

INDEX

- accountability, 126
- acknowledged documents, 162
- Adams, John, 18–19
- Adams, John Quincy, 19
- admissibility, of evidence, 148, 164
- admissions requests, 137–138
- advertising, ethics and, 86
- advocacy, passion for, 69–70
- Aechines, 8
- alliteration, 195, 277
- anadiplosis, 195, 274
- analogy, 205, 216–217, 221, 492–494
- anaphora, 10–11, 174, 191, 274
- anastrophe, 190, 274
- ancient documents
 - evidence about, 160–161
 - hearsay and, 156
- Anti-Federalists, 21
- aposiopesis, 193, 275
- apostrophe, 199, 277
- appeal
 - authentication and, 504
 - data objections and, 506
 - familiarity with rules of, 503
 - grounds for objections and, 504–507
 - hearsay and, 505
 - jury instructions and, 507
 - lay witness opinion and, 506
 - prior consistent statements and, 505
 - Rule 404 and, 505–506
 - technicalities and, 506
- Archer-Shee, George, 42
- argument
 - by analogy, 216–217
 - by causal correlation, 217–218
 - by example, 215
 - in opening statement, 241, 245
 - by particulars, 215
- Aristotle, 71, 167–172, 211, 213–214, 264
- Armstrong, Jack, 37–38
- Assizes, 3
- assonance, 195
- attitudes, 203, 227
- audience, 203–204
- Baillie, Thomas, 23
- baptism, hearsay and, 155–156
- Batson* challenge, 147, 230
- Batson* strikes, 230
- beliefs, 203, 228, 238, 251, 498–501
- Beverage, Albert J., 38–39
- Birkett, William Norman, 70
- Blanck, Max, 54
- body language, 207, 279–280, 495–496
- Boston Massacre, 18
- Boyd, Al, 50–51
- Brady v. Maryland, 129, 143–144
- Bresler v. Wilmington Trust, 121, 235
- Brougham, Henry, 31–33, 521
- Brown, Catherine Drinker, 4
- Brown v. Board of Education, 60, 62–63, 80, 184
- Bryan, William Jennings, 43

Index

- Burden v. CSX Transportation Inc., 122
- Burr, Aaron, 21
- business, law practice as, 81–82
- business records, in direct examination, 362–364
- career plan, 75–76
- Carino v. Muenzen, 121, 235
- Carson, Edward Henry, 40–42
- case scheduling, 146
- causal correlation, 205, 217–218, 266
- character, hearsay and, 157
- character evidence, 148–149
- Chase, Samuel, 20
- Chattell* case, 48–50
- Choate, Rufus, 35–37
- Churchill, Winston, 188
- Cicero, 7, 12–14, 69–70, 172, 175–177, 179, 211, 269, 467, 490
- civility, 126
- clarity of expression
- appeal to emotions in, 205–206
 - audience and, 203–204
 - body language and, 207
 - delivery and, 207
 - examples of lack of, 201–202
 - formal reasoning in, 204–205
 - logic and, 204–205
 - presentation in, 207–208
 - style and, 206–207
 - theme in, 202
 - visuals in, 208–209
- Clary's Grove Boys, 37
- CLE. See continuing legal education (CLE)
- clerking, 71
- clients
- fidelity to, 125
 - focusing on, 520–521
 - healthy suspicion of, 513–515
 - humanization of, 222
- closing argument
- argument in, 479–482
 - arrangement of, 467–489
 - beliefs in, 498–501
 - delivery in, 495–496
 - demonstrative aids in, 501
 - example, 555–603
 - facts in, 496–497
 - figurative analogies in, 492–494
 - inferences in, 496–497
 - introduction in, 468–479
 - misstating evidence in, 497–498
 - pathos in, 490–492
 - peroration in, 482–489
 - personal attacks in, 498
 - personal opinions in, 498–501
 - rebuttal and, 489–490
 - rhetorical questions in, 494–495
 - rules, 496–501
 - style in, 490–495
- Coke, Edward, 4
- commercial paper, 162
- commercial publications, hearsay and, 156
- common law, 3–5
- competence, 84–85, 532
- compliments, 248–249
- composition, 269
- conduct, professional, 77–78
- confirmation, 176
- Connally, John, 65–66
- continuing legal education (CLE), 78–79
- control, in cross-examination, 418–423
- corporations, depositions of, 138
- correlation, 205, 217–218, 266
- court appearances, professionalism in, 124
- court dignity, 517–518
- Court of Common Pleas, 3–4

