

Contents

Preface     v

About the Authors     vii

- 1 A Tale of Five Cities: Lawyering in Havana, Washington, DC, Miami, Santiago, and New York     1
Marcos Ríos
- 2 Christina Blacklaws’s Story     35
Christina Blacklaws
- 3 The Past, Present, and Future of Practicing International Law as an International Disputes Lawyer in Miami     41
Cristina Cárdenas
- 4 How Did I Get Here? An Unplanned Career in International Law     45
Nancy Kaymar Stafford
- 5 Network or Not Work—The Choice Is Yours     55
Mark E. Wojcik
- 6 My Toolbox     67
Robin Gerofsky Kaptzan
- 7 Always Trust Your Instincts     85
Walter Douglas Stuber

- 8 If an Immigrant Can Do It, So Can You:
Finding International Clients by Taking Ownership of Your Legal Career   93
Ireneo A. Reus III
- 9 Representing the Immigrant   103
Hedwin Salmen-Navarro
- 10 Building Bridges: Careers in International Environmental Law and Policy   111
Fatima Maria Ahmad
- 11 From the Labor Courts of New Delhi to the Presidency of ITechLaw   123
Sajai Singh
- 12 A Career in International Rule of Law   131
Lelia Mooney
- 13 An International Route for an International Lawyer   139
Kabir A. N. Duggal
- 14 Go West, Young Woman: Grow Up with
Your Passion   147
Joyce Williams
- 15 Turmoil, Teaching, Training, and Transformation:
Global Rule of Law Development in the Twenty-First Century   157
Gregg B. Brelsford

- Index   183