

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface.....	ix
Contributors: Editors and Authors.....	xi
Chapter 1 History/Development of Cyber and Network Security Risk and Insurance .....	1
Daniel Cotter
A. Privacy vs. Cybersecurity .....	2
B. The Beginning of Cyber Insurance .....	5
C. The Cyber Insurance Market .....	12
D. A Tale of Market Growth .....	14
E. Type of Coverages .....	15
F. Evolution of Language and Coverages .....	16
G. The Rise of Ransomware .....	20
H. Conclusion .....	21
Chapter 2 Overview of Types of Insurance Coverage Available for Cyber Risks .....	23
Dana Post and Judy Selby
A. The Current Market .....	23
B. Cyber Insurance Policies .....	24
Chapter 3 Potential Overlapping Coverage between Cyber Policies and Other Business and Crime Policies .....	35
Toni Scott Reed, Dana Post, and Judy Selby
A. Traditional Business Policies .....	36
B. Bonds and Commercial Crime Policies .....	51
C. Conclusion .....	74
Chapter 4 Insurance Coverage Developments in Cybersecurity and Data Breach.....	75
Kyle Black
A. Early Standalone Cyber Insurance Policies .....	75

- B. The Shift in Focus from Seeking Coverage for Data Breaches under Commercial General Liability Policies to Standalone Cyber Insurance Policies..... 77
- C. Standardized Cyber Insurance Policies Are on the Horizon..... 84
- D. Case Law Interpreting Standalone Cyber Insurance Policies .... 86
- E. Recent Statistics Regarding Cyber Insurance Policies ..... 89
- F. Conclusion ..... 89

Chapter 5 Basic Requirements for any Cyber Insurance Policy..... 91

Laurie Kamaiko

- A. Cyber Insurance Coverages Vary ..... 92
- B. Basic Coverages..... 93

Chapter 6 Obtaining Cyber Insurance— the Application Process and Pre-Underwriting Audits ..... 103

Kristi W. Richard, Ross H. Benson, and Joseph P. Gunset

- A. The Application Process Starts Before Submitting the Application ..... 104
- B. Inquiries the Applicant Should Expect in the Application and the Data It Should Be Prepared to Share..... 105
- C. Underwriters’ Considerations for New Risks and Policy Renewals, Including under Writing Audits and Evaluations... 106
- D. Applicants May Not Be Able to Obtain Their Current Limits Without Higher Premiums and That Terms May Change ..... 107
- E. Summary..... 108

Chapter 7 Preparing a Cyber Claim..... 111

Peter Halprin and Stan Johnson

- A. Pre- and Post-Breach Action Plan ..... 112
- B. Claim Development ..... 123
- C. Additional Claim Measure Topics..... 129
- D. Summary and Checklist of the Claims Process ..... 130

Chapter 8 The Interaction Between Cyber Insurance, Data Breach Response Plans, and Cybersecurity Governance..... 133

Rafae Bhatti

- A. Data Breach Trends ..... 134
- B. Cyber Insurance and Breach Response Plans ..... 145
- C. Cybersecurity Governance..... 154
- D. Conclusion ..... 160

Chapter 9 Risk Management For Private and Publicly Traded Companies ..... 161

Kristin L. Bryan and Aaron C. Garavaglia

- A. Cybersecurity Best Practices for Publicly Traded and Private Companies ..... 163
- B. Disclosure and Regulatory Issues ..... 170
- C. Audits..... 173
- D. COVID-19 Considerations ..... 174
- E. The Board’s Role ..... 175
- F. Other Issues ..... 176
- G. Area of Recent Activity for Board Failing to Act in Area of Cybersecurity ..... 177
- H. Needed Coverage Grants Specific to the Industry ..... 179

Chapter 10 Media Liability and the Cyber Policy ..... 183

Michelle Worrall Tilton and John Stephens

- A. Description of Non-Media Companies with Media Exposure. 183
- B. Media Liability Cyber Exposures ..... 184
- C. Media Companies Insisting They Are Not Media Companies and Why ..... 186
- D. Underlying Motivations ..... 193
- E. Media Liability Risk Management ..... 200
- F. The Insurance Application Process..... 203
- G. Insurance Coverages Available for Media Risks..... 204
- H. Conclusion ..... 229

Chapter 11 Health Care Industry ..... 231Michael Nitardy and Chad Eckhardt*

- A. Entities That Comprise the Health Care Industry ..... 231
- B. Brief Primer on the Regulation of Protected Health Information ..... 238
- C. Exposures Unique to the Health Care Industry (Types of Data Used and Collected) ..... 242
- D. Needed Coverage Grants Specific to the Health Care Industry ..... 244
- E. The Exclusions That Should Be Included or Excluded ..... 252
- F. Other Risk Transfer or Risk Mitigation Strategies ..... 253
- G. Conclusion ..... 255

Chapter 12 Cyber Insurance for Defense Contractors..... 257Heather Howell Wright*

- A. DFARS Clauses and Requirements ..... 257
- B. Cyber Insurance as an Allowable Cost ..... 262
- C. War Exclusions ..... 265

Chapter 13 Technology ..... 277Peggy Reetz*

- A. An Industry Whose Time Has Arrived and Much More ..... 277
- B. What is Technology? ..... 277
- C. Computers at Risk or Computers Are the Risk—Machines Have Feelings, Too ..... 280
- D. Dynamic Designs, Displays and Some Downsides ..... 281
- E. Coverages Can and Have Evolved to Meet Tech Where It’s At ..... 282
- F. Tech is Everywhere But Not Everything Is Covered..... 290
- G. “Who Are Those Guys?” ..... 293
- H. The More Things Change, the More They . . . Never Stay the Same..... 294

Chapter 14 Cyber Risk Management and Insurance for Telecommunication Companies..... 297

Dennis Logan Jr.