Index

- court orders, 523–524
- court respect, 530
- courtesy, 126
- courtroom norms, 529–530
- Courvoisier, Francois, 33
- Courvoisier* murder trial, 33–34, 116, 118 n.64
- credibility, attacking, 159
- criminal case
 - cross-examination in, 115–120
 - discovery in, 140–143
- criminal defendant, communication
 - with, at trial, 106
- cross-examination
 - arrangement in, 417–418
 - case development with, 425–428
 - corroboration with, 437
 - in criminal case, 115–120
 - delivery in, 423–424
 - goals of, 424–462
 - historical examples, 459–462
 - impeachment and, 438–450
 - powerful, 415–424
 - purpose of, 414–415
 - revealing discrepancies in, 428–436
 - selectivity in, 416–417
 - style in, 423–424
 - value of, 413
 - witness control in, 418–423
- Darrow, Clarence, 42–47, 52–53
- Dartmouth College v. Woodward, 30
- Daubert v. Merrell Dow Pharmaceuticals Inc., 376, 383
- Davis, John W., 82, 127
- De Kruif, Paul, 54
- death, statement under belief of
 - imminent, 158
- Debbs, Eugene, 46
- deductive reasoning, 212–214, 266–267
- definition, 204
- delivery, 177, 207, 278–282, 423–424, 495–496
- demonstrative aids, 254–256, 501
- Demosthenes, 7–11, 165, 167, 172–174, 188, 272, 467
- Dennis, J. Upshur, 35
- deposition
 - client truthfulness in, 106–109
 - communications with witnesses
 - during breaks in, 102–105
 - of corporations, 138
 - in discovery, 134–137
- deus ex machina, 373, 384
- Dickens, Charles, 34
- dignity
 - of court, 517–518
 - of profession, 125
- Dimas-Martinez v. State, 122
- direct examination
 - authentication of exhibits in, 353–359
 - business records in, 362–364
 - conclusion in, 286, 291
 - context in, 286, 290, 307–313
 - delivery in, 351–353
 - engaging jury in, 350–351
 - ethics and, 344–345
 - of experts, 373–411
 - form of, 287–290
 - immunization in, 286, 291, 334–335
 - introduction in, 286, 290–306
 - memorable, 346–353
 - primacy effect and, 285–286
 - private writing in, 359–361
 - purpose of, 285
 - redirect and, 370–371
 - structure in, 290–306
 - style in, 351–353
 - substance in, 290–306, 313–333

