
CONTENTS

About the Authors	xi
Preface	xv
CHAPTER 1
Policy Issuance	1
Katelin O'Rourke Gorman and Timothy D. Kevane
Introduction	1
A. Application (New and Renewal); Incorporation of Additional Materials	1
B. Policy Exclusions for Claims or Circumstances Known by the Insured at the Inception of Coverage	4
1. Claims Arising from Known, Disclosed Information	4
2. Claims Arising from Known, Undisclosed Information	5
C. Rescission	6
1. General Considerations	6
2. Misrepresentations Deemed Sufficient to Justify Rescission	8
3. Alleged Misrepresentations or Omissions Deemed Insufficient to Justify Rescission	16
4. Severability: Whether a Misrepresentation or Omission by One Applicant Will Permit Rescission as to Other Insureds	19
a. Severability Permitted to Protect Innocent Insureds	19
b. Severability Denied: Rescission Valid as to All Insureds	21
5. Effect of Misrepresentations in Supporting Documentation That Are Not Incorporated into the Policy	22
6. Issues of Waiver or Estoppel in Connection with Rescission	23
7. Tender of Premium	26
D. Breach of Warranty	27
E. The Insurer's Ability to Recover Damages from the Party Responsible for the Misrepresentations in an Application	29
CHAPTER 2
The Insuring Agreements	31
Leslie S. Ahari
A. Insuring Agreements Applicable to Claims against Insured Individuals	31
B. Insuring Agreements Applicable to Claims or Securities Claims against the Company	34

iv Directors and Officers Liability Insurance Deskbook

C. Insuring Agreements Applicable to Government Inquiries or Investigations	36
D. Insuring Agreements Applicable to Other Shareholder Matters	36
E. What Is Covered Loss within the Scope of the Insuring Agreements?	37

CHAPTER 3

Ralph A. Guirgis and Sean R. Simpson

Trigger of Coverage	41
A. Determining When a Claim Is Made	41
1. A “Claim” Is a Demand for Relief Arising from a Wrongful Act	41
a. A Threat of Litigation or the Contingent Possibility a Claim May Be Made in the Future Generally Will Not Be Deemed to Be “Claim”	43
b. A Regulatory Agency’s Notice of Violations or Compliance Issues Generally Does Not Constitute a Claim against the Directors and Officers	46
c. A Demand for Regulatory Compliance Coupled with a Threat of Enforcement Action May Constitute a Claim	50
2. A Demand for Performance or Action Other Than Money May Constitute a Claim	50
B. Number of Claims	53
1. Cases Finding Claims Are Not Related	53
2. Cases Finding Claims to Be Related	56
C. The Insured Must Timely Notify Insurers of a Claim	61
1. Notification to Insurers of a Claim Must Be Made Strictly in Accordance with Policy Provisions	62
a. Notification Must Be Timely	62
b. Notification Must Be Made through Formal Claim Channels	64
c. An Insurer Generally Need Not Demonstrate Prejudice to Deny Coverage for Failure to Comply with Provisions of the Policy Requiring Notice within the Policy Period	66
d. Courts Are Split as to Whether the Right to Insist upon Strict Compliance with Notification Provisions May Be Waived	67
2. Notification during the “Discovery” Period Is Generally Limited to Claims, Not Circumstances	68
3. Sufficiency of Content of Notification of “Circumstances”	70
a. The Notification Must Identify the Wrongful Act(s) Forming the Basis of the Potential Claim	70
b. “Constructive” Notice from Other Materials Generally Does Not Provide Sufficient Notice of a Potential Claim	73
c. Information in a Renewal Application Generally Is Insufficient to Provide Notice of a Potential Claim	75

CHAPTER 4

Brian D. Harrison

Scope of Coverage	77
Introduction	77
A. Claims Must Be against Insured Persons for Acts Taken in Their Insured Capacity	78

