Fiduciary Duty in Practice: Considering the Best Interests of the Entire Organization

- Be sure to share your unique perspective during discussion and debate, but recognize the decision you make should be in the best interest of the entire organization.

- Once the board has made a decision, it’s the board members’ responsibility to stand behind that decision.

Questions for Reflection/Discussion

- What are some constructive ways to share my individual perspective during a discussion and debate?

- What do I need to do if I disagree with a decision made by the board?