- discovery
- admissions requests in, 137–138
 - in civil cases, 130–140
 - in criminal cases, 140–143
 - depositions in, 134–137
 - document production in, 133–134
 - electronically stored information in, 133–134
 - ethics and, 97–99
 - examination reports in, 142–143
 - from exerts, 138–140
 - experts in, 131–132, 380–381
 - failure to disclose or cooperate in, 140
 - in Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 129
 - goal of, 129
 - hybrid fact witnesses and, 138–139
 - initial disclosures in, 131
 - interrogatories in, 132–133
 - land inspection in, 133–134
 - reports in, 142–143
 - sanctions in, 140
 - test reports in, 142–143
 - witnesses in, 132
- disposition, 177
- doctrine of frequency, 208
- doctrine of recency, 208
- duration, trial, 238
- education
- continuing legal, 78–79
 - professionalism and, 126
- electronically stored information (ESI), 133–134, 353–354, 364–370
- ellipsis, 193, 275
- elocution, 177
- Emanuel, Morris, 63–64
- embarrassment, ethics and, 85–86
- Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 187
- emotional condition, hearsay and, 154
- emotions
- appeal to, 205–206
 - in argumentation, 219
 - derivative use of, 219
 - direct use of, 220–223
 - in opening statement, 271–272
- engagement, 185–186, 350–351
- enthymeme, 200, 213, 267
- epimone, 191, 273
- epistrophe, 192, 274
- epizeuxis, 190, 273
- erotema, 197, 277
- Erskine, Thomas, 23–25
- ESI. See electronically stored information (ESI)
- ethics
- advertising and, 86
 - competence and, 84–85
 - in direct examination, 344–345
 - discovery and, 97–99
 - embarrassment and, 85–86
 - false evidence offered by lawyer and, 109–114
 - of impeachment, 462–464
 - marketing and, 86
 - Model Rules of Professional Conduct and, 83–84
 - “no contact” rule and, 99–101
 - social media and, 91–96
 - subordinate lawyers and, 90–91
 - witness interviews and, 87–90
- ethos, 71, 168–169, 187, 258–259
- evidence
- admissibility of, 148, 164
 - authentication of, 160–161, 353–359, 504
 - character, 148–149
 - expert testimony as, 151–152
 - of habit, 149
 - hearsay and, 152–159
 - identification of, 160–161

Index

- personal knowledge in, 149
- presentation of, 150
- prior statement as, 151
- relevance of, 148
- self-authenticating, 161–163
- telephone, 160
- ex parte communication, 120–122
- exaggeration, 199
- example, argument by, 215
- excellence, 126
- excited utterance, 153
- exordium, 176, 252
- experts
 - basis, 378–379
 - case law with, 376–384
 - choosing, 374–375
 - climactic questions with, 400–411
 - comparison by, 160
 - direct examination of, 373–411
 - in discovery, 131–132, 138–140, 380–381
 - full disclosure with, 381–383
 - hybrid/fact, 375
 - importance of, 373–374
 - introducing, 385–400
 - non-testifying, 375
 - rules with, 376–384
 - testimony of, 151–152
 - at trial, 384–400
 - types of, 375
- expressive clarity. See clarity of expression
- eye contract, 280
- facial expressions, 280
- fairness, 126
- fallacies, 217–218, 267–269
- Falls Road Community Association, Inc. et al. v. Baltimore and Oregon, LLC*, 232, 253, 256, 259, 264, 266–267, 279, 313, 339–342, 352, 355, 419, 488–489
- false dilemma, 269
- false evidence, offered by lawyer, 109–114
- family history, hearsay and, 156–159
- family records, hearsay and, 156
- Farnsworth, Ward, 273
- Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP), 98, 129, 145–146
- Federal Rules of Evidence, 26, 98, 133, 142–143, 147–164, 376
- Federalists, 21
- fidelity, to clients, 125
- figurative analogy, 205, 216–217, 221, 492–494
- figurative language, 173–174
- Fletcher v. Peck*, 20–21
- focus groups, 231–234
- foreign public documents, 161–163
- formal reasoning, 204–205
- former testimony, hearsay and, 158
- Franklin, Bert, 52
- Franks, Bobbi, 44
- Frye v. United States*, 377–378
- Garrow, William, 25–28
- Geders v. United States*, 106
- General Electric Co. v. Joiner*, 376
- generalization, 265
- George IV, 31
- gestures, 279–280
- Gibbons v. Ogden*, 30
- Giglio v. United States*, 129, 143–144
- Goodwin, Doris Kearns, 39–40
- Gordon, George, 24
- Gordon Riots, 24
- Gray, Thomas, 81
- Grisham, John, 220
- habit, evidence of, 149
- Hall, Edward Marshall, 40, 47–50, 70, 279–280

