CALL FOR ARTICLE PROPOSALS

The ABA Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources’ magazine Natural Resources & Environment will devote its Fall 2019 issue (34:2) to articles on Mining the Land, Mining the Seas. NR&E editors seek articles that explore legal and regulatory issues related to the extraction of natural resources from the Earth’s land and seas, including its impacts on the environment, people, and other living species, as well as efforts to protect and sustainably harvest the resources. NR&E editors are interested in proposals that address federal, state, tribal, and international laws and policies—including statutes, regulations, common law, and treaties—as well as articles that examine this topic in the context of litigation and disputes in international tribunals.

Suggested topics include, but are not limited to:

- Aquaculture
- Arctic/Antarctic fisheries
- Bankruptcy and environmental law
- Clean Water Act
- Critical minerals
- Desalinization
- Fracking
- Groundwater
- High seas fisheries
- Illegal, unreported, and unregulated (IUU) fishing
- Lobsters
- Magnuson-Stevens Act
- Marine Mammal Protection Act
- Marine Protected Areas
- Marine National Monuments
- Mine Safety and Health Administration
- National Marine Fisheries Service
- Occupational health
- Offshore wind power
- Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act
- Regional fisheries management organizations
- Seabed mining
- Seafood traceability
- Straddling fish
- Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act
- Tribal fishing rights
- UN Convention on the Law of the Sea
- Uranium mining
- Water pollution
- Waves
- Waters of the United States

WE ARE CURRENTLY SOLICITING AUTHORS TO CONTRIBUTE ARTICLES TO THIS ISSUE.

Please circulate this notice to members of your committee, asking any member interested in writing an article for this issue to submit a proposal describing the article’s specific topic, including why the topic is important, and how the article will relate to the theme of the issue. Authors should use this online form to submit a proposal: https://americanbar.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_8hVWNBP38mK, including full contact information and their professional employment, position, or affiliation. Upon completion, be sure to click on the “Submit” button at the bottom right on the form. Submitted forms are transmitted directly to the Issue Editor (below). Authors may also email their proposals in the body of an email to the Issue Editor, provided they supply all information requested on the proposal form. The editors seek articles covering a diverse range of topics written by a diverse range of authors. In selecting authors, strong preference will be given to Section members.

ARTICLE PROPOSALS ARE DUE BY February 19, 2019.

Article selections will be made and authors will be notified by early March. Article outlines are due by March 30, 2019, and initial article drafts are due by April 28, 2019. Authors will work with an editor from the NR&E Board throughout the publication process and will be assigned a specific word count limit within the range of 3,500-4,500 words. Articles should be written in magazine style (citations in text; no footnotes). NR&E article guidelines can be found on the ABA website at https://www.americanbar.org/content/dam/aba/publications/natural_resources_environment/nre-author-guidelines.pdf

ARTICLE PROPOSALS WILL BE SUBMITTED VIA THE QUALTRICS SURVEY FORM DIRECTLY TO THE NR&E ISSUE EDITOR:
Fred Turner at fredturner@gmail.com