B. Coverage Is Extended Only for Claims That Fall Within the Policy Definition of “Wrongful Acts”	87
C. Coverage Is Limited to Items That Fall within the Policy Definition of “Loss”	93
D. Insurability of Claims	102
1. Intentional Acts	102
a. Requisite Intent	103
b. Intentional Acts Taken Without the Intent to Cause Injury Distinguished	105
c. Negligent and Reckless Acts Distinguished	106
d. Impact of Public Policy Provisions	108
e. Some Jurisdictions Permit an Insurer to Cover Intentional Acts	109
2. Defense Costs Coverage for Alleged Intentional Acts	110
a. Defense Costs for Alleged Criminal or Intentional Conduct May Be Covered	110
b. A Corporate Insured May Recoup Expenses Advanced in a Criminal Action against D&Os	111
c. The Expense of Actions Taken by a Corporation to Protect Its D&Os from Criminal Charges Is Not Covered	113
3. Examples of Conduct/Damages Precluded by Public Policy	113
a. Restitution and Disgorgement	113
b. Tax Liability	116
c. Punitive Damages	117
d. Securities Fraud	117
e. Anticompetitive Conduct	118

CHAPTER 5

Alec H. Boyd

Defense Obligations	119
A. Indemnity Policies	120
1. Traditional Triggers for and Timing of Payment of Defense Costs	120
2. Trigger for and Timing for Payment under Policies Imposing Duty to Advance Defense Costs	122
3. Scope of Control of the Defense	124
4. Recoupment of Defense Costs Paid for Uncovered Claims	125
B. Duty to Defend Policies	126
1. Trigger of the Duty to Defend	127
2. Scope of the Duty to Defend	128
3. Control of the Defense and Independent Counsel	128
4. Terminating the Duty to Defend	129
5. Recoupment of Defense Costs Paid for Uncovered Claims	130
C. Whether Insurer’s Obligation to Pay Defense Costs Encompasses Costs of Prosecuting Affirmative Claims	131
D. Pre-Tender Defense Costs	132
E. Application of Limits of Liability	133
F. Entity Bankruptcy and Ownership of Policy Proceeds	133

CHAPTER 6

Katelin O'Rourke Gorman and Sarah Rogers Sepe

Policy Limits and Retentions	135
Introduction	135
A. ABC and Other Coverages	135
1. Corporate Indemnification Is Not Available Due to Insolvency	136
2. Corporate Indemnification Is Not Available under the Law	136
a. Derivative Lawsuits	137
b. Dishonest Acts	138
B. Applicable Limits of Liability Triggered by Separate Transactions or Claims	138
1. Aggregate or Multiple Limits of Liability Available for Separate Transactions	139
2. Single or Per Claim Limit of Liability Applied to Separate Transactions	140
C. Applicable Limits of Liability Where Wrongful Acts Occurred in Separate Policy Periods	141
1. One Policy Limit Triggered by Claims or Wrongful Acts in Separate Policy Periods	141
2. Limits of Multiple Policies Triggered by Claims or Wrongful Acts in Separate Policy Periods	143
D. The Number of Applicable Retentions Where Different Transactions or Separate Lawsuits Are at Issue	145

CHAPTER 7

Ralph A. Guirgis and Sean R. Simpson

Other Insurance Clauses	147
Introduction	147
A. Types of Other Insurance Clauses	147
B. The Relationship between D&O and Other Policies	149
C. The Relationship between D&O Coverage and a Fidelity Bond	151

CHAPTER 8

Martin O'Leary and Kimberly Forrester

Policy Exclusions	153
Introduction	153
A. "Breach of Contract" Exclusion	153
1. Broad Interpretation	153
2. Narrow Interpretation	156
B. "Dishonesty" Exclusion	158
1. Settlement of Underlying Litigation May Prevent Determination of Dishonesty	158
2. Dishonesty Exclusion Precludes Coverage When Default Judgment Entered against the Insured Becomes a Final Order	159
3. An Insurer May Be Entitled to Litigate the Issue of Dishonesty Where the Issue Was Not Ruled On in the Underlying Case	160
4. A D&O Carrier May Not Be Able to Delay Advancement of Fees Pending Outcome of a Trial on Dishonesty	160