Index

- Hall v. Clifton Precision, 103
Hamilton, Andrew, 16–18, 123 handwriting, nonexpert opinion on, 160
Harris, Isaac, 54
Healy, William E., 76
hearsay, 152–159, 505
Hefner, Hugh, 63
Henry, O., 79
Henry II, 3
heuristics, 182, 260–261
Hill, Frederick Trevor, 37, 39
Hoffa, Jimmy, 63
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 5
Horace, 29
Hortensia, 14–16
Hortensius, 12
human nature, 70
humanization, of client, 222 humor, 522–523
hybrid fact witnesses, 138–139 hyperbole, 199
hypophora, 197, 277, 494

immunization, 282–283, 286, 291, 334–335 impeachment, 438–450, 462–464 induction by analogy, 205 inductive reasoning, 214–218, 265–266 innocence, presumption of, 237 integrity, 125, 258
interrogatories, in discovery, 132–133 introduction in closing argument, 468–479
 in direct examination, 286, 290–306
 of experts, 385–400
invention, 177
irony, 199, 277
Isocrates, 167

Jackson, Robert H., 129
Jacobson, Jake, 65–66
Jefferson, Thomas, 21

Jencks Act, 129, 143–144
Jimenez-Bencevi, United States v., 117
Johnson, Reverdy, 34–35
judge as busy, 528
 clerking for, 71 courtroom norms and, 529–530 due diligence on, for persuasion, 170–171, 183–184
 as empathetic, 532
 as ethical, 527–528
 as impartial, 529
 justice and, 528
 knowing, 515–517
 negative comments about, 520 respect for, 530–531 trial lawyers and, 527–532
juror questioning, 147 jurors, ex parte communication and, 120–122 jury, persuasion of, 184 jury engagement, 350–351 jury instructions, 507 jury questionnaire, 230–231 jury selection, in Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 146. See also voir dire jury trial, right to, 145, 147

Kahneman, Daniel, 182, 203, 260
Khayyam, Omar, 46
King's Bench, 3
Kirkland, Weymouth, 57–59
knowledge, 258 knowledge seeking, 78–79
Kumho Tire Co. v. Carmichael, 376

L'Amour, Louis, 263–264 land inspection, 133–134
legal aid work, 82
Leopold, Nathan, 44
Levine, Moe, 59–60, 219, 225, 271
likability, 258

Index

- Lincoln, Abraham, 37–40
Lincoln-Douglas debates, 37–38 listener, connection with, 181–186
litotes, 198, 278
Littleton, Martin Wiley, 55–57
Loeb, Richard, 44
logic, 204–205, 211–212 logical fallacies, 217–218 logos, 71, 168–170, 187, 264–265
Lorraine v. Markel, 353–354, 361
- Maffei v. Smedley*, 228, 248–250, 255, 259, 264–266, 288–289, 335, 348–349, 355, 371, 373–374, 386–400, 420–422, 430–438, 447–448, 474–479, 486–488, 500–501
- Magna Carta, 3–4
Majocchi, Theodore, 31–33 market reports, hearsay and, 156 marketing, ethics and, 86 marriage, hearsay and, 155–156
Marshall, John, 21–22
Marshall, Thurgood, 60–63, 80–81, 184
Martin, Luther, 19–23
McCoy v. Louisiana, 114
McCulloch v. Maryland, 21, 30
McKinley Infuser, Inc. v. Zdeb, 104 n.40
McNamara, James B., 46–47
McNamara, John J., 46–47 medical diagnosis, hearsay and, 154 meiosis, 198
memory in rhetoric, 177
 witness, 150–151
mental condition, hearsay and, 154 mentorship, 76–77, 126, 521–522
metanoia, 194, 275
metaphor, 196, 276
metonymy, 278 mock trials, 231–234
Model Rules of Professional Conduct, 83–84
Montaigne, 187
Moon, Sun Myung, 63
- narration, 176, 252
Near v. Minnesota, 58 newspapers, 162
Nix v. Whiteside, 110–114
Nixon, Richard, 63
“no contact” rule, ethics and, 99–101 non sequitur, 268
nonverbal communication, 495–496.
 See also body language
- objections, grounds for, 504–507 official publications, 162 opening statement
 argument in, 241, 245
 arrangement of, 243, 252–253
 compliments in, 248–249 delivery of, 278–282
 demonstrative aids in, 254–256
 emotions in, 271–272
 ethos and, 258–259
 example, 533–554
 fallacies in, 267–269
 immunization in, 282–283
 influence of, 242
 logos in, 264–265
 overstatement of case in, 257
 pathos in, 269–272
 primacy effect and, 243, 245
 receiver-centered approach in, 259–263 storytelling in, 263–264
 style in, 272–278
 theme in, 249–251
 witnesses and, 247–248 opposing party statement, 153 oral presentation skills, 80–81

