

ABOUT THE EDITORS

Thomas L. Rosenberg, Content Editor, Contributing Author, and Author Coordinator, is a partner with the law firm of Roetzel & Andress, LPA, resident in its Columbus, Ohio, office. Mr. Rosenberg focuses his practices on construction law and civil litigation and leads the construction law practice at his firm, which has been consistently recognized as one of the best law firms nationally and locally for construction and construction litigation by U.S. News & World Report. He has been recognized for the past 15 years as one of Ohio's leading construction lawyers by Chambers USA. In a recent edition of Chambers USA it was stated that Mr. Rosenberg is "esteemed for his broad expertise and he has an impressive list of clients." He has been selected as an "Ohio Super Lawyer" by Ohio Super Lawyers magazine for the past 14 years. The magazine also named him to the Top 50 list of all lawyers in Columbus, Ohio, in 2018 and 2019. He is listed in the "Best Lawyers in America" for the specialty of construction law and has been recognized in "International Who's Who" in Construction Law for his international construction law experience. Mr. Rosenberg is an arbitrator with the American Arbitration Association; chair of the American Bar Association, Forum on Construction Law; former chair of the Lawyers Group of the Builders Exchange of Central Ohio; former chair of the Construction Law Committee of the Columbus (Ohio) Bar Association; a member of the Construction Law Committee of the Ohio State Bar Association; and a Fellow in the American College of Construction Lawyers.

Robert H. Pratt, FCPE, Content Editor, Contributing Author, Author Coordinator, and Creator of the concept for this book, is executive vice president of Demand Construction Services, Inc., in Denver, Colorado. He is a principal in the firm, and is responsible for professional services in the fields of forensic schedule analysis, forensic cost estimating, and damages. He also performs analyses of contract clauses for purposes of allocation of damages from a contractor's perspective, and renders opinions on contract administration and standards of care applicable to various parties involved in the construction process. Since 1982, he has been engaged by clients in over 560 cases domestically and internationally. He has testified as an expert witness in approximately 25 percent of those cases. He received his BS degree in architectural engineering from the University of Colorado at Boulder. He is a Fellow Certified Professional Estimator (FCPE) and a past national president of the American Society of Professional Estimators (ASPE). He has been a mediator and a member of the AAA National Panel of Construction Arbitrators. He has taught numerous seminars on AIA contracts and ConsensusDocs. He has been active in a number of construction trade and professional associations, including the ABA, AGC, ABC, ASA, and AACEL. He has served as ASPE's representative as well as chair of the Contract Content Advisory Committee (CCAC) for the Coalition of ConsensusDocs endorsing organizations.

Kerry L. Kester, Content Editor and Author Coordinator, is a retired partner of the firm Woods & Aitken. Kerry Kester has practiced law with Woods & Aitken since 1981, focusing on construction contracting; construction dispute resolution; and counseling of general and specialty contractors, owners, subcontractors, sureties, design professionals, and suppliers. Kerry's experience includes counseling clients regarding claims and dispute avoidance, lien and bond claims, contract negotiations, and project management. It also includes mediation, arbitration, and appeals before state and federal courts, administrative agencies, and the federal boards of contract appeals. He has handled disputes on local, state, and federal projects as well as on private projects. Kerry is involved in professional and industry organizations and is a frequent speaker and writer on construction-related topics. He is a past member of the Governing Committee of the ABA's Forum on Construction Law, is a past chair of the Project Delivery Division (4) of the Forum, and is lead editor of the Forum's Design-Build Deskbook (4th ed. 2010). Kerry is recognized as an AV Preeminent™ Rated Attorney by Martindale-Hubbell and was recently selected by his peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America® 2019 in the fields of construction law and litigation-construction (Copyright 2018 by Woodward/White, Inc., Aiken, SC). In addition, he was recently nominated by his peers for inclusion in Who's Who Legal: Construction.

Michael A. Branca, Final Content Editor, is a partner in the Washington, DC, office of Peckar & Abramson, P.C. He is a past chair of the Board of Governors of the Construction and Public Contract Law Section of the Virginia State Bar and is a past chair of the Government Contract Section of the Federal Bar Association. Mr. Branca received his BA degree from the University of Virginia and his JD degree from the Antonin Scalia Law School at George Mason University. He regularly counsels his clients with respect to all aspects of government contract law, including bid protests on the front end of projects and claims on the back end. He also handles contractor integrity and compliance issues and federal and state false claims act matters. Mr. Branca is the editor of the Forum's Construction Lawyer journal, the co-author of the Thomson West treatise Virginia Construction Law, and also writes and lectures regularly on construction and government contract topics.