Applicants must e-mail the completed entry form by April 10, 2020, to familylaw@americanbar.org, Subject: Schwab Entry in order to be assigned an entry number by the ABA. The ABA will then e-mail a copy of the form with the assigned entry number at the top. Place the number in the upper right-hand corner on each page of the essay. The contestant’s name is not to appear on any copy of the submitted essay so that judges will not know contestant’s identity. Send one (1) electronic copy of the essay and completed entry form (with signature and assigned number) to familylaw@americanbar.org, Subject: Schwab Essay Submission.

All entries must be e-mailed on or before April 24, 2020. For complete contest details, rules and regulations, visit: https://www.americanbar.org/groups/family_law/awards-initiatives/essay_contest/rules_and_entry_information/

I hereby release all rights of publication to the American Bar Association; however, with the exception of the winners of first, second and third places, respectively, such rights shall revert to each contestant after a decision about publishing in a Section publication is made.
