

Table of Contents

- I. Introduction–How We Got Here
- II. Acknowledgments
- III. Showing the Value of the Legal Department–an Overview
- IV. The Evolution of the In-House Lawyer
- V. Winning Hearts and Minds
 - A. Market the Legal Department
 - B. Make it Easy for Your In-House Clients to Love You
 - C. Be the “Department of Yes”
 - D. Think and Act Like an Owner, Not an Employee
 - E. Become a Strategic In-House Lawyer
 - F. A Crisis is Your Friend
 - G. Present Legal Issues Like a Businessperson (Not a Boring Lawyer)
- VI. Act Like You Are Part of the Business (and Not a Bunch of Lawyers)
 - A. Understand Basic Finance
 - B. Operate the Department Like a Business
 - C. Know the Importance of Accurate Budgets and Forecasts
 - D. Use 2x2 Matrix Analysis
 - E. Get Comfortable with Data Analytics
 - F. Develop Key Performance Indicators that Matter
 - G. Manage Outside Counsel Spend Like it is Your Money
 - i. Managing Outside Counsel
 - ii. Use an RFP Process Whenever Possible
 - iii. Develop a Legal Procurement Process
 - H. Perfect Legal Project Management
- VII. Your Mission: Maximize Value Creation and Minimize Value Destruction
 - A. Build Out a Value-Creation To Do List
 - B. In a Pinch–Focus Efforts on Revenue Generation

- C. Create Better Contracts Faster
 - i. Make Your Contracts Easier to Sign
 - ii. Reduce Risk in Contracts
 - iii. Teach The Business About Contract Boilerplate
 - D. Implement Technology to Create Value
 - E. Focus on Technology That Matters
 - i. Technology that Matters: The Core
 - ii. Technology that Matters: Electronic Signatures
 - iii. Technology that Matters: Artificial Intelligence
 - F. Self Help: Increasing Value Through Non-Engagement
 - G. Be a Teacher
 - i. Drafting Smart Documents
 - ii. Help Them Get Their Contracts Through Legal Quickly
 - iii. Teach the Business How to Read a Contract
 - iv. Give Them a Contract Playbook
 - H. Legal as a Profit Center
 - i. Create a Formal Recoveries Program
 - ii. Strategic Use of the Law
 - iii. Create an In-House Patent (and Other IP) Development Program
 - iv. Utilize Litigation Financing
 - I. Spot and Manage Risk
 - J. Protect the Attorney-Client Privilege
 - K. Be the Watch Dog: The Value of Compliance
 - i. Setting Up a Compliance Function
 - ii. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) and Antibribery
 - iii. Minimize Antitrust Risk
 - iv. Minimize Trade Association Risk
 - v. Protect the Board of Directors
 - vi. Protect the Company's Brand
 - vii. Protect Company Trade Secrets
 - L. Prepare for Bad Things: The Ultimate Plan to Minimize Value Destruction
- VIII. Partnering with the Business—Lawyers as Leaders
- A. Set Annual Goals that Matter to the Business
 - B. Partner With HR
 - C. Partner with IT—Preparing for a Data Breach
 - D. Partner with Government Affairs—Politics Matter
 - E. Partner with Finance
 - F. Partner with Everyone—Crisis Preparation
 - G. Send Out a Satisfaction Survey

- IX. Leveraging it All to Get More!
- X. Appendix 1 (KPI Library)
- XI. Appendix 2 (Sample Low-Value Contract Checklist)
- XII. Appendix 3 (Sample Legal Department Client Satisfaction Survey Questions)
- XIII. Index
- XIV. About the Author