

Contents

Foreword to the First Edition	xvii
Introduction to the Second Edition	xix
Chapter 1
Introducing Our Framework	1
Chapter 2
The Rise of the New Normal v2.0	7
Chapter 3
Law Firm Economics 101: How Law Firms Make Money	15
Making Money	16
The Basics of Law Firm Profitability	17
Watching the Revenue Line	18
1. Rates	18
2. Realization	20
3. Productivity Matters?	22
4. The Magic Ingredient: Leverage	23
Profitability: A Meaningful Measure?	24
Conclusion	26
Step One: Set the Price	29
Chapter 4
Pricing and the Question of Value	31
The Limitations of Traditional Pricing Models	31
The Concept of “Price”	33
The Steps to Implementing Value Pricing	34

Types of Price	36
The “Right” Price	36
The Impact of Price	38
The 1-3-4 Rule™	39
A Common Phenomenon	40
A Closer Look at Value Pricing	42
The Management of Pricing	49
The Law Industry “Report Card”: Could Do Better	51
Chapter 5
Getting Started	53
Scoping the Opportunity	53
Determining the Options	55
Competition and Resisting the “Race to the Bottom”	57
Gaining Approval	60
Chapter 6
Demystifying AFAs	65
Speaking the Same Language: A Question of Terminology	66
“Lies, Damn Lies, and Statistics”	68
Finding an Appropriate Model	70
Looking at Our Options in More Detail	72
Risk-Mitigating Approaches	72
Hourly Rates	73
Discounted Hourly Rates	74
Blended (or Banded) Hourly Rates	75
Cost-Driven Approaches	76
Fixed (or Flat) Fees	76
Retainer-Based Fees	80
Capped Fees	82
Value-Aligned Approaches	83
Performance-Based Fees	84
Contingent (or Conditional) Fees	85
Value-Driven Pricing	88

. . . And Not Forgetting	91
Volume Discounts	91
Innovative Fee Agreements	93
Chapter 7
The Power of Pragmatic Analysis	95
Albert Einstein and “Insanity”	96
The Essential Building Blocks	96
Two Indispensable Tools	98
Dispersion Analysis	98
Waterfall Analysis	103
Turning Data into Insight: The Power of Data Visualization	107
A Quick Word about Competitive Intelligence	108
Be Comprehensive in Your Outlook	110
Step Two: Get the Price	113
Chapter 8
There and Back Again	115
Remaining Vague about Value	116
Where AFAs Come In	123
Using AFAs Sensibly to Drive Greater Value	124
Taking It to the Next Level: The Kano Model	126
Learning from the Romans	130
Chapter 9
The Two Ps: Part 1	133
Pitching to Win	134
Be Organized	135
Know Your Audience	137
Solving the Problem at Hand and Pricing Appropriately	138
Preparation and Practice Makes Perfect	141
Giving the Great Presentation	144

Chapter 10

The Two Ps: Part 2	149
Understanding How Procurement Sees the World	153
Understanding the Procurement Mind-Set	155
Understanding the Procurement Process	157
Having a Formal Procurement Process: The General Counsel's View	159
There Is More Than Just Cost	160
A Cautionary Tale	162
The Secret of Every Good Boy Scout: Be Prepared—Part 1	163
Influencing the Procurement Decision	166
Getting Access to the Key Decision Makers	167
Responding to the Proposal Template Provided	168
What It Takes to Succeed	169

Chapter 11

Preparing for Your Negotiation	171
What Is Meant by “Negotiation”	172
What Makes a Good Negotiator?	174
The Negotiation “Dance”	175
Rehearsing Your Steps: Planning for Your Negotiation	176
The Information Exchange	178
Getting Information	178
Giving Information	178
The “Do Not Share” Information	178
The “Where Did That Come from?” Information	179
Determining Your Targets, or When to Say Yes, and When to Say No	179
Back to Front: When to Say No	180
Working Out the Steps	181

Chapter 12

Conducting Your Negotiation	185
Finding Your Rhythm: Determining the Gap	185

First Impressions Count	185
Getting Down to Business	186
Ready, Aim, Fire!	189
The Flinch	191
What to Expect at This Stage	193
The Beauty Contest	194
The Limited Budget	194
The Tight Deadline	194
Moving Together: Narrowing the Gap	194
Making Concessions: The “Rules”	196
Avoiding “Gifts”	196
“If You, Then We”	196
A Fair Trade?	197
You Know You Need Them, So Plan	197
Maintaining Momentum	200
“I Need a Break”: The Power of an Adjournment	200
What to Expect at This Stage	201
The Final Bow: Closing the Gap	203
What to Expect at This Stage	204
Avoiding the Common Negotiation Pitfalls	207
Step Three: Manage to Price	209
Chapter 13
The Rise of Legal Project Management	211
Why All the Fuss?	211
Defining LPM	213
The Key Drivers Behind the Rise of LPM	215
Increasing Client Demands and Expectations	216
The Legal Market and Increased Competition	218
The Nature of Law Firms	219
The Benefits of LPM	221

Chapter 14

Thinking Big, Starting Small	225
I Know I Need to Do Something, but What?	225
A Potential Path Ahead	225
Learning from Others	225
Taking Advantage of What You Already Know	227
The Question of Training	228
Managing Change	229
Keeping Momentum	233

