ONE PERSON (N)ONE VOTE:
Gerrymandering with the Help of the Disenfranchised

Friday, February 14, 2020 | 3:15 PM – 4:45 PM CT
The Panel

• Nancy Abudu, Moderator, Deputy Legal Director of Southern Poverty Law Center
• Sean Jengwei Young, Legal Director of ACLU of Georgia
• Chad Dunn, Director of Litigation, UCLA Voting Rights Project
• James Heaton, Supervising Attorney, Mission United Veterans Pro Bono Project
Felon Disenfranchisement

- State moral turpitude standards
- Florida felon disenfranchisement lawsuit
  - Jones v DeSantis
Gerrymandering

- Prison gerrymandering
  - Davidson v City of Cranston
  - Calvin v Jefferson County, Florida
  - NAACP v Merrill
- School districts
  - Beaumont, Texas
Transient and Physical Address Issues

- Physical Address Requirements in redistricting
  - Native American impact
  - Transient Community Impact
- Photo ID with address impact access to ballots
- Challenges and solutions to increase voter registration and turnout among transient population
Possible Solutions

• Voting while incarcerated
• Students and the census
• Advocate advice to ABA members
For more information

- Nancy Abudu (Nancy.Abudu@splcenter.org)
- Sean Young (info@acluga.org)
- Chad Dunn (chad@brazilanddunn.com)
- James Heaton (jheaton@legalaid.org)