CLEARING ARRESTS, CRIMINAL CHARGES & CONVICTIONS FROM YOUR RECORD

Michigan Law for Survivors of Sex Trafficking

A new Michigan law may be able to help clear your criminal record. The law applies to convictions in the State of Michigan, if they occurred because you were the victim of trafficking. The law does not limit the number of arrests or convictions.

Prostitution convictions in connection with your trafficking can be cleared from your record. Other charges may be eligible to be cleared as well.

HOW IT WORKS

AM I ELIGIBLE?

You may be eligible if your conviction occurred because you were trafficked. Being trafficked means you were under the age of 18 engaged in prostitution, or you were coerced into prostitution by any of the following means:

- Threats of physical or financial harm
- Physical force
- Providing you controlled substances
- Controlling your money
- Isolating you from your family
- Confiscating your passport or other identification documents
- Forcing you to work off a debt
