

Contents

Foreword by Stephen E. Seckler, Esq.	v
Introduction	xv
Part I: Personal Portfolio Management and The Markets	1
Chapter 1: Introducing Personal Portfolio Management	3
Defining Personal Portfolio Management.	3
Time Horizon	4
Your Personal Role	5
Four More Points to Ponder	5
Financial Expertise	7
Key Takeaways	8
Chapter 2: Avoiding Mistakes: A Historical Perspective on the Stock Market	9
Learning from the Past.	10
A Conservative Retiree Reacting to a Bull Market.	10
A Conservative Retiree Reacting to a Bear Market	12
Market Timing.	12
Lessons from Difficult Market Periods.	14
Flash Crashes.	15
Bear Markets	16
Intra-Year Volatility	19
Time Diversification.	21
Key Takeaways	23

Chapter 3: Uncertainty: The Investor’s Dilemma	25
Only the Clairvoyant Can Predict the Market with Certainty . . .	25
How to Lessen Risk with Diversification	27
Diversified Portfolios: Risk Free?	27
Asset Class Returns over the Long Term	27
Practical Application Example	29
Perfect Timing: When the Market Was a “Sure Bet”	29
Period A: Start at a Market Top (1999–2002)	30
Period B: Start at a Market Bottom (2002–2020)	31
Period C: Start at Period A and Hold through Period B (1999–2020)	32
Sequence of Return Risk: Portfolio Withdrawals	33
Period A: Start at a Market Top (1999–2002)	34
Period B: Start at a Market Bottom (2002–2020)	35
Period C: Start at Period A and Hold through Period B (1999–2020)	35
Obvious Risk: A Wet Hand; an Electrical Socket	36
Key Takeaways	37
Chapter 4: Measures for the Risk-Averse Investor	39
Setting the Stage	39
MPT’s Efficient Frontier	40
How to Further Lessen Uncertainty	41
MPT and PMPT Terms	42
Short Illustration	43
Four Portfolios	44
Sharpe and Sortino Ratios	44
Maximum Drawdowns	45
Twenty-Year Returns	46
Context for Retirees: Risk versus Return	46
Adding Risk through Leverage	47
Liquidity Restrictions	47
Key Takeaways	48

Part II: Personal Portfolio Management Principles 49

Chapter 5: Turning Inward: Understanding Cash Flow Prepares

You for the Future. 51

- Cash Flow Drives 51
- Expectations 52
- Household Cash Outflow: Living Expenses 52
- Essential versus Discretionary Expenses 53
- Inflation Expectations 53
- Taxes 55
- Nonroutine Outflow 56
- Inflow from Non-Portfolio Income 56
- The Retirement Income Gap 57
- The Role of Savings: After-Tax Returns 57
- Source of Funding Portfolio Withdrawals 58
- The 4 Percent Rule? 59
- Caution: Don't Forget Taxes 62
- Monte Carlo Simulations 63
- Cash Flow Sensitivity Analysis 63
- Avoid Portfolio Construction Shortcuts 64
- Key Takeaways 64

Chapter 6: Creating Investment Objectives 67

- Investment Policy Statement 67
- An Example 68
- Purpose Statement 68
- Client Summary 69
- Proposed Portfolio 70
- Monitoring Statement 70
- Client Acceptance 70
- Key Takeaways 71

Chapter 7: Setting Strategy Based on Three Situations and Goals	73
Your Situation/Your Goals	73
No Retirement Income Gap	74
Covering the Retirement Income Gap	75
Demand-Driven Portfolio	75
Introducing the “Coverage Ratio”	77
Illustration	78
Who Can Use the Demand-Driven Process?	78
Key Takeaways	79
Chapter 8: Reports and Reviewing Progress	81
Custody	81
Brokerage Statements	82
Investment Adviser Reports	82
Information You Might Want to See	82
1. Allocation by Objective	83
2. Allocation Over Time by Objective	84
3. Performance by Objective	85
4. Holdings by Objective	87
5. Performance Evaluation	88
6. Index Returns	89
When Are Indices Useful/Not Useful?	91
Best Metrics	92
Key Takeaways	92
Part III: New Due Diligence Tools Help You Make Informed Decisions	93
Chapter 9: Financial Firms: Who’s Who and What to Expect as a Client	95
Regulation	96
Investor Confusion? Seeking Clarity	96
The SEC Delivers	98
The SEC’s Four 2019 Releases	98
The SEC’s Three 2018 Releases	100
You Have Choices Based on Your Needs	101
The Playing Field	102
Key Takeaways	104

