

About the Author

Mark E. Sullivan is the principal of Law Offices of Mark E. Sullivan, P.A. He has been certified as a family law specialist by the North Carolina Board of Legal Specialization since 1989. He is a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers (AAML) and past president of the North Carolina Chapter of the AAML. Mr. Sullivan has served in the capacity of director or member of the North Carolina State Bar military committee since its inception in 1981, and he has been a member and chairman of the American Bar Association's Standing Committee on Legal Assistance for Military Personnel. He served in 2003–2004 on the ABA President's Task Force on Protecting the Rights of Servicemembers, has written numerous articles and information papers on military family law, and is a frequent speaker on this subject to military and civilian lawyer audiences in North Carolina and in other states. In 2014, he was given the Grassroots Advocacy Award by the American Bar Association for his work in getting states to enact military custody and visitation legislation. He retired in 2002 from the Army Reserve as a colonel in the Judge Advocate General's Corps with 34 years of commissioned service, and he was awarded the Legion of Merit as "the Army's foremost authority in family law." Mr. Sullivan has taught military family law at the Judge Advocate General's Legal Center and School (Army), where he is an honorary lifetime faculty and staff member, and at the Naval Justice School.