

In recognition of 75 years of The Business Lawyer

“I’m thrilled about the publication of the 75th anniversary edition of The Business Lawyer, and congratulations to its editorial board and staff. The Business lawyer has been a significant member benefit to our almost 40,000 members for many years, and its scholarly work has led to significant developments in business law, both in the boardroom and the courts.

Congratulations as well to Penny Christophorou, TBL’s Editor-in-Chief, for leading the Business Law Section both to recognize this significant milestone and to support our quest to remain at the forefront of content for business lawyers, judges, and academics.”

Patrick T. Clendenen, Clendenen & Shea, LLC

“The Business Lawyer has served as both a witness and expert guide to the tremendous changes in business law over the past 75 years. Since its inception, many of the best business law minds in the United States and beyond have contributed to The Business Lawyer. The Business Lawyer’s success may be due in large part to the ‘secret sauce’ that combines in-depth legal analysis with practical understanding of how legal issues play out in the business world. No wonder that articles from The Business Lawyer have been cited in over 1000 cases, and countless other legal and business publications. With its noteworthy history and rigorous approach to business law scholarship, The Business Lawyer is well positioned to continue to be a leader in the development and understanding of business law in the years ahead.”

Jeannie Carmedelle Frey, CHRISTUS Health

“For the past 75 years, The Business Lawyer has set and maintained the gold standard for peer-reviewed law journals. Lawyers, judges, academics, and law students have benefited from the publication’s scholarly and practice-oriented articles, surveys, and proposed changes to the Model Business Corporation Act. Here is to the next 75 years!”

William D. Johnston, Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP