Acknowledgments vii

About the Authors ix

Introduction xi

Section I Conceptualizing the Role
   Chapter 1 The Role of Children’s Representatives as They Stand Today 1
   Chapter 2 Unique Questions Related to Our Work with Children 13
   Chapter 3 Imagining a New Role 25

Section II Critical Psychological Issues to Understand 45
   Chapter 4 Trauma 49
   Chapter 5 Child Development 85
   Chapter 6 Introduction to Domestic Violence and Its Impact on Children 107
   Chapter 7 High-Conflict Separated and Divorced Parents 127
   Chapter 8 Alienated-Resistant Children 149
   Chapter 9 Special Circumstances 165

Section III Professional Issues 195
   Chapter 10 Ethical Issues in Representing Children 197
   Chapter 11 Recognizing Risks of Bias and Illusion in Your Work 219
   Chapter 12 The Professional Toll 233

Index 255