

---

About the Authors

Megan M. Adeyemo (Chapter 8: The Impact of the Automatic Stay) is a partner in the Dallas office of Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani LLP. Her practice focuses on Bankruptcy, Restructuring & Creditors' Rights, Business Transactions, Real Estate, Directors, Officers, and Shareholder Litigation, as well as Banking & Finance. Ms. Adeyemo has represented parties in every aspect of bankruptcy, including debtors, debtors-in-possession, secured and unsecured creditors, creditors' committees, and trustees. Her practice spans the United States, including California, Colorado, Florida, and Texas. Ms. Adeyemo previously served as a co-chair of the Mountain-Desert Network of the International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation and is currently co-chair of the publications and content subcommittee for the Business Bankruptcy Committee of the American Bar Association. She has received numerous awards, including the Rising Star award in the field of Bankruptcy & Creditor/Debtor Rights from 2013 through 2015. Ms. Adeyemo has been frequently published in both local and national publications. Ms. Adeyemo can be reached at madeyemo@grsm.com or (214) 461-4053.

Courtney E. Alvarez (Chapter 11: In-House Counsel's Guide to Insurance Coverage) is Counsel in the Insurance Recovery Group at Lowenstein Sandler LLP. She represents corporate policyholders in complex insurance coverage disputes relating to directors and officers liabilities, government investigations, professional errors and omissions liabilities, products liabilities, and environmental liabilities. She has successfully implemented legal strategies to obtain favorable coverage results for a range of clients, including defense contracting firms, financial services firms, automobile parts manufactures, government-sponsored enterprises, and regulated utilities, as well as individual directors and officers. Courtney holds a law degree from Howard University School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Villanova University. She has handled all aspects of insurance coverage claims, from drafting notice letters to responding to insurer investigatory reservation of rights letters and insurer claim denials. She can be reached at calvarez@lowenstein.com or +1 202.753.3760.

Terese L. Arenth (Chapter 12: What Is a Trademark or Service Mark?) is a partner in the Garden City, New York office of Moritt Hock & Hamroff LLP, where she serves as Chair of its Marketing, Advertising & Promotions practice group within its Intellectual Property department. Ms. Arenth concentrates her practice in promotional marketing, advertising and Internet/new media and also has extensive experience in the firm's intellectual property, cybersecurity and unfair competition practice areas. She is an experienced litigator in complex arbitrations and litigation in both State and Federal Courts, focusing on trademarks, copyrights, domain name disputes, TCPA claims and business disputes. Ms. Arenth also regularly handles matters involving a variety of sponsorship, licensing, distribution and general corporate transactions, primarily in connection with the counseling, negotiation and drafting of sponsorship, licensing and distribution agreements, online privacy policies and website terms of use. She has frequently served as a speaker and author on various advertising, marketing, and intellectual property law-related topics. As a member of the Intellectual Property Law Section of the American Bar Association, she has served two terms as Chair of its Promotions & Marketing Law Committee and two terms as Vice-Chair. Ms. Arenth was recognized by Long Island Business News as one of Long Island's Top 50 Most Influential Women in Business for two consecutive years and has been honored by Hofstra University's School of Law as an Outstanding Woman in Law. She can be reached at tarenth@moritthock.com.

Leslie A. Berkoff (Chapter 8: The Impact of the Automatic Stay) is a partner at Moritt Hock & Hamroff LLP, where she serves as Co-Chair of the firm's Litigation and Bankruptcy Practice Group, as well as Co-Chair of the firm's Alternate Dispute Resolution Practice. Ms. Berkoff concentrates her practice in the area of bankruptcy and restructuring litigation and corporate workouts, and she represents a variety of corporate debtors, trustees, creditors and creditor committees both nationally and locally. Her practice also includes an emphasis on equipment leasing and healthcare law. Ms. Berkoff is also an experienced litigator and handles corporate transactions both locally and nationally. In addition, Ms. Berkoff has an active alternate dispute resolution practice and frequently serves as a mediator and arbitrator. Ms. Berkoff serves as a Member of the Dispute Resolution Section Advisory Council of the American Bar Association (ABA), she is also a contributing editor on ADR for the ABA's publication Business Law Today. She is the Vice Chair and Content Director for the ABA's Dispute Resolution Committee, as well as the Membership Chair of the Business Bankruptcy Committee for the Business Law Section of the ABA. Ms. Berkoff is Co-Chair of the Mediation Committee for the New York State Bar Association as well as Co-Chair of the Mediation Committee of the American Bankruptcy Institute and a contributing editor on for the organization's journals on the Mediation Matters column. Ms. Berkoff holds a BA from the State University of New York at Albany, as well as a Juris Doctorate from Hofstra School of Law. Prior to joining Moritt Hock & Hamroff LLP, Ms. Berkoff served as a law clerk to the Honorable Jerome Feller, United States Bankruptcy Judge in the Eastern District of New York, from 1991 to 1993 and to the Honorable Allyne R. Ross, Federal Magistrate Judge in the Eastern District of New York, from 1990 to 1991. Ms. Berkoff speaks and publishes extensively and is a recognized leader in her field. She can be reached at lberkoff@moritthock.com or 1-516-873-2000.

