Stephanie M. Brinkley, Esq. is the Founding Attorney of the Brinkley Law Firm LLC in Charleston, SC. She focuses her practice on the complex area of Assisted Reproductive Technology (ART) and related legal issues impacting future families. In addition to her South Carolina Bar membership, Stephanie is 2nd Vice Chair for the ART Division under the ABA’s Family Law Section and manages its successful mentorship program. As part of her practice, Stephanie represents clients seeking to build their families through surrogacy and/or gamete donation. Consequently, she is also called upon to represent gestational carriers who have offered their services. Stephanie helps clients navigate issues related to parentage when their needs transcend to traditional family law matters of parentage, divorce, custody, and visitation.