- Oregon Grille case. See Falls Road Community Association, Inc. et al. v. Baltimore and Oregon, LLC
- original, defined, 163–164
- overstatement of case, 257
- pacing, 261
- Paine, Thomas, 25
- parenthesis, 192, 275
- particulars, argument by, 215
- partition, 176, 252
- Passin' Through at 25 (L'Amour), 263–264
- pathos, 71, 168, 170–172, 187, 269–272, 490–492
- periodicals, 162
- peroration, 176, 252, 482–489
- Perry v. Leeke, 106
- personal history, hearsay and, 156–159
- persuasion
 - anastrophe in, 190
 - connection with listener in, 181–186
 - decision and, 181–183
 - due diligence on judges and, 170–171, 183–184
 - engagement in, 185–186
 - importance of, 165
 - of juries, 184
 - repetition in, 190–192
 - rhetoric and, 167–179
 - schemes in, 189–195
- Phaedrus* (Plato), 167–168
- Philip II of Macedon, 172
- Philippics*, 8–11, 172–173
- Phillips, Charles, 33–34
- photograph, defined, 163
- physical condition, hearsay and, 154
- pictures, 255. See also visuals
- Plato, 167–168
- Plutarch, 7, 11, 172
- Pollock v. Farmer's Loan & Trust, 246–247
- post hoc ergo propter hoc, 268
- Powell, Adam Clayton, 63
- PowerPoint, 255
- praeteritio, 193, 275
- preparation, 511–513
- present sense impression, 153
- presentation, 207–208
- presumption of innocence, 237
- previous conviction, hearsay and, 157
- primacy effect, 243, 245, 285–286
- private writing, 359–361
- pro bono work, 82
- process, evidence about, 161
- professional conduct, 77–78
- professionalism, 519
 - accountability and, 126
 - breadth and depth of, 123–124
 - civility and, 126
 - in court appearances, 124
 - courtesy and, 126
 - defined, 123
 - dignity and, 125
 - education and, 126
 - excellence and, 126
 - fairness and, 126
 - ideals of, 124
 - integrity and, 125
 - mentoring and, 126
 - public service and, 125
 - trustworthiness and, 126
- prolepsis, 194, 276
- property interest, hearsay and, 156
- public record
 - certified copies of, 162
 - domestic, 161
 - evidence about, 160
 - foreign, 161–162
 - hearsay and, 155
- public service, professionalism and, 125
- publications, official, 162

