Re: Proposed Anti-Monopoly Law of the People's Republic of China

Mr. Wu:

The Section of Antitrust Law, the Section of Intellectual Property Law, and the Section of International Law of the American Bar Association (collectively, the "Sections") are pleased to submit the enclosed joint comments on the proposed Anti-Monopoly Law of the People's Republic of China. Please note that there is also enclosed a Chinese translation of the comments' introduction and executive summary.

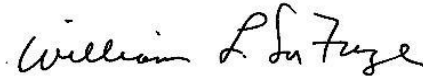

The views expressed herein are presented jointly on behalf of the Sections. They have not been approved by the House of Delegates or the Board of Governors of the American Bar Association, and, accordingly, should not be construed as representing the policy of the American Bar Association.

If you have any questions after reviewing this report, we would be happy to provide further comments.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Wallis, Chair,
Section of Antitrust Law

William L. Lafuze, Chair,
Intellectual Property Law Section

Kenneth B. Reisenfeld, Chair,
Section of International Law