Chapter 10: Do Standards of Care Matter? Should They? 105

- Should the Standard Be the Same for Brokers and Advisers? . . . 105
- The Fiduciary Standard of Care for Investment Advisers 107
- The Broker-Dealer Standard of Care 109
 - Disclosure Obligation* 110
 - Care Obligation* 112
 - Conflicts of Interest Obligation* 112
 - Compliance Obligation* 114
- Key Takeaways 114

Chapter 11: Expect to Experience Conflicts of Interest, but Choose Not To 117

- Dual Registrant Representatives Wear Two Hats 118
 - Example of “Hat Switching”* 120
 - Example of a Variable Annuity Sales Conflict* 122
 - Example of a 529 Plan Conflict* 123
 - Example of a Mutual Fund Share Class Conflict* 125
 - Example of a Unit Investment Trust Conflict* 128
 - Example of Bond Purchases and Sales* 129
- Investment Adviser Conflicts 130
 - Third Party Payments* 130
- Fiduciary Status Is Not Enough 131
 - Direct Payments from the Client* 132
 - Is There Such a Thing as a Conflict-Free Firm or Representative?* 132
 - Due Diligence Efforts Depend on Business Models* 133
- Key Takeaways 134

Chapter 12: Form CRS Is Key 135

- First Things First: The Firm 135
- How to Read the CRS 136
 - Item 1. Introduction* 137
 - Item 2. Relationships and Services* 137
 - Item 3. “Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct”* . 138
 - Item 3 (Continued): Fees* 138
 - Item 3 (Continued): Description of Other Fees and Costs* 139
 - Item 3 (Continued): Additional Information* 140
 - Item 3 (Continued): Standards of Conduct* 140

Item 3 (Continued): Best Interest	141
Item 3 (Continued): Making Money and Conflicts	142
Item 3 (Continued): Making Money	144
Item 4. Disciplinary History	146
Item 5. Additional Information.	147
Key Takeaways	148

Chapter 13: Let's Talk: The SEC's "Conversation Starters"

and More	149
Conversation Starters	149
Tell Me about Your Firm.	151
What About Financial Incentives?.	152
Are There Disciplinary Disclosures?.	153
Two More Questions	153
Supervisor	156
Key Takeaways	157

Part IV: Portfolio Management Gets Personal 159

Chapter 14: Introducing the "Know Your Representative Rule"	161
KYR Assessment	162
Rating Results	163
How to Use KYR Ratings	164
Key Takeaways	164

Chapter 15: The Future Is Yours: What Will You Do Next?	165
Lessons from Behavioral Economics	165
15 Questions Lead to Setting Personal Priorities	166
What to Make of Your Ratings: The Goal Is Choosing Wisely	169
Key Takeaways	169

Epilogue: Your Role as Mentor, Coach and Role Model	171
--	------------

Appendix A: The Effect of Taxes When Withdrawing Monthly 173

Appendix B: Mutual Fund Prospectus Disclosure of Share Classes . . 177

Appendix C: How to Check Out Your Representative and Firm
Using BrokerCheck 179
 The Representative. 179
 The Firm 181

Appendix D: For Investment Advisers 183
 Form ADV contains five parts 183

Appendix E: DRP Instructions for ADV Part 1A
(Item 11 Disclosure Information) 185

Suggested Reading. 189
 The Classics 189
 Investing. 189
 Retirement, IRAs 191
 Social Security. 191
 Behavioral Finance 191
 Trading/Quantitative Strategies. 191

About the Author 193

Acknowledgments. 195

Index. 197