CLE: Legally Stolen Lands: Impacts and Remedies for Historically Disadvantaged People

The panel explores highly vulnerable forms of home ownership and land ownership for which the UniformPartition of Heirs Property Act, adopted in 15 states and DC, is only a partial remedy. Members of minorities holding undivided property interests over many generations, caused in part by inability to receive estate planning, often cannot access mortgages due to state law requirements. Native peoples are subject to different requirements under tribal law or state law, as in Hawaii. Buying informally through contract for deed or lease to own is fraught with risk for low-income purchasers.

CLE: What do Eddie Murphy, Marilyn Monroe, and Steve Jobs Have in Common? The US Foster Care System

This program focuses on the unique ethical issues confronted by public lawyers using an engaging, interactive format. Expert panels discuss the legal challenges and barriers to successful outcomes in the foster care system. The speakers will also analyze the implications of these ethical issues when it comes to obtaining accurate census counts and redistricting, especially with respect to prison-based gerrymandering and transient populations. In addition, the parallel struggles that the ABA can play in advocating for increased ballot access and fairer state redistricting plans to protect vulnerable and marginalized communities.

CLE: Ethical Red Flags in the Public Sector

This panel examines ethical red flags, compliance requirements, and ethical character tests that continue to bar homeless people, students, and those with criminal convictions or awaiting pre-trial detention from voting. The speakers will also analyze the implications of these ethical issues when it comes to obtaining accurate census counts and redistricting, especially with respect to prison-based gerrymandering and transient populations. In addition, the parallel struggles in the foster care system that the ABA can play in advocating for increased ballot access and fairer state redistricting plans to protect vulnerable and marginalized communities.

CLE: One Person, (N)one Vote: Gerrymandering with the Help of the Disenfranchised

This panel explores highly vulnerable forms of home ownership and land ownership for which the UniformPartition of Heirs Property Act, adopted in 15 states and DC, is only a partial remedy. Members of minorities holding undivided property interests over many generations, caused in part by inability to receive estate planning, often cannot access mortgages due to state law requirements. A Fireside Chat with Don Prophete

A Frank Conversation on Diversity and Inclusion: Moving Beyond Lip Service

Over the past 20 years—general counsels have penned various open letters calling for increased diversity and inclusion measures within the legal profession. Despite these proclamations diversity within the legal profession has remained stagnant or decreased. Further, leaders in the legal community have declared these proclamations as general public relations ploys rather than genuine commitments, which commit resources and implement sincere accountability. Leaders like Don Prophete have called for an end to these empty proclamations and encouraged genuine commitments, which will yield actual results for the profession. In 2019, Prophete penned an open response to the legal profession, calling for an end to empty rhetoric and challenged the profession to put action to words.

The 2020 Diversity Dialogue Breakfast will take the form of a Fireside chat. The Fireside chat will be a candid conversation with industry leaders regarding diversity and inclusion efforts within the legal profession. During this conversation, we will discuss the importance of the legal industry’s commitment to genuine diversity and inclusion efforts. Attendees will gain an understanding of this topic and become inspired to take action in their own professional lives.

For 30 years and in more than one-hundred countries, the American Bar Association’s Rule of Law Initiative has been promoting justice, economic opportunity, and human dignity through the rule of law. This panel will explore ROLI’s work and inform ABA members about how they can get involved. Our panel will explore the impact that pro bono volunteers have on promoting the rule of law and focus on one recent case study - Tajikistan. ABA ROLI has been working in Tajikistan since 1997 to increase the capacity and professionalism of the country’s legal actors and to improve the protection of citizens’ rights. This panel will include Jody Young, Assistant US Attorney at the US Attorney’s office, Brownsville Texas, who has been doing pro-bono work with ROLI for years and recently returned from Tajikistan. Also included on the panel are Nolen Deibert, Program Manager for ABA ROLI’s Europe and Eurasia Division. Former CEELI pro-bono volunteer, Judge Judith Chirlin (TBC), will join our panel to highlight other aspects of pro-bono volunteering for ROLI. Hilarie Bass (TBC), ROLI Board Chair and President & Founder at Bass Institute for Diversity and Inclusion, will moderate the panel.

<td>From Separate But Equal to Affirmative Action: Where Are We 70 Years After Sweatt v. Painter?</td>
<td>The 70th Anniversary of the decision of the Sweatt v. Painter landmark decision, panelists will delve into the progress, or lack thereof, in advancing systemic support for aspiring African American lawyers who choose to attend law school and whether there still exists a disparity in school funding. Affirmative action is a core issue of the discussion, but so is equity in terms of school funding and/or access to public/state law schools for African American Law Students. This is a unique opportunity for an audience to become informed on the challenges to ensuring that the legal profession is as diverse as our country.</td>