Thomas E. Best (Chapter 6: Requests for Proposal and Alternative Fee Arrangements as an Effective Tool for Evaluating and Selecting Outside Counsel) is a Deputy General Counsel for The Home Depot, the world's largest home improvement retailer. Tom leads the General Liability and Legal Operations for the Company and advises its Asset Protection, Corporate Security, and Business Continuity functions on strategy. Tom is a certified Six Sigma Green Belt and a trained Six Sigma Black Belt. During Tom's time at the Company, Tom has pioneered several innovative programs that have directly resulted in process improvements and cost savings including the use of National Discovery Counsel, Regionalization and Rationalization of Outside Counsel, Alternative Fee Programs, Early Case Assessment, Pre-Litigation Alternative Dispute, and Medicare Secondary Payer Compliance. Tom serves as Co-Chairperson of the Legal Department's Supplier Diversity efforts and has been a frequent panelist at the State Bar of Georgia's Business Development Symposium. Tom has received several intra-Company awards over the years including being a member of the Company's Associate Leadership Program and Director's Learning Experience (DLX). He has also received the Company's prestigious "Living the Values Award" and executive recognition for his leading role with the Legal Department's Supplier Diversity efforts. Tom is a graduate of the University of Virginia and the Walter F. George School of Law at Mercer University where he served on the Law Review Editorial Board as the Student Writing Editor. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Volunteer Lawyer's Foundation and has served in past years on various boards of the National Retail and Restaurant Association (NRRDA) and CLM.

Stephen E. Breidenbach (Chapter 13: Patents) is an associate at Moritt Hock & Hamroff LLP. He works hand-in-hand with clients to help them better understand their use of technology and solve the complex legal problems which manifest when law and technology collide. He helps companies meet their compliance obligations under the various cybersecurity, privacy and communications laws. He assists companies in drafting written information security policies (WISPs), privacy policies, terms of use, structuring and reviewing data retention policies, drafting cybersecurity provisions for vendor agreements (such as Business Associate Agreements) and handling cybersecurity incidents (such as phishing attacks, denial of service attacks, etc.), including data breaches. He is also often involved in drafting software development contracts, advising on Americans with Disability Act compliance for websites, reviewing rights issues related to the usage of open source code, handling online defamation, drafting Software as a Service Agreements, handling Digital Millennium

Copyright Act violations, determining compliance obligations for online advertising and protecting the intellectual property rights of clients' electronic assets (such as software). He can be reached at sbreidenbach@moritthock.com or 12122392000.

Lauren H. Cooper (Chapter 10: Electronic Discovery in Civil Litigation) is an associate with Actuate Law, LLC in Chicago, where her practice focuses on representing clients in resolving consumer finance disputes in matters involving compliance with the Fair Debt Collections Practices Act (FDCPA) and the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) as well as licensing and regulatory matters. Lauren also has expertise in the fields of Data Privacy and Security, Information Governance and Records Management and E-Discovery. Lauren received her law degree from Loyola University of Chicago School of Law and her Undergraduate Degree from the University of Michigan. Lauren can be reached at lauren.cooper@actuatelaw.com or 312-579-3126.

Elizabeth S. Fenton (Chapter 2: Internal Corporate Investigations) practices in the Wilmington, Delaware office of Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr LLP. A litigation partner, she focuses on disputes involving corporate and LLC governance, indemnification rights, fiduciary duties, and restrictive covenants. She has led internal investigations of businesses in the financial, healthcare, and manufacturing industries. Subject matters include compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the Commodity Exchange Act, Sarbanes-Oxley and many others. A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Law School and Brown University, Elizabeth may be reached at elizabeth.fenton@saul.com or on Twitter @delitigator.

