

Contents

Foreword xiii
Dwight Merriam

Introduction xvii
Alan Mallach

Chapter 1

The Power of Local Government to Address
Problem-Property Issues 1

C. Tyler Mulligan

- I. Introduction 1
- II. Local Government Authority to Act 2
 - A. Delegation of Authority to Local Governments 2
 - B. Constitutional Protections for Owners 5
 - 1. Due Process 5
 - 2. Equal Protection 7
- III. The Continuum of Local Government Powers to Address Problem Properties 8
 - A. Local Government Exercise of Eminent Domain 9
 - 1. Government Facilities 11
 - 2. Urban Redevelopment and Low-Income Housing 12
 - 3. Economic Development 14
 - B. Local Government Police Power and Regulatory Activities 16
 - 1. Nuisance Abatement 18
 - 2. Code Enforcement 20
 - C. Local Government Development Activities
through Voluntary Exchanges 25
 - 1. Direct Development by Local Government 27
 - 2. Local Government Participation in Private Development Projects 32

Chapter 2

Creating the Framework in Local Government for Action on Problem Properties 41

Karen Black

- I. Introduction: Understanding the State Legal Context 41
 - A. The Basis of Local Government Legal Authority 42
 - B. Traditional Legal Tools 45
- II. Emerging Frameworks and Legal Tools 46
 - A. Requirements That Owners Maintain Property to Specific Standards 46
 - 1. The Affirmative Responsibility of Owners to Maintain and Care for Their Properties 46
 - 2. Using Data to Further Strategic Code Enforcement 47
 - 3. Quality-of-Life Ticketing 48
 - B. Tools to Identify and Motivate Property Owners 49
 - 1. Registration and Licensing 49
- III. Making Access to Discretionary Services Conditional on Compliance with Codes and Tax Obligations 50
 - A. Moving Properties out of Ownership Limbo 50
 - B. Establishing Personal Owner Liability 51
 - C. Assistance to Low- and Moderate-Income Property Owners 53
 - 1. Home Repair Grant Programs 53
 - 2. Home Improvement Loan Programs 54
 - D. Receivership and Nuisance Abatement 55
 - E. Using Existing Tools to Transfer Properties to Responsible New Owners 57
 - 1. Using Tax Foreclosure to Sell Tax-Delinquent Property to a Responsible New Owner 57
 - 2. Eminent Domain 59
- IV. Developing Local Policies 60
 - A. Engaging the Community: Building Support for Action on Problem Properties 60
 - B. Gathering Information 62
 - C. Bringing Stakeholders Together: Creating a Shared Action Plan 63
- V. A Pennsylvania Case Study 64
 - A. Pennsylvania Modernized Its State Laws to Expand Authority to Address Problem Properties 64
 - 1. Faced with 300,000 Vacant Properties, Pennsylvania Passed Laws to Modernize Its Tax Foreclosure Laws to More Effectively Return Foreclosed Properties to the Tax Rolls 65

- 2. Three Laws in 2006 Allowed Credit Bureaus to Report Tax Debt, Owners to Donate Properties in Lieu of Taxes, and Redevelopment Authorities to Force a Vacant Property into Probate 65
- 3. In 2008, Pennsylvania Conservatorship Law Authorized Receivership 66
- 4. In 2010, Act 90 Gave Local Governments New Powers to Hold Owners Personally Liable for Problem Properties 67
- 5. In 2013, Pennsylvania Authorized the Creation of Land Banks 68
- 6. In 2016, the State Strengthened Its Law Requiring Purchasers to Resolve Violations within 12 Months 69
- B. Local Governments Are Using Pennsylvania State Laws to Address Problem Properties in Innovative and Effective Ways 69
 - 1. Philadelphia’s Doors and Windows Program Used Act 90 Powers to Target Problem Properties and Lowered Crime, Increased Property Values, and Raised Tax Revenue 70
 - 2. Allentown Took the Lead in Implementing Quality-of-Life Ticketing and Sweeps 71
 - 3. Schuylkill County Established Eligibility Requirements for Tax Sale Bidders 72
 - 4. Johnstown Denies Permits to Owners with Serious Code Violations 72
 - 5. Wilkesburg Opens Probate to Take Vacant Properties out of Ownership Limbo 73
 - 6. Philadelphia Is Making Significant Investments in Home Repair Grant and Loan Programs for Homeowners 73

