Building an Inclusive Workforce

Tuesday, Oct. 9
11:00 a.m - 12:30 p.m. EST
John Marshall (5th Floor)
1050 Connecticut Avenue NW, Washington, DC

In honor of National Disability Employment Awareness Month, the American Bar Association Commission on Disability Rights will host an event on this year’s theme: “America’s Workforce: Empowering All.”

Our panelists, Caleb Berkemeier, Kymberlee Dwinell and Elizabeth A. Kolbe, will share their insights on why disability inclusion is vital in today’s workplace, and how to create an inclusive environment.

Disclaimer: Attendance is voluntary. The program is being presented for educational purposes only. Any views and opinions expressed do not necessarily reflect the official view, policy, or position of the American Bar Association.