Amy R. Foote (Chapter 3: Conducting a Sexual Harassment Investigation: A Practical Guide) is a partner with StoneTurn, a global advisory firm. She brings nearly 20 years of legal, regulatory, compliance and investigative experience as a prosecutor, internal corporate counsel, and litigator. Amy has advised public and private sector clients on compliance issues, commercial disputes, governance issues, and complex litigation, and investigations. She has supervised compliance engagements, conducted numerous internal investigations, and managed a wide variety of employment disputes and criminal and regulatory matters. Amy also successfully defended clients in criminal and civil matters, including those before the U.S. Department of Justice, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the New York State Attorney General's Office, and local law enforcement departments. Amy began her legal career as an Assistant District Attorney in the New York County District Attorney's Office. She frequently writes about workplace discrimination issues and sexual harassment. Amy can be reached at afoote@stoneturn.com or +1 646 979 4111.

Susan N. Goodman (Chapter 5: Cybersecurity and Protecting Data Privacy) is a partner at the Tucson firm of Mesch Clark Rothschild, P.C. Ms. Goodman joined the firm in 2013, expanding its' healthcare practice to include regulatory compliance expertise where she focuses her practice on healthcare provider support in contracting, dispute resolution, compliance, governance, and process improvement. She also supports the United States Bankruptcy Trustee as a patient care ombudsman in Chapter 9 and 11 health care reorganizations. Ms. Goodman's other professional experiences include: RN in the cardiac catheterization lab and cardiac critical care unit; cardiac medical device industry experience in clinical education support, sales, marketing, and human resources management; hospice admission team management; revenue and expense hospital-based performance improvement work; and, data analytics.

Lauren E. Jaffe (Chapter 10: Electronic Discovery in Civil Litigation) is an associate in the Chicago office of Riley Safer Holmes & Cancila LLP, a national law firm of litigators, trial lawyers, and transactional attorneys. She has experience in complex commercial litigation, class actions, criminal, and compliance matters, and has practiced from the vantage points of private attorney, federal law clerk, and trial paralegal. Ms. Jaffe graduated with honors from both the University of Chicago Law School, where she received her law degree, and Washington University in St. Louis, where she received her Bachelor of Arts. She is admitted to practice in Illinois, the Sixth and Seventh Circuit Courts of Appeals, the Northern District of Illinois, and the Southern District of Ohio. Ms. Jaffe can be reached at ljaffe@rshc-law.com or 312-471-8726.

Samantha R. Johnson (Chapter 1: Attorney-Client Privilege for the In-House Attorney) is a Senior Associate General Counsel for Grady Health System, one of the largest public academic healthcare systems in the United States. Her practice includes both transactional and litigation matters. She counsels, represents and educates Grady employees and medical staff on issues of patient care, ethics, contracts, human resources, compliance, risk management and regulatory matters. She devotes a substantial portion of her time to advising Grady's Care Management Department, which includes Nurse Case Management and Social Work, and Grady's Emergency Medical Services division. Prior to her in-house career, Ms. Johnson handled civil litigation, insurance coverage, and insurance defense matters. Samantha is an accomplished author and speaker, focusing on legal issues for emergency medical services, EMTALA, guardianships, healthcare law and ethics, and insurance law. She is an adjunct professor for the Georgia State College of Law and the Georgia State J. Mack Robinson College of Business.

Samantha is an active member of both the State Bar of Georgia and the State Bar of South Carolina. A native of Atlanta, Georgia, she is a graduate of The Westminster Schools and Vanderbilt University. She received her law degree from the Georgia State University College of Law in 2003, and her Master of Business Administration and Master of Health Administration from the Georgia State J. Mack Robinson College of Business in 2014. Samantha can be reached at sjohnson@gmh.edu or (404) 616-6238.

Krista L. Kulp (Chapter 8: The Impact of the Automatic Stay) is an associate with Cole Schotz P.C. in Hackensack, New Jersey where she practices in the litigation and bankruptcy departments. She represents businesses in commercial litigation and disputes at the trial and appellate levels. Her experience also includes creditors' rights and bankruptcy. Ms. Kulp has taken key roles in many components of civil litigation, such as writing pleadings and motions, drafting and reviewing discovery, taking and defending depositions, facilitating settlement negotiations, and advocating for clients at hearings and at trial.

