1.3 FINANCIAL POLICY. The Division’s Financial Policies are:

1.3.1 To create and maintain resources adequate to ensure the well-being and efficacy of the Division;

1.3.2 To adopt and implement budgetary and expenditure measures to provide products that will advance our members’ success and professional excellence;

1.3.3 To adopt and implement budgetary and expenditure measures to retain and expand our membership, provide opportunities for leadership and increase participation by our constituents;

1.3.4 To adopt and implement budgetary and expenditure measures to increase the prominence of the Division within the ABA and the profession; and

1.3.5 To maintain current products and services and create new products and services.

Article 2: Membership

2.1 MEMBERS.

2.1.1 Any Lawyer Member of the Association shall be enrolled as a Voting Member of the Division pursuant to Article 1.2.12 upon payment of the Division attorney dues or submission of a free membership application.

2.1.2 Any Associate of the Association shall be affiliated as an Associate of the Division upon payment of the Division's Associate dues. Associates have all privileges of Division membership, except they may not serve as Officers, sit on the Council or vote.

2.1.3 Any Law Student Member of the Association shall be enrolled as a Law Student Member of the Division upon submission of the membership application. Law Student Members have the privileges of Division membership as established by these Bylaws, except they may not serve as Officers, sit on the Council, or vote. Provided, however, the Law Student Division Liaison to the Division is permitted to sit on the Council as a voting member and vote at the Annual Meeting of the Division.

2.1.4 Any Student Associate of the Association shall be enrolled as a Student Associate of the Division upon payment of the Division's student associate dues. Student Associates have all privileges of Division membership as established by these Bylaws, except they may not serve as Officers, sit on the Council, or vote.

2.2 DUES. Members shall pay applicable annual Division dues as determined by the Council, subject to the approval of the Association’s Board of Governors and submit all appropriate forms necessary to membership.

2.3 TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP. Any Lawyer, Associate or Student Associate of the Division whose annual dues are more than six months past due shall cease to be a member of the Division. Any Law Student membership or free membership expires at the end of the Association’s fiscal year. Any person who ceases to be a member of the Association shall also cease to be a member of the Division concurrent with cessation of Association membership.
Article 3: Annual Meeting of the Division Membership

3.1 ANNUAL MEETING. The Division membership shall annually meet immediately before or during the Annual Meeting of the Association. The Secretary shall give electronic notice to the membership no later than 30 days before the meeting of the date, time, and place for the Annual Meeting.

3.2 QUORUM. The members of the Division present at the Annual Meeting of the Division shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Binding action shall be by a majority vote of the members present and voting at the meeting.

Article 4: Council

4.1 POWERS AND FUNCTIONS.

4.1.1 The Council shall exercise all powers and duties necessary and appropriate for carrying out the business and affairs of the Division.

4.1.2 The function of the Council is to set policy for the Division. In carrying out this function, the Council shall review and approve the annual budget, consistent with the Division's Financial Policy. The Council may authorize the expenditure of reserve funds of the Division only upon a two-thirds vote of the membership of the entire Council (pursuant to 4.2 Composition below), regardless of the number present.

4.2 COMPOSITION.

4.2.1 The Council shall consist of the following voting persons:

(i) the Chair, Chair-Elect, Vice Chair, Secretary of the Division;
(ii) the Immediate Past-Chair of the Division;
(iii) the Division Delegates to the House of Delegates;
(iv) twenty (20) Members-at-Large elected to the Council by the membership of the Division;
(v) the representative designated by the Young Lawyers Division;
(vi) the representative designated by the Law Student Division; and
(vii) the Budget Officer

4.2.2 The non-voting members of the Council shall be past Chairs of the Division, (except the Immediate Past-Chair), the Revenue Director, and the Directors.

4.2.3 All members of the Council, whether voting or nonvoting, shall be members of the Division.

4.3 QUORUM. A majority of the voting members of the Council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of Council business. Action shall be by a majority vote of the members present and voting at a Council meeting.