Chapter 3

Codes and Code Enforcement:

The Basic Framework for Property Regulation 75

Wade Beltramo

- I. Introduction: The Scope of Code Enforcement Powers 75
- II. Public Nuisance Law: The Precursor of Codes 76
- III. Code Enforcement: Property Maintenance Standards 80
 - A. Property Maintenance Codes 80
 - 1. Applicability of Property Maintenance Codes 82
 - 2. Regulation of Dangerous Structures 83
 - 3. Vacant Buildings 85
 - 4. Regulation of Specific Property Conditions 86
 - B. Fire Codes 89

- C. Health Codes 90
- D. Housing Codes 91
- E. Abandoned Property Codes 91
- F. Public Nuisance Law 93
 - 1. Statutorily Defined Public Nuisance 94
 - 2. Defining a Public Nuisance in the Code 95
 - 3. Criminal Nuisance 95
- G. Which Standards to Use? 96
- IV. Code Enforcement: The Myriad Processes and Procedures 97
 - A. The Investigation 98
 - 1. Inspections 98
 - 2. Gaining Access to Private Property 99
 - B. Records Management 105
 - C. Prosecutorial Discretion and Municipal Liability 105
 - D. Enforcement Options 106
 - 1. Due Process Considerations 106
 - 2. Administrative Enforcement 108
 - 3. Judicial Enforcement of Code Violations 110
 - E. Municipal Abatement of Nuisance Conditions and Code Violations 115
 - 1. Court-Ordered Local Government Abatement 115
 - 2. Summary Abatement 117
 - 3. Financing Municipal Abatement of Nuisance Properties 119
 - F. Alternatives to Regulatory Programs 120
- V. Conclusion 121

Chapter 4

Addressing Problem Rental Housing 123

Alan Mallach

- I. Introduction: The Dynamics of the American Rental Housing Sector 123
- II. The Framework of Rental Regulation 127
 - A. Complaint-Driven Inspection 129
 - B. The Structure of Proactive Rental Regulation 130
 - C. Inspection of Rental Properties 134
 - D. Fees 139
 - E. Potential Pitfalls of Rental Licensing 141
 - 1. Use of Licensing to Enforce Inappropriate or Questionable Occupancy Standards 142

- 2. Use of Licensing to Impose Inappropriate Burdens on Tenants and Landlords in Connection with Potential Criminal Activity 145
- F. The Special Case of Student Housing 149
 - 1. Limitations on Student Housing Per Se 150
 - 2. Limitations on Occupancy through the Definition of Family 151
 - 3. Limitations on Inappropriate Behavior 152
- III. Performance-Based Regulatory Systems 154
 - A. Incentives 159
- IV. Closing Note 162

Chapter 5

Understanding and Dealing with Vacant and Abandoned Properties 163

Alan Mallach

- I. Introduction 163
- II. Understanding Vacant Properties 165
 - A. Why Are Vacant Properties a Problem? 165
 - B. What Factors Trigger Problem Vacancies? 169
 - 1. Problem Vacancies Are Fundamentally a Problem of Economics 169
 - 2. Vacant Property Problems Are Often Exacerbated by Legal Systems and Public Policies 172
- III. Defining, Identifying, and Tracking Vacant Properties: The Role of Vacant Property Registration 174
 - A. Defining Vacant and Abandoned Properties 174
 - B. Finding Vacant Properties 177
 - C. Vacant Property Registration Ordinances 179
- IV. Getting the Owner's Attention: Motivating Owners to Restore Vacant Properties to Productive Use 182
 - A. Financial Penalties for Vacant Properties 183
 - B. Potential Loss of the Property 186
- V. Hunting Zombies: Dealing with Vacant Properties in Foreclosure 190
- VI. Closing Note 196

Chapter 6

Controlling, Acquiring, and Disposing of Vacant Properties 199

James J. Kelly, Jr.

