Educational Programs Sneak Peek
(Includes CLE and non-CLE programs)
Summary of educational programs as of December 17, 2019. Events are listed alphabetically and are subject to change. Visit ambar.org/Spring2020 for event times and the most up-to-date schedule.

Programs to be scheduled as concurrent sessions on Thursday, April 23rd or Friday, April 24th

8 Innovative Arbitration Trends: A New Practice and Ethical Landscape

A New Approach to Law Enforcement Training in Dispute Resolution and Diversity: The Blueprint

AAA-ICDR Foundation - Innovating Conflict Resolution

Adding Value by Addressing Matters of Impact

ADR For A Modern Economy

Arbitrating Blockchain, Smart Contract and Smart Legal Contract Disputes

Arbitration Law Update - Focus on Tech and Innovation

Arbitration on the Ballot: The 2020 Election and Beyond

Are You out of Your Mind? Dealing with Obstreperous Parties, People and Positions at Mediation!

Can Freud Help? How Psychology Inspires Innovative Negotiation Strategy

Case Studies in Court-annexed Online Dispute Resolution (ODR)

Change the Neutral Selection Pool to Change the World: Address Unconscious Bias in the Selection of Neutrals with the “Ray Corollary Initiative™”

Command the Litigation Space: Becoming a More Effective Advocate in Mediation
'Decoding' Ethical Design and Practice in Resolving Smart Contract and Blockchain-Related Disputes

Deconstructing Mediation: What Behavioral Analysis can teach us about Mediation

E-Discovery and Alternative Dispute Resolution: Managing the Exchange of Electronically Stored Information in Mediations and Arbitrations

Effective Mediator Management of Strong Emotions: Facilitating Parent/Educator Collaboration in Special Education under the IDEA

Embodying Conflict Transformation – Fundamental Improvisation Competencies for Mediators

How to Help Your Clients Make Good Decisions Using Litigation Interest and Risk Assessment Techniques

Human driven, technology enhanced: 21st Century mediation practice

Innovative Approaches To Working With Experts Across Dispute Resolution Processes: What Can We Learn From Each Other?

Innovative Strategies for Developing an Inclusive Mindset for ADR

International Perspectives on Advancing Innovations in Mediation and Arbitration Around the World

Investment & Sea Disputes in South East Asia | Trends & Opportunities

Joint Session and Caucus: Survey Findings of Whether, How, and Why Mediators Use Different Approaches

Latin America ADR: the promising road to the future

Leap Of Faith: Dive Into Trust and Improvisation in Resolving Disputes

Live at the Section: Jazz's Lessons in Improvisation for Dispute Resolution
Mediating the Political Divide

Mediating with Bias: Lessons Learned at the EEOC

Neutral Analysis: A Winning Litigation Strategy

ODR and the Law - Outside the Courts

Operationalizing Online Dispute Resolution Ethical Principles in the Application of Technology to Dispute Resolution Systems and Practice

Overcoming Mediation Cultural and Language Barriers: Easier Said Than Done?

Politics, Conflict Resolution and the Evolution of Democracy

Practical Tips For Making Your Next Arbitration Hearing Better Than a Trial

Removing Barriers to the Selection of Racially Diverse Neutrals - Yes We Can!

Resolving Disputes within Different Cultures and Religions: Insights with Video

Resume Workshop for Arbitrators & Mediators: Tips, Pitfalls and Must-Haves 2020

Side Gigs for Presence and Profitability: Podcasts, Programs and Publishing to Raise Your Profile and Line Your Pockets

Special Powers of the Arbitrator

The Biography of a Mediator: Reaching toward a deeper understanding of mediation practice and its ongoing debates.

The Evolution of ADR Programs in Federal Agencies and Opportunities for Private Sector Participation
The Fourth Industrial Revolution-- Artificial Intelligence and Smart Contracts: Impacts on Construction Contracting and Project Management

The Jazz of Mediation - A to Z

The New Singapore Mediation Convention on Enforcement: Is it Good for Mediation?

Thinking Creatively about the Intersection between Mediation and Leadership

Virtual tools: Inspiration for addressing division in your community.

We Can Do More: Expanded Application of the Neutral Tool Kit for Preventing Corporate Conflict

Symposium on ADR in the Courts Programs, to be scheduled on Wednesday, April 22nd

Alternative Dispute Resolution Evaluation and Support System (ADRESS); How we Collected over 1 Million ADR Data Points and What It Tells Us

Diversity Initiatives in Court ADR

How Technology Is Increasing Access to Justice Around the World

Innovations in Appellate Mediation

Overseeing Innovative Family Court Dispute Resolution Programs

The Courts and The Community: Examining the Complex and Varied Relationship Between Community Mediation Programs and The Courts

What Attorneys and Advocates Need to Know to Maximize Result in Court ADR

What Data Should Courts Collect and Report on ADR?
Facilitated Resource Share Programs, to be scheduled on Friday, April 24th

Legal Educators' Resource Share

What I’m Reading (#8), A Resource Share

Legal Educators' Colloquium Programs, to be scheduled on Saturday, April 25th

An Important, New Role for Mediation Educators: Addressing the Law Student Mental Health Crisis Through Mediation Training and Mindfulness Instruction

Can Integrating Dispute System Design Across the Law School Curriculum Foster More Innovative and Effective Lawyers?

Can we do better? Inspiring sustainable change through mediation education

Law School Dispute Resolution Programs in Evolution

Star Wars, Negotiation, and Conflict Resolution

The Slow Professor: A Better Approach for Dispute Resolution Scholarship?

Using Immersive Technology to Transform Police-Youth Interactions

What if it’s Criminal? Teaching Negotiation, Ethics, and Realities in Criminal Plea Bargaining