- A. Industry Introduction and Overview ..... 297
- B. Internet Service Providers and Telecommunications
Carriers ..... 299
- C. Cell Towers..... 300
- D. Satellites..... 301
- E. Fiber Optics ..... 303
- F. Digital Signal Processing Hardware ..... 303
- G. Software..... 304
- H. The Cloud ..... 304
- I. Coverage Grants ..... 305

Chapter 15 Hospitality and Leisure Industry ..... 307

Deborah W. Yue and Debbie Sines Crockett

- A. Unique Data-Based Aspects of the Hospitality Industry ..... 307
- B. Liability Concerns in the Hospitality Industry..... 308
- C. Insurance Coverage Cases in the Hospitality Industry ..... 313
- D. Cases Discussing a Hotel's Liability to Its Customers ..... 317
- E. Risk Management and Insurance Considerations in Hospitality..... 320

Chapter 16 The Financial Services Industry..... 323

Daniel Cotter

- A. The State of Cyber Risks in the Financial Services Industry... 324
- B. Survey of Unique Issues to Financial Services..... 331
- C. Future Issues and Concerns that Will Confront the Financial Services Industry..... 338
- D. Conclusion ..... 342

Chapter 17 Cybersecurity in the Energy Sector ..... 345

April Falcon Doss and Albert F. Moran

- A. Background on the Cyber Threat Landscape..... 346
- B. Industry Context ..... 350
- C. Regulatory Context..... 355

D.	Legal Risks And Mitigations Associated with Energy Sector Incidents.....	364
E.	Conclusion—Practical Considerations and Tips .....	369
Chapter 18 Professional Services .....		373
Renier P. Pierantoni
A.	Professional Obligations Regarding PII, PHI & Technology ..	376
B.	Most Common Cyber Risks for the Professional .....	379
C.	Potential Under Policies Other than Cyber-specific Policies...	383
D.	Insurance Coverage Disputes Over Coverage for Cyber Claims .....	388
E.	Filling PL and E&O Coverage “Gaps” with Cyber Insurance.....	390
F.	Conclusion .....	394
Chapter 19 The Transportation Industry.....		395
Daniel B. Garre and Dr. Bonnie Regan-Aylor
A.	Summary of the State of Cyber Risks in the Automotive, Shipping and Aviation Industries .....	396
B.	Survey of Unique Issues to the Automotive, Shipping, and Aviation Industries.....	416
C.	Discussion and Unique Elements to Consider When Evaluating Endorsements and Stand-Alone Policies .....	426
D.	Conclusion .....	428
Chapter 20 Retail and Consumer Products.....		429
Robert Stines
A.	Critical Information Stored in Binary Format on Storage Devices .....	430
B.	Case Studies.....	431
C.	Types of Cyber-Related Risks .....	432
D.	The Rise of Cyber Attacks Against CPG Companies and Retailers .....	434
E.	Why Cyber Insurance for CPG Companies and Retailers? .....	435
F.	Types of Coverage to Consider .....	436
G.	Provisions to Consider .....	438
H.	How Much Insurance? .....	440

I.	Risk Mitigation and the Insurance Application .....	440
J.	Final Thoughts .....	442
Chapter 21 Manufacturing and Industrial Products.....		443
J. Paul Zimmerman
A.	Overview of the Manufacturing Environment.....	445
B.	Manufacturing Hardware and Systems.....	448
C.	Cyber Risks in Manufacturing.....	455
D.	Coverage and Related Issues to Address .....	461
Chapter 22 Construction.....		477
Andrew Deutsch
A.	Cyber Risk and Coverage Overview for the Construction Industry .....	477
B.	Key Cyber Coverage Grants for the Construction Industry.....	481
C.	Exclusions, Limitations, and Conditions to Avoid for the Construction Industry .....	491
D.	Other Risk Transfer or Mitigation Strategies for the Construction Industry .....	495
E.	Conclusion .....	497
Chapter 23 Public Sector Cyber Insurance—State and Local Government.....		499
Glenn E. Davis
A.	Broad Scope of Risk and Attack Vectors .....	504
B.	Recent Attacks and the Rise of Ransomware .....	505
C.	Cyber Risk Profile for Public Entities .....	509
D.	Common Insurance-Related Challenges for Public Entities....	519
E.	The Market for Public Entity Cyber & Privacy Coverage.....	524
F.	Types of First Party and Third-Party Government Entity Coverage Available.....	525
G.	Evaluating and Securing Coverage.....	527
H.	Conclusion .....	536

Chapter 24 Educational Institutions ..... 539Renier P. Pierantoni and Lauren D. Godfrey*

- A. The Regulatory Framework ..... 540
- B. Cyber Threats Common to Educational Institutions..... 544
- C. Cyber Coverage for Cyber Threats..... 549
- D. Conclusion ..... 556

Chapter 25 Sports and Entertainment* ..... 557Peggy Reetz and Greg Mantych*

- A. All the World's a Stage Though the World Is (Still) Not Enough ..... 557
- B. Scale of the Potential Exposure: You're Gonna Need a
Bigger Boat . . . and Better Field Vision..... 558
- C. Deconstructing that Scene and Diagramming that Play—
Risks and Exposures ..... 563
- D. From Classic Covers to Zone Defense—Coverages and Limitations..... 565
- E. Coming Attractions and Scouting Reports ..... 575