Chapter I

Economic Underpinnings: The Economics of Telecommunications Networks, Market Power, and Vertical Foreclosure Theories

A. Introduction	1
B. An Introduction to Market Power in Communications Markets	2
C. Basic Network Economics and Characteristic Features of Communications Industries	6
1. An Overview of Communications Networks	6
2. Economies of Scale	8
3. Economies of Density	10
4. Economies of Scope	12
5. Network Externalities	13
6. Interconnection	17
7. Network Effects and the Internet—Net Neutrality	23
D. Market Definition	25
E. FCC Spectrum Screens	34
F. Horizontal Competition Concerns—Mergers and Coordinated Behavior	36
1. Unilateral Effects of Mergers	36
a. Upward Pricing Pressure	36
b. Merger Simulations	41
G. Economic Theories of Vertical Foreclosure and Raising Rivals' Costs	43
1. Introduction	43
2. Economic Theories of Foreclosure	47
a. Challenges to the Theory That Vertical Foreclosure Is Anticompetitive	47
(1) Opportunity Cost	48
(2) The Single Monopoly Profit Critique	49

b.	Procompetitive (Efficiency) Reasons for Vertical Integration	51
	(1) Reducing Transactions Costs and Improving Coordination	51
	(2) Supply Assurance	52
	(3) Elimination of Double Marginalization	53
c.	Theories of Anticompetitive Vertical Integration	54
	(1) More Recent Approaches to Vertical Foreclosure	54
	(2) Criticisms of the Anticompetitive View of Vertical Integration	57
	(3) Foreclosure, Nash Bargaining, and Recent Telecom Transactions	60
d.	Alternative Methods of Foreclosure	61
	(1) Raising Rivals' Costs	62
	(2) Price Squeeze	65
	(3) Tying and Bundling as Exclusionary Practices	69

Chapter II

Regulation of and Monopolization in Telecom and Media Markets

A.	The History of Openness In Telecommunications Regulation	73
	1. The Age of Regulated Monopoly—1893-1974	73
	2. Justice Department and Private Antitrust Litigation—1974-83	78
	a. United States v. AT&T	78
	b. Private Litigation	79
	3. The Telecommunications Act of 1996	81
	4. Early Implementation of the 1996 Act	86
B.	The Modern Era	90
	1. Broadband Internet	90
	a. The Evolving Regulation of Broadband Internet Access	90
	b. Initial Open Internet Regulation Outside Title I	92
	c. Title II Open Internet Regulation	103
	d. The Future of Open Internet Regulation	107
	e. Antitrust Aspects of the Network Neutrality Debate	111
	(1) Assessing Market Power: Complexity in Product Market Analysis	114
	(2) Asserted Procompetitive Benefits and Efficiencies	117
	2. Wireless Telecommunications Regulation	121

- 3. Cable Television Regulation..... 121
- C. Effect of Regulation on Antitrust Enforcement..... 123
 - 1. Pre-1996 Act Authority 124
 - a. Regulation as Implying Antitrust Immunity 124
 - b. Regulation as Fact of Market Life..... 126
 - c. Regulation as Affirmative Defense 128
 - d. Regulation as Remedy..... 129
 - 2. Antitrust and the Regime under the 1996 Act 129
- D. Elements of a Section 2 Violation..... 131
 - 1. Monopolization..... 132
 - a. Determining the Relevant Market 133
 - (1) Product Market 133
 - (2) Geographic Market 135
 - b. Possession of Monopoly Power 136
 - (1) Market Share as the Surrogate Measure of Monopoly Power 137
 - (2) Other Factors that May Affect the Inference of Monopoly Power 137
 - c. Willful Acquisition or Maintenance of Monopoly Power..... 140
 - 2. Attempted Monopolization..... 140
 - 3. Conspiracy to Monopolize..... 142
- E. Application of Section 2 Theories in Telecommunications Cases..... 144
 - 1. Refusals to Deal, Essential Facilities, and Leveraging..... 144
 - 2. Price Squeeze and Predation..... 148
 - 3. Industry Standards and Intellectual Property..... 152

Chapter III

Restraints of Trade

- A. Introduction 157
 - 1. Requirement of Contract, Combination, or Conspiracy 157
 - 2. Pleading Conspiracy 158
 - 3. Public Statements as Evidence of Conspiracy 165
 - 4. Intraenterprise Conspiracy..... 169
 - 5. Per Se v. Rule of Reason Analysis 171
 - 6. State Law v. Federal Law 174
- B. Horizontal Restraints..... 177
 - 1. Information Sharing..... 177
 - 2. Pricing Agreements..... 178
 - 3. Anti-Collusion Rules in Spectrum Auctions..... 178