- I. Introduction 199
- II. Three Types of Solutions: Repairs, Receivership Sales, and Tax Foreclosure 202
 - A. Direct Abatement of Nuisances by Government 203
 - B. Vacant Building Receivership and Related Remedies 209
 - C. Tax Foreclosure 219
- III. Disposition of Publicly Acquired Vacant Properties 225
 - A. Conventional Municipal Property Disposition 225
 - B. Strategic Disposition within the Local Government Framework 229
 - C. Disposition through Land Banks 232

Chapter 7

Land Banks and Land Banking 239

Frank S. Alexander

- I. Introduction: The Nature of a Land Bank 239
- II. The Evolution of Land Banks 241
 - A. The First Generation: St. Louis, Cleveland, Louisville, Atlanta 243
 - B. The Second Generation: Genesee County, Michigan; and Ohio 245
 - C. The Third Generation of State Land Bank Statutes 248
 - D. Land Banking under Local Home Rule Authority 249
 - E. Land Banks and Land Banking: Variations on the Theme 250
- III. Additional Tools and Alternatives 251
 - A. Land Banks as Regional Approaches 252
 - B. Land Banks as Depositories 253
 - C. Land Banks as Development Partners 254
 - D. Land Banks as Natural Disaster Responses 255
- IV. Creating Essential Powers for Land Banks 257
 - A. Property Acquisition 258
 - B. Property Management 260
 - C. Property Disposition 261

V. Financing of Land Bank Operations	262
A. General Revenue Funding	263
B. Inventory Cross-subsidies	264
C. Tax Recapture	265
D. Dedicated Funding from Delinquent Tax Charges	265
VI. Forming the Governance of Land Banks	267
A. Factors That Influence Land Bank Governance	267
B. Legal Structures of Land Banks	270
C. Land Bank Boards of Directors	272
D. Staffing Possibilities and Opportunities	272
E. Community and Resident Engagement	273
VII. Identifying Core Public Policies for Land Banks	274
A. Identifying Critical Policy Goals	274
B. Building upon Key Public Policies	278
C. Strategic Banking of Properties	281
A Case Study: Newburgh Community Land Bank	283
Madeline Fletcher

Chapter 8

Brownfields: Dealing with Environmentally Contaminated Properties 287

Leah Yasenchak

I. The Value of Brownfield Remediation	287
II. Brownfields Redevelopment	289
A. Brownfields Inventories	291
B. Moving Forward with Brownfields Redevelopment	293
1. Planning and Community Engagement	293
2. The Brownfields Redevelopment Team	294
III. The Legal Framework for Brownfields Redevelopment	297
A. The Federal Legal Framework	297
B. The State Legal Framework	299
IV. The Three-Phase Remediation Process under the Legal Framework	303
V. CERCLA Liability	307
A. Basic Liability Standards	307
B. The All Appropriate Inquiries Process	310
VI. Brownfields Financing Programs	312
VII. Conclusion	316

Chapter 9 319

Exercising the Power to Demolish Properties 319

Alan Mallach

- I. Introduction 319
- II. The Legal Basis for Demolition 320
- III. Demolition as a Public Policy Issue 323
 - A. Demolition as a Response to Market Weakness 325
 - B. The Social and Economic Cost of Vacant Properties 328
 - C. Demolition as Impact Mitigation 330
 - D. Making Demolition Strategic 331
- IV. Managing the Demolition Strategy 338
 - A. Managing the Demolition Pipeline 338
 - B. Deconstruction and Material Sale Opportunities 341
 - C. Cost Recovery 343

Chapter 10

Greening Strategies: Nondevelopment Reuse

Options for Vacant Properties 347

Amber Knee and Bob Grossmann

- I. Introduction: Vacant Land and Its Challenges 347
- II. Which Vacant Properties Are Appropriate for Green Reuse? 349
- III. The Menu of Green Reuse Options 351
 - A. Interim Landscape Treatments: The Philadelphia LandCare Program 351
 - B. Community Gardens 354
 - C. Orchards and Tree Farms 355
 - D. PHS Pop Up Gardens 356
 - E. Training and Employment Opportunities 357
 - F. Stormwater Management and Green Infrastructure Solutions 358
 - G. Parks and Other Green Spaces 362
 - H. Side Yard Programs 364
 - I. Phytotechnologies and Productive Landscapes 366
- IV. Identifying and Engaging Users 369

V. Structuring Sound Sale and Lease Agreements 372

- A. Philadelphia LandCare Program 373
- B. Genesee County Land Bank Programs 374
- C. City of Pittsburgh Programs 376
- D. City of Baltimore Programs 378
- E. Working with Land Trusts: The Challenge of Creating Long-term Green Spaces 379

VI. Conclusion 381

Case Study: Liberty Lands 383

Case Study: New Orleans Redevelopment Authority 387

About the Authors and Editors 389

Table of Cases 395