

Contents

Introduction xi

Why I Wrote and You Need to Read a Book on GENgagement™	xi
The Author's View on Age	xii

1
Generational Wisdom Basics: Be Prepared	1
Patterns: Generational Attributes and Influences	1
Generational Patterns: A Brief Overview	2
About the Generations (as of 2020)	3
Caveats on Stereotyping: Reframing Myths and Hype	6
12 Business Case Arguments for Cross-Generational Conversation in the Legal Workplace	8
Why and How to Tackle the Generational Puzzle: A Framework	10
How to Tackle the Generational Puzzle: Specific Steps	12
Generational Factors vs. Other Influencers	13
Anticipating the Future Generational Mix	15
Anticipating Gen Z at Work	17
The Revolution Hasn't Come—Yet(?)	19
Expect Growth of These Generational Trends and Challenges	21

2

Facing the Real Issues That Count 23

Biggest Questions Demographic and Market Segments Want Answered in the Multigenerational Workplace	23
Generational Perspectives on the Legal Profession	26
Why Senior Management Fears Multigenerational Challenges	28
Differences in Culture and Values	29
Intersectionality of Generational and Other Diversity Factors	31
How Generational Diversity Impacts Communication and Intergenerational Relationships	35
Central Issues on Professionalism and the Generational Divides	38
Cross-Generational Examples of Disrespect and Incivility at Work	40
Work Ethic Issues	42
Impact of Compensation Policies	45
Complexities of Dealing with Bias	47
Seven Tips for Harmonious Relationships for Older Workers Reporting to Younger Managers	49
How to Confidently Manage “Upside Down” Reporting Relationships	50
Research with Multigenerational Teams in Several Industries	52

3

Sustainable Relationships with Clients and External Stakeholders 55

What Generational Differences Mean for Legal Marketing—What Chief Marketing Officers Can Do	55
Danger Signs: You May Lose Business by Neglecting Generational Impact	57
Intergenerational Challenges as a Sales Issue	59
Preparing to Successfully Market to and Serve Clients across the Generations	61
What Each Generation Brings to Business Development	63

Eight Tips for Great Relationships with Clients of Different Generations	66
Cross-Generational Client Attraction and Retention: Shift in Traditional Business Development Avenues for Younger Generations	68
4
Achieving Harmonious and Productive Relationships	71
Change the Work Culture to Suit All Generations: Taking Cues from Gen Z	71
Ten Tips on Establishing a Culture of Generational Inclusion and Engagement	74
How to Foster Connection	76
Reorienting Orientation for Today's Multigenerational Workplace	79
Orientation and Special Considerations for Small Firms	81
Seven Ways to Redesign Work for All Generations	82
How to Achieve Successful Multigenerational Collaboration	87
How Facilitated Multigenerational Dialogues Foster Strong Teams	89
Conversations Each Generation Wants to Maximize Cross-Generational Working Relations	91
Special Considerations for Multigenerational Dialogues among Attorneys and Staff	93
Ten Tips for Building Rapport with Gen Z	94
Cross-Generational Communication with Gen Z	95
Generational Perspective on Social Networking	96
Cross-Generational Networking with Younger Generations	98
5
Preparing for Succession, Transitioning, and Knowledge Transfer	101
How to Break Through the No Succession Plan Barrier	101
Succession Plan Development Questions	104
How Can We Prevent Loss of Clients When Boomers Leave?	106

Make Succession Planning Less Threatening: Facing the Fears	108
Make Succession Planning More Acceptable and Doable	111
How to Implement Continual Succession Planning	113
Role Shifts: Evolving Changes to Law Firm Structures and Lawyer Expectations	116
Barriers to Knowledge Transfer	119
How to Break Down Barriers to Knowledge Transfer	121

6

Wisdom for Leaders at All Levels 123

Do Different Generations Need Different Styles of Leadership?	123
Mentoring from a Cross-Generational Perspective	126
Incorporate Regular Feedback: Best Practices	128
Gaining and Regaining Trust as a Leader	130
Cross-Generational Advice for Younger Professional Aspiring Leaders	132
Build Your Legacy at Work Now!	133

Summary and Conclusion 135

Looking Back to Move Forward	135
Prepare with the Basics	135
Key Issues to Focus On	136
External Relationships with Clients and Other Stakeholders	136
Keys to Multigenerational Relationship Building and Nurturing	136
Long-Term Multigenerational Organization Sustainability	136
Wisdom for Multigenerational Leaders	137

Call to Action	139
Appendix	141
Index	145
About the Author	149
Acknowledgments	151