4. Unilateral Refusal to Deal.....	179
5. Standard Setting and Patent Pools	181
C. Vertical Restraints	186
1. Characterization of Vertical v. Horizontal Restraints.....	186
2. Resale Price Restraints.....	186
3. Vertical Non-Price Restraints	188
a. Exclusive Dealing	188
b. Tying	192
(1) Technological Tying.....	193
(2) Telecommunications Services	194
(3) Telecommunications Equipment	196
(4) Advertising Services.....	200
c. Most Favored Nation Clauses	200

Chapter IV

Joint Ventures

A. Benefits and Competitive Risks of Joint Ventures.....	203
1. Benefits of Joint Ventures.....	203
2. Competitive Risks of Joint Ventures	204
a. Collusion	204
b. Loss of Potential Competition.....	204
c. Monopolization	205
B. How Federal Enforcement Agencies Evaluate Joint Ventures.....	205
1. FTC/DOJ Competitor Collaboration Guidelines	206
a. Per Se Illegality	206
b. Rule of Reason Analysis under the Competitor Collaboration Guidelines.....	208
c. The Nature of the Agreement.....	208
d. Relevant Markets, Market Shares, and Competitive Harm.....	209
e. Continued Competition among Participants.....	210
f. Entry	212
g. “Cognizable Efficiencies”	212
h. Antitrust “Safety Zones”	213
2. FCC Public Interest Review	213
C. Examination of Particular Telecom Joint Ventures.....	215
1. Cingular Wireless	215
2. Primestar	216
3. NCTC Business Review	217

4. Comcast-NBCU	219
a. Verizon Wireless-SpectrumCo.....	221
b. The DOJ’s Analysis	222
c. The FCC Analysis	224
d. Subsequent Developments	225
5. Alaska Wireless Joint Venture.....	226
6. Broadcast Station Joint Ventures	228

Chapter V
Mergers

A. Introduction	233
B. Overview of Legal Standards	234
1. Federal Antitrust Laws.....	234
a. The Clayton Act	235
(1) 2010 Merger Guidelines	236
(2) Market Definition	239
b. Merger Procedure: Hart-Scott-Rodino, Waiting Periods, and Second Requests	241
c. Antitrust Agency Clearance	242
2. The Communications Act	243
a. The FCC’s Role in Telecommunications Industry Merger Review.....	243
b. The FCC’s Public Interest Standard.....	245
(1) Overview.....	245
(2) The FCC’s Competitive Analytical Framework	247
(A) Spectrum-Related Transactions and Screens	251
(B) Procedures for FCC Transaction Review	254
3. State Enforcement of Antitrust Law	256
a. State Enforcement of Federal Law	256
b. State Antitrust Laws	258
4. State Public Utility Laws	259
5. Local Franchise Laws	263
C. Application of Legal Standards to Telecommunications Mergers.....	266
1. Introduction.....	266
2. Definition of the Relevant Product and Geographic Markets	266
a. Product Market.....	266
(1) Impact of Data Quality on FCC Approach	267
(2) Impact of Precedents on FCC Approach	268
(3) Impact of Evolving Markets on FCC Approach	269

b.	Geographic Market.....	271
3.	Market Participants, Market Shares, and Market Concentration.....	272
4.	Competitive Effects	275
5.	Market Entry and Expansion	277
6.	Dynamic Industry and Network Effects	282
7.	Actual versus Potential Competition	287
8.	Failing Firms and Divisions.....	289
D.	Efficiencies and Other Public Interest Benefits.....	291
1.	Efficiencies under the Antitrust Laws.....	292
2.	Efficiencies and Other Public Interest Benefits under the Communications Act	295
3.	Merger Simulations: Comparing Efficiencies in the AT&T/T-Mobile Merger to Efficiencies in the AT&T/DIRECTV Merger	298
a.	Efficiencies in the AT&T/T-Mobile Merger.....	298
b.	Efficiencies in the AT&T/DIRECTV Merger.....	300
E.	Vertical Mergers and Foreclosure Theories of Harm.....	301
1.	The Historical Perspective	303
2.	Vertical Theories of Anticompetitive Harm	305
a.	The Foreclosure Theory of Competitive Harm	306
b.	The Shift to a Focus on Raising Rivals' Costs.....	307
3.	Geographic Theories of Anticompetitive Harm	309
4.	Application of Vertical Merger Analysis in Telecom.....	310
a.	AOL/Time Warner	311
b.	News Corp./Hughes	314
c.	Comcast/Time Warner Cable/Adelphia	316
d.	Comcast/NBCU.....	318
e.	Charter/Time Warner Cable/Bright House.....	321
f.	AT&T/Time Warner, Inc.	324
F.	Government Remedies	328
1.	Overview.....	328
2.	Types of Remedies.....	328
a.	Structural Remedies in Action	329
b.	Conduct Remedies in Action.....	330
c.	Governance and Reporting Remedies in Action	331
3.	DOJ Enforcement Mechanisms	332
a.	Preliminary Injunctions	332
b.	Hold Separate Orders	334
4.	FCC Imposed Conditions.....	336
a.	Authority to Impose FCC Enforcement Mechanisms	336

