

FOREWORD

The ABA Antitrust Law Section is pleased to publish the Second Edition of the Monopolization and Dominance Handbook. The Handbook addresses the antitrust rules and principles that govern unilateral business conduct by firms with substantial market positions, referred to in the United States as the law of monopolization.

The Antitrust Law Section is grateful to the many attorneys and economists who contributed to the Handbook. We are especially grateful to Justin Hedge and Dominic Vote, who served as project chairs, and to chapter leads James Abell, Logan Breed, Derek Moore, Jeffery Prisbrey, Joshua Soven, Howard Ullman, and Daniel Weick who provided valuable input and helped prepare the Handbook for publication.
