

Table of Contents

Foreword to the First Edition

by Prof. Donald A. Dripps vii

Foreword to the Second Edition

by David Lat xiii

Chapter 1: How to Write:

A Memorandum from a Curmudgeon 3

Chapter 2: How to Fail as an Associate 13

Chapter 3: What They Didn't Tell You in Law School 33

Chapter 4: The Curmudgeonly Assistant 45

Chapter 5: The Curmudgeon's Law Dictionary 57

Chapter 6: Seven Hours Locked in a Room 65

Chapter 7: The Curmudgeon Argues 87

Chapter 8: Dress for Success 99

Chapter 9: How to Enter Time

So That Clients Will Pay for It 101

Chapter 10: The Curmudgeon on Couth 107

Chapter 11: The Curmudgeon on Clients 123

Chapter 12: The Curmudgeon's Guide to

Building a Practice 131

Afterword to the Second Edition

by Mark Herrmann 143

About the Author 163