Chapter 15

Getting It Right from the Start	237
Getting It Right from the Start	240
Step 1: Confirming What the Client Wants and Expects	242
The Issue of Risk	243
Step 2: Grouping the Work into the Main Areas	245
Defining the Main Areas	246
Step 3: Agree How to Address Changes in Scope Upfront	248
Step 4: Developing and Agreeing on the Matter Plan	250
Too Much or Too Little: Determining the
Appropriate Detail	252
To Add or Not to Add: The Question of Contingency	253
Presenting the Plan	254
Timing	255
Step 5: Agree to the Fee and the Fee Approach	255
The Estimating Challenge	255
Beware of the Potential Pitfalls to Profitability	257
Sharing Budget Information with Clients	258

Chapter 16

Bringing It All Together	261
Step 6: Agree on the Engagement Letter and Share with the Team	261

Step 7: Agree on the Reporting Format and Schedule	266
The Basic Premise: No Surprises	266
Agreeing on the Format	266
How Often?	268
Step 8: Establishing Your Matter Phases and Tasks	268
E-billing and the Rise of UTBMS Codes	270
Adopting the Right Approach for You	275
How Detailed Should I Be?	276
Which Way Now? UTBMS, SALI, or My Own?	278
Focusing on the Bigger Picture	279
Step 9: Approving New Timekeepers	280
Step 10: Staffing the Core Team and Agreeing on Client Responsibilities	280
The Rule of One: One Task, One Owner	281
Staff by Level, Not Individual	281
Be Clear on Client Responsibilities	282
Share the Engagement Letter	282
Chapter 17
Maintaining the Momentum: During the Matter	285
Becoming the “Two Hatted” Lawyer	286
Managing Expectations	288
No Surprises!	289
Don’t Forget: Expectation Management Started at the Proposal Stage	289
Discuss the “Rhythm” of the Matter	290
Managing the “Bad News Message”	290
Use Your Status Reports	291
The Dangers of Hidden Stakeholders	292
Keeping Your Team on Track	292
At the Very Start	292
The Importance of Regular Team Meetings	293
Making Information Easy to Find	294

Managing to Your Deadlines	296
Condensing Your Plan	296
A Word to the Wise	297
Managing Work to the Agreed Fee (or Simply Managing to Budget)	297
Invoice Regularly	298
Using Alerts	299
Remember the RULES	299
Managing Changes to Your Matter	303
It Is Not Just Scope	303
“But It Is Only a Minor Change”	304
Having the Discussion	304
Chapter 18
Making the Right Lasting Impression	307
Don’t Forget the Admin!	308
Getting Formal Sign-Off	308
The Final Invoice	309
Gathering Feedback: The Matter Debrief—An Overview	310
Building Institutional Knowledge	312
Step Four: Review the Price	315
Chapter 19
All Feedback Is Good Feedback: Getting Even Better	317
Set the Price	318
Cross Your Bridge, Don’t Build a New One	319
Get the Price	321
The Three Key Questions: What, When, and How?	321
Manage to Price	322
Learning from the U.S. Army	323
Getting Started	323
Asking the Right Questions: Four Plus One	325

Don't Forget Your Client!	325
Focusing on the Few	326
Communicating the Lessons Learned	327
The Value of Reviews	328
Chapter 20
Metrics That Matter	331
The Challenge of Traditional Metrics	331
Becoming More Comprehensive in Outlook	333
Putting Metrics That Matter in Place	335
Galileo "with a Twist"	336
What Does "Good" Look Like?	338
Chapter 21
The Chicken and the Egg	343
When to Start	343
Where to Get Started	346
The Difference between Efficient and Effective	350
Changing the Model	351
Looking Ahead	355
Chapter 22
The Role of Technology and the Rise of Big Data	357
The Demise of "Anecdotal"?	357
The "Early Pioneers"	358
The Challenge of Adoption	359
A Brighter Horizon?	360
The Rise of Big Data	361
The Law Firm Dimension	362
The Fear of What the Client "Knows"	362
What Does the Future Hold?	363

Chapter 23

Pricing Legal Technology: A Beginner's Guide	367
The Legal Technology Landscape: A Bluffer's Guide	368
The Partner's Perspective	370
The Client's Perspective	371
The Pricing Professional's Perspective	372
Greater Visibility and Engagement	372
Changing Roles	372
Changing Skills	373
The Lack of Real Data and Measurement	374
Pricing Approaches Adopted to Date	375
Key Considerations	376
What We Can Learn from the Early Adopters	377

Chapter 24

The Corporate Mentality: The Changing Nature of Practice
Management and the Business of Law	379
Pricing as a Career Track	380
What Is Driving This Change?	383
Scoping the Role	384
Organizational Fit	385
Recommended Characteristics	385
Emerging Titles and Evolving Responsibilities	387
Legal Project Management	389
There Is No Cookie-Cutter Approach	391
Making a Clear Contribution	394
The Time Has Come (Again): The Growing Importance of Knowledge Management	396
Finding Your Résumé	398
Gazing into the Crystal Ball	399

Chapter 25
Closing Reflections	401
Selected Bibliography	403
Useful Resources	407
Acknowledgments	417
Index	419