5. Unconditional Dishonesty Exclusion Bars Coverage	160
6. Complaint Asserting Only Allegations of Intentional Wrongdoing Is Precluded from Coverage under the Dishonesty Exclusion	161
7. Application of Dishonesty Exclusion Held to Preclude Recovery under a D&O Policy	161
8. Dishonesty Exclusions Requiring Adjudication of Dishonesty	162
9. A Plea of Nolo Contendere Is Not Evidence of Dishonesty	163
10. The Duty to Defend and the Dishonesty Exclusion	163
C. “Personal Profit”/Improper Gain or Advantage Exclusion	164
1. Personal Profit Exclusion Held to Bar Recovery of Defense Costs	164
2. Personal Profit Exclusion Held Not to Preclude the Duty to Defend	164
3. Personal Profit Exclusion May Require a Final Adjudication in the Underlying Action	165
4. Personal Profit Exclusion May Not Require a Final Adjudication in the Underlying Action	165
5. Personal Profit Exclusion Requires Direct Benefit to Any Individual Insured	166
D. “Insured v. Insured” Exclusion	166
1. Action by a Corporation against Its Own D&Os	166
2. Cases Holding That Insured v. Insured Exclusion Is Unambiguous	167
3. Some Courts Have Found Ambiguity in an Insured v. Insured Exclusion	171
4. The Insured v. Insured Exclusion May Bar Coverage for Derivative Lawsuits Brought by Former D&Os	172
5. The Insured v. Insured Held Not to Bar Coverage for Claim Brought by Security Holder	173
6. Insured v. Insured Exclusion Held to Bar Coverage for Claims Brought by Non-Insured Security Holder Where the Claims Are Brought with the Active Assistance of an Insured	174
7. Insured v. Insured Exclusion Held to Bar Coverage for a Wrongful Termination Claim	174
8. Coverage for a Wrongful Termination Claim Held Not to Be Barred by an Insured v. Insured Exclusion	174
9. Claim by Successor of the Insured Entity Held Barred by Insured v. Insured Exclusion	175
10. Claim by Successor of Insured Entity Held Not Barred by Insured v. Insured Exclusion	176
11. Claims by Assignee of the Insured May Be Barred by Insured v. Insured Exclusion	177
E. “Bodily Injury”/“Emotional Distress” Exclusion	177
F. “ERISA” Exclusion	178
G. “Notice Under a Prior Policy” Exclusion	178
H. Prior or Pending Litigation Exclusion	180
I. “Prior Acts” Exclusion	181
J. “Professional Services” Exclusion	182
1. Professional Services May Be Defined Broadly	184
2. Exception for Claims Alleging Failure to Manage	185