Ms. Kulp serves as Editor-in-Chief of the e-newsletter for the Business Bankruptcy Committee for the American Bar Association. Through the Business Bankruptcy Committee, she has participated in panel discussions and webinars and has authored and prepared written materials relating to bankruptcy issues. She co-authored the fourth chapter of Reorganizing Failing Business, 3rd Ed., 2017 published by the Business Law Section of the American Bar Association and has been published in the New York Law Journal and the American Bankruptcy Institute Journal. She also serves as the Communications Co-Chair for IWIRC-NY. Ms. Kulp can be reached at kkulp@coleschotz.com or at 201-525-6317.

Katherine A. Lemire (Chapter 3: Conducting a Sexual Harassment Investigation: a Practical Guide) is a partner with StoneTurn, a global advisory firm. She has more than 20 years of experience advising public and private sector clients on a broad range of compliance and integrity issues, complex investigations, corruption, anti-money laundering, fraud, and risk matters. She brings deep expertise in law enforcement best practices and supervisory, investigative, and oversight skills to tackle corporate malfeasance, money laundering schemes, sexual misconduct in the workplace, cyber fraud, employee theft, and corruption. Katherine previously operated Lemire LLC, a firm specializing in compliance, risk, and investigative matters, and served as an Assistant United States Attorney in the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York. Katherine is a frequent speaker and panelist at industry events on internal investigations, monitorships and regulatory reviews. She has written on issues including sexual harassment, cybersecurity and compliance. Katherine can be reached at: klemire@stoneturn.com or +1 646 979 4101.

John Levitske (Chapter 2: Internal Corporate Investigations) is a Senior Managing Director in the Chicago office of Ankura, a global expert and consulting services firm. John focuses on Business Valuation Dispute Analysis and Complex Financial Disputes. He has over 30 years of experience, including over two decades of Big Four public accounting and international consulting firm experience, in business valuation, financial analysis, economic damage quantification, forensic accounting, retrospective solvency analysis, and post-merger & acquisition accounting calculations. Furthermore, he has provided consulting and expert witness testimony services and has served as a neutral party in arbitration and mediation. He has testified as an expert witness in the US and Europe in depositions, hearings, bench and jury court trials, and domestic and international arbitration (ICC, SCC, AAA, JAMS, FINRA, and ad hoc arbitrations) and has served as a neutral arbitrator. In addition, he currently serves as the Chair of the Dispute Resolution Committee of the Business Law Section of the American Bar Association and is a past National President of the Forensic Expert Witness Association.

Michelle N. Lipkowitz (Chapter 2: Internal Corporate Investigations) is a partner in the Baltimore office of Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr LLP, a full-service law firm, where she focuses her practice on commercial litigation, white collar defense, and government investigations. Michelle brings a breadth of litigation experience, including traditional criminal experience, to her practice. Accordingly, Michelle has extensive experience dealing with highly sensitive matters and crisis management, including handling the press. Her practice includes internal and governmental investigations, commercial real estate, shareholder disputes, consumer class actions, construction matters, products liability, and contractual disputes. She represents clients from a broad range of industries, including pharmaceutical, manufacturing, education, financial services, healthcare, construction, technology, retail and telecommunications, as well as governmental entities and nonprofits. Michelle obtained her J.D. from Georgetown Law and her B.A. from Harvard University. She can be reached at Michelle.Lipkowitz@saul.com or + 410-419-5482.

John G. Loughnane (Chapter 5: Cybersecurity and Protecting Data Privacy) is a partner in the Corporate and Transactions Department of Nutter McClennen & Fish LLP in Boston. He helps clients negotiate and implement technology and financing transactions. He also helps clients navigate change and solve problems in today's fast paced innovation economy. Earlier in his career, John served as Regional Corporate Counsel for North America at PTC, an international publicly-traded technology company. John serves on the Executive Board of TMA Global (Turnaround Management Association), on the Board of the Legal Technology Resource Center (LTRC) of the American Bar Association's Law Practice Division, and as Special Projects Leader for the Mediation Committee of the American Bankruptcy Institute. John is a member of the International Association of Privacy Professionals and is a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US). John has served as a board member of the George Washington University Law Alumni Association and currently serves as president of the College of the Holy Cross Lawyers Association. He can be reached at jloughnane@nutter.com.