- b. Standards 338
 - G. Private Enforcement 341
 - 1. Private Actions 341
 - 2. Deciding Whether and When to Sue: The Issue of a Prior Federal Agency Determination 343
 - 3. Preliminary Injunctions 344

Chapter VI

Immunities

- A. Introduction 347
- B. The State Action Doctrine 349
 - 1. The Midcal Test 350
 - 2. State Action Immunity of Local Governments 351
 - a. The State Action Doctrine Applied to Telecommunications Cases 353
- C. Solicitation of Government Action 355
 - 1. Introduction 355
 - 2. Petitioning the Government 357
 - a. Petitioning for Legislation—the Noerr Doctrine 357
 - b. Petitioning Courts and Administrative Agencies—Pennington and California Motor Transport 359
 - c. Joint Telecommunications-Related Advocacy 361
 - d. Noerr-Pennington Applied to Private Standards-Setting Organizations 362
 - e. The Sham Exception 366
 - (1) Applicability to Judicial Proceedings 366
 - (2) Applicability to Legislative Matters 369
 - (3) Applicability to Telecommunications 371
 - f. Government Acting as Buyer or Seller 373
- D. Inducement of Government Action by Improper Means 374
 - 1. Restraint of Trade as Inducement of Government Action 374
 - 2. Use of False Information 375
 - 3. Corruption, Bribery, and Conspiracy with Public Officials 378
 - 4. Evidentiary Use of Protected Activities 381
- E. Antitrust Liability: Implied Immunities 382
 - 1. The Principle of Implied Immunity 382
 - 2. Implied Immunity and the FCC 383
 - a. Court Skepticism Prior to the 1996 Act 384
 - b. The 1996 Act Antitrust Savings Clause and Trinko 386
- F. Primary Jurisdiction 386

1. Primary Jurisdiction Referrals to the FCC.....	388
2. Primary Jurisdiction Referrals to State Regulatory Commissions.....	391
3. The Status of a Case Pending Primary Jurisdiction.....	391
G. The Filed-Rate Doctrine.....	392
1. The Doctrine's Application in Antitrust Cases.....	393
2. The Doctrine's Application in Telecommunications Cases.....	395
3. Safe Harbors for Coercive and Deceptive Practices: Tariffs, the Filed-Rate Doctrine, and Other Vestiges of the Regulatory Era.....	397

Chapter VII

Consumer Protection

A. Introduction.....	399
B. Jurisdiction over Unfair and Coercive Practices in the Deregulated Telecommunications Marketplace.....	400
1. Federal Response to Consumer Protection Issues in Telecommunications Markets.....	401
a. FCC Consumer Protection Jurisdiction and Enforcement.....	401
b. Federal Trade Commission Jurisdiction and Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices.....	403
2. State Response to Consumer Protection Issues.....	406
3. Private Response to Consumer Protection Issues.....	409
C. Privacy and the Telecommunications Markets.....	411
D. Consumer Protection in the Telecommunications Marketplace.....	413
1. Slamming.....	413
2. Cell Phone Locking and Early Termination Fees.....	418
3. Wireless "Bill Shock".....	420
4. Cramming.....	421
5. Negative Option Billing.....	424
6. Deceptive Advertising.....	425
7. Unfair Practices.....	427
8. Pay-Per-Call and Information Services.....	428
9. Hacking and Consumer Liability for Unauthorized Charges.....	430
10. Quality of Service.....	431
11. Telemarketing.....	433

12. Voice over Internet Protocol and Advanced Technologies.....	439
