Diversity experts to speak on disability diversity and inclusion in employment on Oct. 9

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4, 2018 — Legal and industry experts will discuss the benefits of disability inclusion and how to create an inclusive environment at a program marking National Disability Employment Awareness Month hosted by the American Bar Association, Tuesday, Oct. 9 at 11 am. EST.

What: Building an Inclusive Workforce
Sponsored by the ABA Commission on Disability Rights
Co-sponsored by ABA Diversity Council

When: Tuesday, Oct. 9, 2018
11a.m. – 12:30 p.m. EST

Where: American Bar Association
John Marshall Room A & B (5th Floor)
1050 Connecticut Ave., NW
Washington, D.C. 20036

Participating in the program are Caleb Berkemeier, training specialist, Mid-Atlantic ADA Center; Kymberlee Dwinell, director of Global Diversity and Inclusion, Northrop Grumman Corporation; and Elizabeth A. Kolbe, associate, Sidley Austin LLP.

The commission continues to support its “Pledge for Change: Disability Diversity in the Legal Profession” effort. The pledge asks legal employers, judges, law schools and state and local bar associations to commit to disability diversity. To date, 231 legal entities have signed the pledge.

This event is open to members of the press at no charge. For media credentialing, please contact Betsy Adeboyejo at Betsy.Adeboyejo@americanbar.org.

With more than 400,000 members, the American Bar Association is one of the largest voluntary professional membership organizations in the world. As the national voice of the legal profession, the ABA works to improve the administration of justice, promotes programs that assist lawyers and judges in their work, accredits law schools, provides continuing legal education, and works to build public understanding around the world of the importance of the rule of law.