Index

- questionnaire, jury, 230–231
- questions
 - in direct examination, 287–290
 - rhetorical, 221, 494–495
- Quintilian, 7, 172, 178–179
 - reasoning
 - deductive, 212–214, 266–267
 - inductive, 214–218, 265–266
- rebuttal argument, 489–490
- receiver-centered approach, 259–263
- recency, 285–286
- recorded recollection, 154
- recording, defined, 163
- red herring, 218, 268
- redirect examination, 370–371
- refutation, 176, 252
- regularly conducted activity, hearsay and, 154–155
- Rehnquist, William H., 20
- relevance, of evidence, 148
- religious organizations, hearsay and, 155
- Remini, Robert V., 30
- repetition, 190–192, 207
- residual exception, hearsay and, 159
- Resolution Trust Corp. v. Bright, 88
- respect, 530–531
- Rhetoric* (Aristotle), 167–172
- rhetoric, classical, 167–179
- Rico v. Mitsubishi Motors Corp., 97–98
- Rogers, Earl, 47, 50–53
- Rosen, United States v.*, 228, 230–231, 234, 243–244, 247–248, 258–259, 261–263, 267, 270, 281, 291–339, 346–347, 374, 385–386, 401–403, 425–430, 438–440, 449–459, 468–473, 479–486, 493–497, 499, 501, 533–603
- rule, methods provided by, 161
- Rule 404, 148–149, 505–506
- Ryan, O’Neill, 33
- sanctions, for discovery issues, 140
- sarcasm, 473
- Scarlett, James, 27–29, 181–182, 260
- scheduling cases, 146
- schemes, 189–195, 221
- Scopes Monkey Trial, 43–44
- selectivity, 416–417
- self-authenticating evidence, 161–163
- settlement, 525–526
- Seventh Amendment, 145
- Sherman, George, 54–55
- Sherman v. International Publications*, 54–55
- simile, 196, 276
- Sinatra, Frank, 63
- sincerity, 70–71, 222, 258
- Sipuel v. Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma*, 61–62
- slippery slope, 269
- Sluss v. Commonwealth*, 121, 235
- social media
 - direct examination and, 367–370
 - ethics and, 91–96
 - voir dire and, 121–122, 234–237
- State v. Earp*, 88–89
- State v. Papa*, 89 n.14
- statute
 - methods provided by, 161
 - presumptions under federal, 162
- Steuer, Max D., 53–55
- Stockdale, John, 25
- storytelling, 221, 263–264
- straw man, 218, 268
- Stryker, Paul, 55
- subordinate lawyers, ethics and, 90–91
- subpoena, in Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 146
- summaries, to prove content, 164
- summary judgment, in Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 146
- Surratt, Mary, 35
- Sykes, Melvin J., 76–77

Index

- syllogism, 200, 204, 214
symploce, 192, 274
synecdoche, 278
system, evidence about, 161
- Taylor, Zachary, 35
telephone evidence, 160
Thackery, William, 34
theme, 202, 249–251
Thinking Fast and Slow (Kahneman), 260
Thucydides, 172
Time to Kill, A (Grisham), 220
Tirrell, Albert J., 36 trade inscriptions, 162 trial duration, 238
trial lawyer career plan for, 75–76
 human nature and, 70 passion for advocacy of, 69–70 professional conduct by, 77–78 qualities of, 69–74 role of, 69–74
 sincerity of, 70–71
TrialDirector 360, 255–256
Triangle Shirtwaist fire, 54 tropes, 189, 196–200, 221
trustworthiness, 126
- understatement, 198, 222
- Vidal, Gore, 20
visuals, 208–209, 254–256, 348–350 vital statistics, 155 voice, opinion about, 160
voir dire in civil trials, 238–239
 in criminal trials, 237–238
 defined, 227
 ethos and, 169
 focus groups and, 231–234
 Internet searches in, 121–122, 234–237 jury questionnaire in, 230–231 mock trials and, 231–234 origin of term, 227
 pathos and, 171
 presumption of innocence and, 237 trial duration and, 238
- Webster, Daniel, 29–31, 70, 185, 206, 250, 260
Weldon, Lawrence, 37
White, Byron, 115–116
Wilde, Oscar, 41
Williams, Edward Bennett, 63–66
Wilson, Havelock, 40
Wilson, Woodrow, 188
witness(es) availability, hearsay and, 157–159
 character, 149–150
 communication, during breaks in depositions, 102–105
 cross-examination, 115–116
 in discovery, 132
 interviews, ethics and, 87–90
 lay, opinions of, 383–384
 memory, 150–151
 opening statement and, 247–248
 prior statement, 151–153 word order, 190 writing, defined, 163
writing skills, 79–80
Wydict, Richard, 80
- Zenger, John Peter, 16, 123