To the 2017-2018 Leadership of the Section of Antitrust Law

August 2017

Dear Friends,

Thank you for serving as leaders of the Section of Antitrust Law. Your positions in SAL carry substantial responsibility but promise exciting rewards. I hope you will thoroughly enjoy the year ahead.

Serving in SAL’s leadership offers the opportunity to contribute to the development of antitrust and consumer protection law, increase the knowledge and skill of practitioners, and lay the foundations for the Section’s continued success.

It also opens doors to stronger bonds and new friendships within the worldwide competition and consumer-protection community. As most of you already know, our leadership is blessed with the most talented, generous, and amiable professionals anywhere. This year’s team continues that tradition.

To that end, the profiles in the pages that follow will help you become better acquainted with your fellow leaders and our amazing staff—especially by allowing you to put names to faces. In the coming year, I hope you will build many new relationships, renew and strengthen connections between old friends, and carry on the cause for competition and consumers.

All the best,

Jonathan M. Jacobson
