

---

Table of Contents

Dedication	iii
Diagrams, Charts, Tables, and Lists	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
About the Author	xix
Chapter 1
Reunification: What Is It, What Is It Not, and What Does It Involve?	1
What Makes Reunification Different?	2
Some Therapies (and Counseling) Practiced in the United States	3
Differences between Other Forms of Therapy/Counseling and Reunification	4
So, What Is Reunification?	5
What Does Reunification Involve?	6
Selected Examples of Reunification Activities and Techniques	6
Agenda for Initial Meeting with Parents	9
Disadvantages of the Nonbonded Parent	11
Common Areas of Parent-Child Conflict	12
Chapter 2
Sources of Referral for Reunification Endeavors	15
Judges (A Court Order)	15
Attorneys	16
GAL	17
Mediators/Conciliators/Co-parenting Officials/Masters	17
Arbitrators	18
Voluntary Selection (Self-Referral)	18
Agencies	19

Professional Referral	19
Child Referral	20
Summary of Referral Sources	21

Chapter 3

Causal Considerations—Broken Bonds—How Did It Happen 25

Selected Causes for Parent-Child Separation	25
Foster Care	26
Relocation of One Parent	26
Military Service Situation	27
Adoption	27
Parental Rejection	28
Court-Ordered Protection from Abuse (PFA)	28
Conclusions, Recommendations, Observations, and Parental Planning for Reunification	29
Kidnapping	34
Physical Aspects	34
Mental Aspects	35
Social Aspects	36
Adult Incarceration	36
Juvenile Detention	38
One Parent Living with an Unacceptable or Problematic Partner	39
Oppositionally Defiant Child Behaviors, or The Hard to Manage Child	40
Child Runaways	43
Munchausen by Proxy	43
Parent-Child Enmeshment	44
Personality/Social Style Conflicts	46
Voluntary Parental Abandonment	51
Professionally Caused Separation (Case Mismanagement Problems)	52
Loss of Contact at Birth	54
Misunderstandings	55
Religious, Racial, Ethnic, and Gender Conflicts	55
Parental Discipline	57
Child Abuse	58
Abuse Allegations in Divorce Cases	59

Child Experiencing Abuse/Aggression against Their Other Parent	61
Substance Use and Abuse	63
Common Emotions, Social Behaviors, and Attitudes Associated with Addiction	65
New Adults in the Child's Life	66
Immigrant Children Separated from Their Parents	66

Chapter 4

Alienation

67

Things to Consider When Deciding Whether Alienation Is Present or Not— Detection Factors	69
Forensic Evaluation	69
Historical Relational Inaccuracies	70
All Good or All Bad Factor	71
Facilitations to Disobey a Parent	71
Induced Fear of the Other Parent	71
Secret Keeping	71
Mirror Imaging (Clone or Puppet Behaviors and Attitudes)	72
Scripted Views	72
The New Science of Memory	73
Types and Aspects of Memory	76
Parent-Child Estrangement Inventory	81
Alienation Is Present—What Do You Do?	87
Determine if You Have the Expertise to Assist	87
Prematurely Attacking (Extreme) Distortions or Falsities Can Backfire	87
Professional Assistance in Changing Perceptions	88
Diversity of Approaches	88
Coaching the Target Parent	89
Working with the Alienating Parent	89
Continued Interference	90
Enlisting the Help of Others	90
If Both Parents Are Sources of Alienation	90
Deprogramming	91
Summary	92

Chapter 5
What Children May Say about Reunification	95
Sources of Children's Opinions	95
Concerns and Worries	95
Deciding Session Content	96
Things Children Say about Reunification	99
Negatives Have Value	101
Perception Is Not Necessarily Reality	102
Perception Can Comport with Reality	102
Therapy Savvy Children	102
Historical Conflicts	103
Timeline	104
Collaborative Parents	104
Thematic Characteristics and Social Identity	105
Summary	106

Chapter 6
Impeding and Facilitative Factors	107
Impeding Factors and What to Do about Them	108
1. Sociopathic Qualities	108
2. Surrogate Programming/Brainwashing or Underminers	109
3. Litany of Professionals	110
4. No Sanctions for Violations	112
5. Violence/Threat of (Self) Harm	113
6. Lack of Attorney Support	115
7. Traditional Confidentiality	116
8. Unprotected Professional	117
9. Judge/Master Indecisive	118
10. Parents Not Following Guidelines	119
11. (Continued) Child Over-Empowerment	120
12. Unrealistic Time Frames	122
13. Child Is the Parent's "Partner" or "Best Friend"	122
14. Remuneration Problems	122
15. Threats and (False) Accusations about a Parent and/or Professionals	123
16. Long Time Gap in Parent-Child Contact	124
17. Professionals Perceived as Biased	125

