preparation as the witness does. This book synthesizes common sense and radical revision of the “way we've always done it”—providing indispensable tools to help lawyers and witnesses deliver their best.”

--Laurence Pulgram, Former Chair, ABA Section of Litigation; Partner, Fenwick & West LLP, San Francisco, CA

"If you have come to doubt the wisdom or effectiveness of the standard model of witness preparation or even if you are devotedly committed to it, you owe it to yourself to read and learn from Reinventing Witness Preparation."

--Edna Selan Epstein, Author, The Attorney Client Privilege and the Work-Product Doctrine