Mark A. McGrath (Chapter 2: Internal Corporate Investigations) is a Senior Managing Director at Ankura, an international firm that provides management consulting and expert services to businesses. He is a Certified Public Accountant and Certified Fraud Examiner with twenty years of accounting, auditing, investigative and internal controls experience. He focuses his practice on assisting legal counsel, corporate clients, boards and audit committees on complex, fact-finding accounting investigations involving whistleblower allegations, SEC enforcement and financial reporting issues. He is also a trusted advisor to clients on matters involving anticorruption and bribery, technical accounting and auditing issues, internal controls assessments and remediation, regulatory compliance, anti-money laundering, and other litigation support needs. He can be reached at mark.mcgrath@ankura.com or 202-251-3275.

Alexandra Morgan (Chapter 7: Managing Regional and National Litigation) is a former Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP litigation associate in Chicago. She currently serves as a law clerk on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Ms. Morgan earned her J.D. from the University of Chicago, with honors.

Sheila M. Murphy (Chapter 6: Requests for Proposal and Alternative Fee Arrangements as an Effective Tool for Evaluating and Selecting Outside Counsel) is Senior Vice President and Associate General Counsel at MetLife. She leads the U.S. Regulatory and Retail Litigation Group where she provides litigation, regulatory and risk mitigation advice. Sheila focuses on providing proactive, strategic advice to identify and resolve complex issues and protects business interests. Sheila can be reached at smurphy1@metlife.com. Sheila is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Law School, where she served on the Comparative Labor Law Journal and the School of Management at the State University of New York at Binghamton where she graduated magna cum laude. Prior to joining MetLife, Sheila was at the law firm of Thacher Proffitt & Wood.

Shelby A. Poteet (Chapter 8: The Impact of the Automatic Stay) is an associate in the San Diego office of Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani LLP. Her practice focuses on Bankruptcy, Restructuring & Creditors' Rights, Commercial Litigation, Directors, Officers, and Shareholder Litigation, as well as Consumer Protection defense. Ms. Poteet volunteers with the Credit Abuse Resistance Education program, where she teaches high school students about financial literacy. Ms. Poteet can be reached at spoteet@grsm.com or (619) 696-6700.

Daniella Quitt (Chapter 9: Managing Class Actions) is a partner at Glancy Prongay & Murray LLP, a national law firm based in Los Angeles with offices in New York specializing in class action litigation in federal and state courts throughout the country. Ms. Quitt has focused her practice on shareholder rights and ERISA class actions but also handles general commercial and consumer litigation. Ms. Quitt has extensive experience in successfully litigating complex class actions from inception to trial. She graduated from Fordham University School of Law in 1988 and is a member of the Bar of the State of New York, and is also admitted to the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York and the United States Court of Appeals for the Second, Fifth, and Ninth Circuits. Ms. Quitt also serves as a member of the S.D.N.Y. ADR Panel. She can be reached at dquitt@glancylaw.com.

Steven S. Rubin (Chapter 13: Patents) is Chief Intellectual Property Counsel for ITT Inc. In this role, he is responsible for leading ITT's intellectual property protection strategy, including assessing the commercial and strategic value of the company's portfolio, identifying the gaps and areas of opportunity and advising senior management of actions to be taken to maximize the value of ITT's intellectual property portfolio. A patent and cybersecurity attorney with more than 20 years of experience, Steve joined ITT in 2018 from Moritt Hock & Hamroff, LLP, where he created and chaired the firm's patent practice and formed and co-chaired its cybersecurity practice. He is currently serving as the co-chair of the Internet of Things (IoT) committee in the Licensing Executives Society and has served in various other roles in other professional organizations. He is a senior member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE), a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US) and active in the American Bar Association Intellectual Property Law section. Steve speaks and publishes frequently on issues and topics related to patent and cybersecurity law and has taught intellectual property and patent law at several New York universities. He holds a Juris Doctorate degree from Hofstra University School of Law and a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from the New York Institute of Technology.

Joseph M. Saka (Chapter 11: In-House Counsel's Guide to Insurance Coverage) is a commercial litigator in the Washington, DC office of Lowenstein Sandler LLP. As Counsel in the firm's Insurance Recovery Group, he has more than ten years of experience in helping legal departments enforce their contractual rights and recover money from breaching parties. His efforts have resulted in more than $100 million in recoveries under all major types of commercial insurance. Joseph is a cum laude graduate of The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law, and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from George Washington University. Prior to entering private practice, Joseph served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Ricardo M. Urbina (retired) of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. His clients include corporations, nonprofit organization, and state-owned enterprises pursuing insurance coverage and contractual indemnification for significant losses and liabilities. He can be reached at jsaka@lowenstein.com or +1 202.753.3758.

