FREE LEGAL ASSISTANCE AVAILABLE FOR ARKANSAS STORM SURVIVORS

June 30, 2017 – As a result of the recent severe storms and tornadoes in Arkansas, the Arkansas Bar Association and the Young Lawyers' Section, in conjunction with FEMA, the American Bar Association Young Lawyers Division, the Center for Arkansas Legal Services, and Legal Aid of Arkansas, Red Cross, and the Arkansas VOAD, is providing free disaster legal assistance efforts to individuals that were affected by the recent storms in Benton, Boone, Carroll, Faulkner, Fulton, Jackson, Lee, Lawrence, Pulaski, Randolph, Saline, Washington, and Yell Counties. On June 28, 2017, per the request of the Governor's Authorized Representative for the State of Arkansas, the following counties were added: Prairie, White, and Woodruff. Free disaster legal assistance is now being provided for individuals who are affected by the severe storms, tornadoes, straight-line winds, and flooding which occurred in the state beginning April 26, 2017 through May 19, 2017. The number for the Young Lawyers Division Disaster Legal Assistance is 501-801-5664 and storm survivors may now call the hotline. Local legal aid providers and pro bono attorneys will be available to help with the following:

- Assistance securing FEMA and other government benefits available to disaster victims;
- Assistance with life, medical, and property insurance claims;
- Help with home repair contracts and contractors;
- Help with employment matters;
- Replacement of wills and other important legal documents lost or destroyed in the disaster;
- Consumer protections such as price-gouging and avoiding contractor scams in the rebuilding process;
- Counseling on mortgage-foreclosure problems; and
- Counseling on landlord-tenant problems.

Storm survivors may call the number, leave a message identifying the need for disaster assistance, and a volunteer attorney will return the call to answer their legal questions. The goal is to assist as many individuals affected by the storms as possible.

Major Disaster Declaration

On June 15, 2017, The U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) announced that federal disaster assistance has been made available to the State of Arkansas to supplement state, tribal and local recovery efforts in the area affected by severe storms, tornadoes, straight-line winds, and flooding during the period of April 26, 2017 through May 19, 2017. The President's action makes federal funding available to affected individuals in Benton, Boone, Carroll, Faulkner, Fulton, Jackson, Lee, Lawrence, Prairie, Pulaski, Randolph, Saline, Washington, White, Woodruff and Yell Counties. Arkansans who sustained property damage as a result of the severe storms, tornadoes, straight-line winds, and flooding are urged to register with FEMA, as they may be eligible for federal and state disaster assistance. People who sustained storm damage in the affected counties above can register for FEMA assistance online at www.DisasterAssistance.gov or via smartphone or Web-enabled device at m.fema.gov. Applicants may also call 800-621-FEMA (3362) or 1-800-462-7585 (TTY) from 7 am to 10 pm daily. Applicants should be prepared to provide basic information about themselves (name, permanent address and phone number), insurance coverage and any other information to help substantiate the loss. In addition, there is information available at www.DisasterLegalAid.org.

Beware of Fraud

Both FEMA and the Arkansas Attorney General's Office urge Arkansans to be aware of the risk of fraud and common scams in the wake of severe weather. Common post-disaster fraud practices include phony housing inspectors, fraudulent building contractors, bogus pleas for disaster donations, and fake offers of state or federal aid. Arkansans are urged to ask questions and to require identification when someone claims to represent a government agency.

Affected individuals should also keep in mind that state and federal workers never ask for or accept money and always carry identification badges with a photograph. There is no fee required to apply for or to receive disaster assistance from FEMA, the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), or the State. Additionally, no state or federal government disaster assistance agency will call to ask for your financial account information. Unless you place a call to the agency yourself, you should not provide personal information over the phone as it can lead to identity theft.

Those who suspect fraud can call the FEMA Disaster Fraud Hotline at 866-720-5721 (toll free). Complaints may also be made to local law enforcement.

Background

When the U.S. President declares a major disaster, FEMA, in cooperation with the American Bar Association Young Lawyers Division, establishes a number for disaster survivors to request legal assistance. Funding for the line comes from FEMA under the authority of Section 415 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (Public Law 100-707). The American Bar Association Young Lawyers Division in turn joins with state bar associations and other legal organizations to recruit volunteer lawyers in affected areas to handle survivors' cases. In this instance, there will be no additional expense for the federal government, because the State Bar Association is offering use of its existing line. However, victims should be aware that there are some limitations on disaster legal services. For example, assistance is not available for cases that will produce a fee (i.e., those cases where attorneys are paid part of the settlement by the court).