18. Skills of the Professional(s) Are Weak	125
19. No Reunification Plan	125
20. Setting Unrealistic Goals	127
21. Personal and Parental Issues	128
22. Alienation Is Present	130
Facilitative Factors	132
1. Identifying the Positive Assets of Parents and Children	132
2. All Parties Desire Change	132
3. Phase-In Agenda Is Agreed On	132
4. Clear Strong Court Orders/Professional Goals	133
5. Measurable Components—Metrics	133
6. Preset Appointments/Continuity	133
7. Varied Methods	133
8. Coaching for All Parties Possible	134
9. Reframing Social Relations	134
10. Strong GAL—If Possible	135
11. Reporting to the Court	135
12. Stamina of the Professionals	135
13. Cease and Desist on CYS/Police Filings	136
14. Supportive of Other Parent	136
Summary	136

Chapter 7

Nineteen Popular and Professional “Theories” That Can Be Problematic to the Reunification Process 137*

1. Readiness Theory	137
2. Anxiety Theory	139
3. Scared Theory	139
4. Feelings Are Important Theory	140
5. Separate Therapy Theory	140
6. Don’t Need Him or Her in My Life Theory/My Life’s Fine Theory	141
7. Can’t Change Theory	142
8. Failed Before Theory	142
9. We Never Got Along Theory	142
10. Maybe Later (Put Off) Theory	143

11. You Don't Really Know Them Theory	143
12. Nobody Gets It Theory	144
13. You Didn't Live My Life Theory	144
14. I Have Rights and Want My Own Lawyer Theory	145
15. They're "Abusive" Theory	145
16. One Good Parent Is Enough Theory	146
17. Phase-In Theory	146
18. The Chemistry Isn't There Theory	146
19. (S)he Doesn't Even Listen to Me Theory	147
Summary	147

Chapter 8

Skill Sets and Qualities to Look for in Selecting Reunification Experts

149

Mediation, Conflict Resolution Skills, Credentials	150
Forensic Knowledge	150
Substantial Case Experience in Successfully Re-bonding Parents and Children	150
Reputation for Non-Adversarial Practice	151
Respected by the Courts, GALs, Attorneys, and Fellow Professionals	151
Ethically Based Practice	152
Capacity to Diagnose the Difficulty/Complexity Levels of Cases	153
Verbally Articulate and Performs Well-Crafted Reports, Memos, and E-mails	154
Published/Acknowledged in the Field	155
Can Write a Treatment Plan	155
1. Metrics	156
2. Actual Interventions	157
3. Changing Methods or Approaches	157
4. Progress Assessment	158
5. Summary and Termination	159
Knows the Importance of Filing Progress Reports	160
Willingness to Say When a Case Is Not a Candidate for Reunification Therapy or Counseling	160
High Frustration Tolerance	161
Cannot Be Intimidated	161
Can Read, Comprehend, and Execute on Legal Documents, Including Court Orders	161
Can Keep the Parties on Track	162

Can Testify Clearly	162
Innovation	163
History of Educative Functions for Legal and Mental Health Professionals	163
Clues You May Have the Wrong Professional for Reunification	164

Chapter 9

Measuring Success: Min/Max Metrics 167

Definition of Metrics	167
Why Are Metrics Important?	168
Range and Intensity of Issues	170
Risk Assessment	174
1. Social Risk Assessment	176
2. Educational Risk Assessment	176
3. Psychological Risk Assessment	176
4. Medical Risk Assessment	177
What If It Fails?	178
Measuring Progress	179
Timeframe	181
Some Ways to Measure Effective Parenting	183
1. Parental Attentiveness	183
2. Patience	183
3. Convivial/Friendly	183
4. Physical Contact	184
5. Statements of Endearment	185
6. Listening Skills	185
7. Discipline	185
8. Rule Setting	186
9. Proper Manners	186
10. Safety	187
11. Encouragement	187
12. Educational Dimensions	188
13. Responsibilities/Performing Basic Parenting Tasks	188
14. Humor	189
15. Capacity to Refocus	189
16. Customizing Time Allocation to Each Child	190

17. Child Centered	190
18. Social Equality	191
19. Spontaneity	191
20. Involvement in Extracurricular and Co-Curricular Activities	191
21. Planning for Eventualities	192
22. Creates a General Sense of Adjustment and Comfort	192
23. Receptive to the Child's Right and Need to Love the Other Parent	193
24. Diversity of Activities	193
Has the Case Reached the "Point of No Return"?	193
1. Suicidal History and/or Threats	193
2. Threats to Run Away	194
3. Threats to Harm a Parent	194
4. Multiple Attempts with Escalating Negative Behaviors	194
5. A Parent Undermines the Reunification Therapy Process	195
6. Past and Present Therapies Employed the Wrong Modalities	195
7. A Parent Has Reached Their Limit	196
Differential Child Behavior with Each Parent—The Split Screen Phenomenon	196
Abuse Cases	198

Chapter 10

Guidelines for Attorneys

203

Case Strategy	203
Supporting Evidence	203
Client Management	204
Difficult Clients	204
Use of Experts	205
Details of the Process and Experience	205
Questions to Anticipate	205
Client's Guide	206
Updates and Possible Testimony	207
Progress and Mutual Communication Obligations	207
Sample Questions for Attorneys to Ask Reunification Professionals	208
Examining Reunification Experts in Court	209
Tone of Witness Examination	211
Reunification Therapy Weaknesses	211
Format of a Reunification Report	212