Michael J. Schwab (Chapter 14: Copyright) is counsel at Moritt Hock & Hamroff where he handles all facets of soft intellectual property and licensing matters. Mr. Schwab specializes in trademark and copyright counseling, litigation and counseling on regulatory and other issues in the beverage alcohol, dietary supplement and food industries. His practice is diversified and includes all aspects of a domestic and international copyright practice, including registering and enforcing copyrights in the United States and abroad as well as counseling clients on a wide range of issues such as work for hire, fair use, international copyright protection, renewal and termination of rights and recording registrations with customs authorities. He also has extensive experience drafting and negotiating contracts involving copyrighted works such as software licenses, work for hire agreements, publish agreements, assignments, licenses and distribution agreements. His practice also includes all aspects of a domestic and international trademark practice, including, advising, searching the availability of marks, filing and prosecuting trademark applications, handling contested oppositions, cancellations and litigations, managing worldwide trademark portfolios, enforcing trademark rights, including gray market goods, anti-counterfeiting, and monitoring and preventing infringing third party trademarks, internet and related domain name use and advertising compliance. Mr. Schwab can be reached at mschwab@moritthock.com or + 212-239-2000.

Steven P. Seltzer (Chapter 5: Cybersecurity and Protecting Data Privacy) is Deputy General Counsel at Moritt Hock & Hamroff LLP, a full-service New York business law firm with offices in Garden City and Manhattan. Steven is a member of the Commercial Litigation Practice Group and provides advice and counsel on a wide variety of dispute and pre-dispute matters, including issues of cybersecurity. He also provides internal ethics advice to attorneys in the firm. Before joining the firm, Steven enjoyed a 25-year in-house career at MetLife. In that role, Steven similarly handled a broad range of business litigation and pre-litigation matters, as well as having led the department's Global Litigation Unit and coordinated a cross-functional legal team to partner with the company's IT department in enhancing its U.S. cybersecurity preparation and prevention efforts. Steven received his J.D. from NYU School of Law and his undergraduate degree from Emory University. He can be reached at sseltzer@moritthock.com or 516-873-2000.

Elizabeth J. Champnoi (Chapter 4: Mediation and Arbitration: How to Prepare Your Company and Yourself) is President of Champnoi Dispute Resolution and Management Services, Inc. and serves as a mediator, arbitrator, consulting expert and trainer. With 20 years of experience in the field of alternative dispute resolution (ADR), Ms. Champnoi works with in-house counsel, law firms, and executives providing strategic advice to develop and implement ADR programs to avoid and resolve disputes quickly and efficiently while achieving successful outcomes. Ms. Champnoi regularly serves as a mediator and arbitrator in commercial and employment disputes and has successfully mediated and arbitrated over 200 disputes. She also provides trainings for companies concerning best practices in all areas of ADR. Ms. Champnoi's focus in the area of ADR began early in her career when she served as the District Vice President of the New York region of the American Arbitration Association (AAA). Following her tenure at the AAA, Ms. Champnoi served as a litigator and in-house counsel. Ms. Champnoi is based in New York City and can be reached at (914) 522-0174 or elizabeth@champnoiadr.com.

Charles F. Smith (Chapter 7: Managing Regional and National Litigation) is a partner at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and leads the litigation and regulatory enforcement group in Chicago. He represents a broad array of U.S. and international companies, as well as their top executives, in complex regulatory investigations, enforcement matters and litigation. Mr. Smith is an experienced trial lawyer, having tried many cases in federal and state courts around the country. These cases typically involve complex securities, accounting, financial or bankruptcy-related issues. He has represented many companies and their officers and directors in securities and derivative litigation. Mr. Smith has also represented financial services firms in SEC, DOJ, CFTC and FINRA enforcement matters. Mr. Smith earned his J.D. from University of Chicago Law School, cum laude. He can be reached at charles.smith@skadden.com or +1 312.407.0516.

Penelope M. Taylor (Chapter 6: Requests for Proposal and Alternative Fee Arrangements as an Effective Tool for Evaluating and Selecting Outside Counsel) is a partner at McCarter & English, LLP and is admitted to practice in New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania. She has more than 25 years of experience handling complex commercial litigation with a focus on life insurance, annuities, securities, mutual fund, investment, and ERISA litigation. She primarily represents financial services companies, banks, account representatives, brokers, broker-dealers, and corporations in individual and class actions and FINRA arbitrations involving all kinds of business, commercial, and consumer disputes. She can be reached at ptaylor@mccarter.com or + 1 973.639.7947.