K. “Employment Practice Claims” Exclusion	186
1. Tort Claims Deemed Barred by an EPL Exclusion	186
2. Tort Claims Deemed to Fall Outside of an EPL Exclusion	187
L. “Insolvency” Exclusion	188
M. “Family” and “Major Shareholder” Exclusions	190
N. “Joint Venture/Limited Partnership” Exclusion	190
O. “Merger and Acquisition” Exclusion	190
P. “Libel and Slander” Exclusion	191
Q. “Mutual Fund” Exclusion	191
R. “Other Insurance” Exclusion	192
S. “Pollution” Exclusion	192
T. “Regulatory Agency” Exclusion	193
1. Cases Upholding the Regulatory Exclusion	193
2. Derivative Actions Maintained by and on Behalf of the FDIC Deemed Barred by the Regulatory Exclusion	194
3. Cases Holding That the Regulatory Exclusion Violated Public Policy	194
4. State Deposit Insurance Fund Claim Deemed Barred by a Regulatory Exclusion	195
5. State Director of Insurance Claim Barred by a Regulatory Exclusion	195
6. Grand Jury Indictment of Bank Directors Not Barred by Regulatory Exclusion	195
U. “Securities Claims” Exclusion	195
V. “Wage and Hour” Exclusion	196
W. Anti-Trust and “Unfair Trade Practices” Exclusions	197
1. Broad Application	198
2. Narrow Application	198
CHAPTER 9
Settlement	199
Ralph A. Guirgis and Sean R. Simpson
Introduction	199
A. The Insured Must Obtain the Insurer’s Consent to a Settlement	199
B. Insurer’s Refusal to Consent to Settlement	202
C. Denial of Coverage Eliminates Need for Insurer Consent	204
D. Coverage for a Settlement Paid on Behalf of D&Os	205
E. Collusive Settlements	207
F. Contribution	209
G. Subrogation	210
H. The Insurer May Prefer One Insured over Another	212
I. Excess Insurers’ Obligation in Settlement	213
CHAPTER 10
Allocation	217
Martin O’Leary and Kimberly Forrester
Introduction	217

A. Allocation of Defense Costs	218
B. Allocation of Settlement Costs	224
C. Burden of Proof for Allocation	226
1. Burden of Proof on the Insured	226
2. Burden of Proof on the Insurer	228
CHAPTER 11
Policy Termination and Nonrenewal	229
Katelin O'Rourke Gorman and Lauren Boulbol
Introduction	229
A. Renewal on Different Terms May Constitute Nonrenewal	230
B. Duty to Advise the Insured of Nonrenewal or Renewal on Different Terms	232
C. Unequivocal Oral Request for Renewal Deemed Sufficient to Trigger Right to Discovery Period	236
D. Timing of Notice of Nonrenewal	236
E. Insurers' Right to Cancel Policy	236
F. Policy Cancellation Stayed by Bankruptcy Filing	237
G. Policy Provisions Providing for Termination	238
1. "Merger, Reorganization, or Cessation of Business" Clause	238
2. Termination upon Appointment of Liquidator	239
CHAPTER 12
Coverage Litigation Issues	241
Susan Koehler Sullivan and Yvonne Schulte
Introduction	241
A. Jurisdiction	242
1. Subject Matter Jurisdiction	242
2. Personal Jurisdiction	242
a. Personal Jurisdiction Issues Concerning Individual Directors and Officers	243
b. Attendance at Trial for Nonresident Insurers	244
3. Jurisdictional Limitations	244
a. Standing Issues	244
b. Ripeness	248
c. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies	249
B. Parties	250
1. Proper or Necessary Parties	250
2. Intervention	252
3. Interpleader	253
4. Class Actions	255
C. Scope of Discovery	255
D. Whether to Stay or Limit Scope of Coverage Litigation	258
E. Duty to Advance Defense Costs	261
F. Finality of Settlement and Judgment	267
G. Rule 11 Sanctions	267
H. Bad Faith	268

1. Denial of Coverage Does Not Constitute Bad Faith	268
2. Claims Handling	269
3. Breach of Contract Not Required in Minority of Jurisdictions	269
4. No Bad Faith for Settling Lawsuit against Insured	270
5. Plaintiff Must Sustain Economic Loss to Recover for Bad Faith	270
6. Assignee of Insured's Rights Entitled to Recover Attorneys' Fees from Insurer	270
7. Bifurcation of Trial	271
CHAPTER 13
Bankruptcy Issues in Coverage Litigation	273
Susan Koehler Sullivan and Yvonne Schulte
Introduction	273
A. The D&O Policy Is an Asset of the Estate, but Other Insureds May Be Entitled to Policy Proceeds	273
B. Automatic Stay Impacting Actions against Directors and Officers	278
C. Bankruptcy Court's Jurisdiction for Claims Involving Bankrupt's Insurer	284
D. Claims by Directors and Officers against a Bankrupt Company	289
Table of Cases	293
Index	325