---

Chapter 11
Guidelines for Judges (and Masters)	215
Issue a Timely Ruling	216
Setting Specific Time Limits	216
Keeping the Focus on Reunification	217
Explain the Court Order to Both Parents	217
Explaining the Court Order to the Child(ren)	218
Identifying Measures of Compliance	219
Protecting the Professionals	219
Be Cautious about Using Terms Such as “Consult”	219
Inform All Parties of the Potential Penalties for Noncompliance	220
Identifying Others Who May Interfere with the Re-bonding Process	220
Specifying the Credentials of the Reunification Therapist	221
Case Oversight	221
Expectations of Case Conduct	222
Clearly State the Type and Number of Witnesses/Experts that the Court Will Hear	223
When Is an Expert an Expert?	224
How to Determine If a Witness Is Biased or Skewed	225
Possible Indicators of Problematic Experts	225
Judicial Case Interview	226
Sample Court Order	227
Signs that Reunification Therapy May Be Indicated	230
Ten Takeaways for Judges	233
Chapter 12
How GALs Can Help in the Reunification Process	235
1. Monitoring the Process	236
2. Assist with and Approve Therapeutic Guidelines	236
3. Running Interference When Needed	236
4. Support or Challenge Therapeutic Recommendations	236
5. Provide “Push Back” on Parental Problems	236
6. Crisis Intervention as Needed	236
7. Keep the Child(ren) on Target	237
8. Represent the Children’s Needs and Answer Questions for Them	237
9. Communicate with the Court Both In and Outside Regular Hearings	237
10. Push and Keep to All Timelines	237

11. Reinforce Protection of the Therapist	238
12. Get Needed Data	238
13. Reinforce Court Orders and Goals	238
14. Obtain and Review Progress Assessments	239
15. Makes Sure Risk Assessments Are Done and Considered	239
16. Follows Guidelines Outlined by State Law and the Particular Judge	239

Appendices 243

A. Child Inventory of Parent's Characteristics	245
B. The Parent-Child Incompatibility Quiz	247
C. Inventory of Child's Assets, Strengths, and Positive Qualities	253
D. Predicting and Reacting to Possible Child Abduction	257
E. Activity Checklist for Reunification, Custody, and Alienation Evaluations	263
F. Research Techniques and Sample Characteristics	267
G. Divorce Is a Process	271
H. Examples of Parental Statements Challenging the Reunification Process	273
I. Children Who Refuse to Visit	275
J. Recommendations for Alienation-Based Cases	277
K. Predictor Cues of an Abusive Relationship	279
L. Risk Assessment Factors: A Brief Inventory of Considerations	281
M. Intake Information for Initiating Reunification Services	285
N. Checklist of Possible Releases Noted by the Court and/or by Professionals Related to Reunification Therapy	287
O. Sample Sources of Referral (Approximate Breakdown)	289
Glossary of Reunification-Related Terms	291
Bibliography	315
Index	329

Appendices are available online to download

---

Diagrams, Charts, Tables, and Lists

Some Therapies (and Counseling) Practiced in the United States	3
Differences between Other Forms of Therapy/Counseling and Reunification	4
Selected Examples of Reunification Activities and Techniques	6
Disadvantages of the Non-Bonded Parent	11
Common Areas of Parent-Child Conflict	12
Levels on Which Unification and Reunification Can Occur	13
Selected Causes for Parent-Child Separation	25
Conclusions, Recommendations, Observations, and Parental Planning for Reunification	29
Behavioral Escalation Pattern of Programming and Brainwashing Parents	37
Social Reality Chart	42
Model Cycle of Parentally Induced Child Illness	45
Fourteen Social Personality Types (of Children and Parents)	46
Cycle of Parent-Child Disconnection	50
Physical Discipline by Country	60
Factors Impacting on a Child's Well-Being and Relationship Potentials: A Case Example	62
Common Emotions, Social Behaviors, and Attitudes Associated with Addiction	65
An Alienation Process: A Parent's Behaviors Impacting on the Children and Mother's Relationship	69
Sequence of Identifying Alienation and Possible Perpetrators: A Staircase	73
Types and Aspects of Memory	76
Parent-Child Estrangement Inventory	81
Possible Sources of Children's Opinions	97
Things Children Say about Reunification	99
Impeding vs. Facilitative Factors of the Reunification Process	107
A Sample Plan: Reunification Phases	126

Formatting a Report and Related Materials	154
Cues You May Have the Wrong Professional for Reunification	164
Twenty Selected Factors That Impact on When and Why Therapies Succeed	171
Evidence and Goal-Based Therapy: A Sequential Model	171
Checklist of Forward Movement between Parent(s) and Child(ren)	179
The Two Georgias: A Split Screen	196
Accusations and Impact of Children and Other Parties Concerning a Mother's Behaviors and/or Conditions Relating to Her Child Care	201
Attorney's Guide for Their Clients	206
Sample Court Order	227
Nineteen Factors Impacting on Judicial Decisions	232