

Contents

Acknowledgments	viii
Introduction	ix
1 How Arbitral Tribunals Deal with Allegations of Corruption	1
I. Introduction	1
II. Proving Corruption	3
A. Burden of Proof	3
B. Standard of Proof	4
III. The Use of Adverse Inferences	6
IV. Corruption as a Defense on the Merits	9
V. Setting Aside and Enforcement Proceedings Involving Issues of Corruption	10
A. Minimal Review	11
B. Maximal Review	17
C. Contextual Review	23
VI. Conclusion	27
2 Impact of Sanctions on Doing Business and the Conduct of Arbitration Proceedings	29
I. Introduction	29
II. Impact of Sanctions on Arbitration: Substantive Law Issues	31
A. Force Majeure	31
B. The Concept of English Common Law Frustration	32
C. Doctrines of Impediment and Hardship	33
D. Other Means to Avoid Liability Due to Sanctions	34
III. Impact of Sanctions on Arbitration: Procedural and Practical Issues	35
A. Will Accepting a Registration Fee or Advance on Costs from a Targeted Entity Infringe a Relevant Asset Freeze?	38

IV INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION AND RESOLVING DISPUTES

B.	Will Certifying an Award in Favor of a Targeted Entity Infringe the Relevant Sanctions Regime Because the Award Permits a Targeted Entity to Raise Funds?	38
C.	Enforceability of Awards	39
IV.	Compliance by Arbitrators	40
V.	Exemptions from Sanctions Regimes	41
VI.	Conclusion	43
3	Status and Protection of Investments in Contested Maritime Areas	45
I.	Introduction	45
II.	Absence of Border Delimitation: Who Owns What? Practical Solutions Developed by States	47
A.	State Practice of Concluding Agreements Governing the Exploitation of Common Deposits	48
B.	How to Exploit Deposits in the Event No Agreement Is Reached?	50
III.	The Existence of a Delimited Border: How Are Common Deposits Allocated and Exploited?	55
IV.	Conclusion	57
4	Disputes Involving Investments Located in Areas Subject to Armed Conflict	59
I.	Introduction	59
II.	Protection of Foreign Investment in Times of Internal Armed Conflict	60
A.	Protections Available to Investors in the Event of Internal Armed Conflict	60
B.	Legal Defenses Available to States	70
C.	Determining Post-Conflict Compensation	73
III.	Status of Foreign Investments Located in Territories Subject to Foreign Military Occupation	77
A.	What Is the Scope of the Occupying Power's Prerogatives to Develop New Oil Fields?	79
B.	Does the Occupying Power Have the Right to Grant Commercial Concessions for the Exploration of Natural Resources?	81
IV.	Conclusion	84

5	Foreign Investments and State Dislocation	87
	I. Introduction	87
	II. Definition of State Succession	88
	A. Distinguishing State Succession from Regime Change	88
	B. State Succession: Is It Synonymous to State Continuity?	89
	C. Is the Successor State Bound by the Commercial Obligations of the Predecessor State?	89
	III. State Succession with Respect to Commercial Obligations (Debts, Contracts)	91
	IV. The Interaction between State Succession and the Jurisdiction of National Courts and Arbitral Tribunals	92
	A. Arbitrability of Issues Pertaining to State Succession	93
	B. State Succession to Agreements to Arbitrate: The State of Play	95
	V. The Case of South Sudan and Selected Case Law	98
	A. The Case of South Sudan	98
	B. Other Recent Case Law Dealing with Issues of State Succession	102
	VI. Conclusion	106
6	Third-Party Interference in Contractual Rights	107
	I. Introduction	107
	II. The Dispute between First Quantum, ENRC, and the Republic of Congo	107
	A. Factual Background	107
	B. The ICC Arbitration between FQM and Congo	109
	C. The ICSID Arbitration between FQM and Congo	110
	D. The BVI Court Proceedings between FQM and ENRC	111
	E. The Settlement between FQM, Congo, and ENRC	111
	III. DP World v. Djibouti	112
	IV. Conclusion	113
7	Procedural Issues Arising in Disputes with States Experiencing Instability	115
	I. Introduction	115
	II. State Representation in Arbitration/Court Proceedings	115
	A. The Approach of Arbitral Tribunals	115
	B. The Recognition of Governments: The English and U.S. Courts' Approach	119

VI INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION AND RESOLVING DISPUTES

III. Who Has Access to Venezuela’s Gold in the UK: Maduro or Guaidó?	121
IV. Use (or Misuse) of 1782 Discovery Applications before the U.S. Courts	124
V. Attempts to Displace/Divert Funds to Escape Enforcement Proceedings	127
A. Union Fenosa Gas (UFG) v. Arab Republic of Egypt (U.S. Court Proceedings)	127
VI. Sham Arbitrations and How to Set Aside Fraudulent Awards	128
VII. Conclusion	130
About the Author	133
Index	135