Martin T. Tully (Chapter 10: Electronic Discovery in Civil Litigation) is a founding partner of Actuate Law, LLC in Chicago. He is a veteran trial lawyer with over 25 years of national experience representing companies and individuals in complex commercial litigation concerning a broad array of fields and industries. Empowered by his commercial litigation practice, Martin is nationally recognized for his knowledge and experience in the fields of electronic discovery, information governance and data security/data privacy. His expertise helps clients to stay ahead of the curve in each of these fields with respect to developing law, technology, and best practices, whether in the context of active litigation and regulatory matters, or in seeking to avoid them. Martin is also adept at leveraging both technology and strategic partnerships with technologists to achieve client objectives. Martin advances thought-leadership in data law as a member of the Steering Committee of the Sedona Conference Working Group on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG-1), as an active member of the Sedona Conference Working Group on Data Security and Privacy Liability (WG-11), the 7th Circuit Council on eDiscovery and Digital Information, the ABA Section of Litigation, Privacy and Data Security Committee, and the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP). In addition, Martin has published and presented extensively on the topics of e-discovery, information governance, cybersecurity, and legal technology; has been recognized by Chambers USA, Nationwide, for Litigation: E-Discovery; and has been acknowledged by Who's Who Legal as being "widely regarded for his 'superior knowledge' of electronic discovery and information governance." Martin is a graduate of the University of Illinois at Chicago and a graduate, with honor, of the DePaul University College of Law. Martin is also devoted to public service, having served as the elected mayor of his hometown of Downers Grove, IL for eight years. He can be reached at martin.tully@actuatelaw.com or 312.579.3128.

Amy Van Gelder (Chapter 7: Managing Regional and National Litigation) is a partner at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP in Chicago. She represents a wide variety of clients in complex commercial litigation, including securities and consumer fraud class actions, bankruptcy litigation, shareholder derivative suits, and disputes relating to mergers and acquisitions and commercial contracts. Ms. Van Gelder's experience includes counseling clients in federal and state court throughout the country and in all phases of litigation, including trial and appeal. She also has represented corporations in regulatory investigations, including matters before the Department of Justice, the SEC and multiple state regulators. Ms. Van Gelder earned her J.D. from George Washington University, with highest honors. She can be reached at amy.vangelder@skadden.com or +1 312.407.0903.

Chet B. Waldman (Chapter 9: Managing Class Actions) is a partner at Wolf Popper LLP, based in New York City, where he has concentrated in litigating numerous federal and state securities class actions and derivative actions throughout the U.S. He also has extensive experience in litigating complex health care and consumer fraud cases. Prior to working at Wolf Popper, Chet worked at the New York office of Weil, Gotshal & Manges, where he was predominantly involved in antitrust litigation. He has been a member of the Securities Litigation Committee, the Mergers & Acquisition Committee, as well as the Inter-American Affairs Committee of the New York City Bar Association. Chet is a graduate of Cornell University (A.B. 1982) and Boston University School of Law (J.D., 1985) where he was both a G. Joseph Tauro Scholar and a Paul J. Liacos Scholar and was a member of the American Journal of Law and Medicine. He was admitted to the bar in 1986 for the State of New York, the United States District Court, Southern and Eastern Districts of New York in 1988, and the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit in 2013. He can be reached at cwaldman@wolfpopper.com or 212-451-9624.

Kelly M. Warner (Chapter 10: Electronic Discovery in Civil Litigation) is a partner in the Chicago office of Riley Safer Holmes & Cancila LLP. Kelly conducts internal investigations, responds to regulators' inquiries, advises clients on corporate compliance, and represents clients in prosecuting and defending complex civil and criminal litigation matters. Kelly has significant experience consulting with clients and colleagues on eDiscovery obligations and litigation readiness. She has served as adjunct professor of law at the Loyola University Chicago School of Law. Kelly is a member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1). She is the co-chair of the Education Sub-Committee of the 7th Circuit Council on eDiscovery and Digital Information (formerly the Seventh Circuit Pilot Program on Electronic Discovery), and also trained as an eMediator under the Council's eMediation program. Kelly can be reached at kwarner@rshc-law.com or 312-471-8740.