4.4 TERMS.

4.4.1 The term of office a Council Member-at-Large is four Association years beginning with the adjournment of the Annual Meeting of the Association during which the Member-at-Large is elected. No person shall be eligible for election as Member-at-Large if the person served as a Member-at-Large during any continuous three-year period immediately prior to the Annual Meeting election. Council members shall not be elected for successive terms, but may be nominated and elected for nonconsecutive terms.

4.4.2 The term of office of the representatives from the Young Lawyers Division and Law Student Division is one Association year beginning with the adjournment of the Annual Meeting immediately prior to their assuming office.

4.5 MEETINGS.

4.5.1 REGULAR MEETINGS. The Council shall meet not less than two times each Association year. One meeting shall be held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting of the Association. The dates and sites of other meetings shall be determined by the Chair with the advice of the Executive Committee.

4.5.2 CANCELLATION OF MEETINGS. Any meeting, except the Annual Meeting, may be canceled by the Council at any meeting preceding that meeting.

4.5.3 VOTING. Members of the Council must be present to vote.

4.5.4 ACTION WITHOUT MEETING. If a meeting of the Council is not feasible or if a meeting is canceled, the Chair of the Division may, or upon written request of five members of the Council shall, submit in writing to the members of the Council any items upon which the Council may be authorized to act. The members of the Council may vote upon the proposition, either by written ballot or by any form of telecommunication, confirmed in writing to the Secretary of the Division, who shall record the proposition and votes on the matter.

4.6 EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. The Executive Committee shall have full authority to act for the Division at all times between meetings of the Council.

4.7 COMPENSATION. No salary or compensation for services shall be paid to or for any officer, member of the Council, or member of any committee, except as may be specifically authorized by Association policy.

4.8 ABSENCES AND VACANCIES. The Secretary in his/her sole discretion may excuse a member’s absence from a meeting of Council upon written prior request and for good cause. If any member of the Council shall fail without such excuse to attend two successive meetings of the Council within an Association year, or any four meetings during the member's term, the Secretary shall so notify the Executive Committee and the member. Upon such notice from the Secretary, the member may advise the Executive Committee of the facts and circumstances regarding such absences. Upon such notice from the Secretary, the Executive Committee may (1) vote to deem the member’s seat on the Council to be vacant; (2) vote to permit the member to retain the member’s seat on the Council under certain conditions; or (3) vote to excuse all or some of the member’s absences. The member may appeal the decision of the Executive Committee to the Council by a request in writing submitted to the Secretary within seven days of the date the member is notified in writing of the decision of the Executive Committee. A Council vote on the member’s request shall commence no later than ten (10) days from the date the written appeal is received by the Secretary. Between Annual Meetings of the Division Membership, the Council may fill a vacancy occurring in a Member-at-Large seat for the remainder of the unexpired term of the vacant seat by majority vote of the Council. In the case of a vacancy in the seat of a Law Student Division representative or a Young Lawyers Division representative, the Division Chair shall request the Young Lawyers Division or Law Student Division to designate a replacement representative for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Article 5: Officers

5.1 OFFICERS. The officers of the Division shall be the Chair, the Chair-Elect, the Vice Chair, the Secretary, and the Budget Officer

5.2 CHAIR.

5.2.1 The Chair shall appoint:

(ii) preside at meetings of the Division Council and Annual Meeting of the Division Membership in the absence of the Chair and Chair-Elect;
(iii) chair the Long-Range Planning Committee;
(iv) Maintain a copy of the Division’s Long-Range Plan and annually direct the distribution of a copy of the Plan to the Division’s Officers, Directors, Board of Governors Representative, Division Delegates to the House of Delegates, Council members, and committee chairs; and
(v) perform such duties and have such powers as usually pertain to the office of Vice Chair, or as may be designated by the Chair or Council.

5.4.2 In case of death, resignation, disability or removal of the Chair-Elect, the Vice Chair shall perform the duties of the Chair-Elect as well as the duties of the Vice Chair for the remainder of the Chair-Elect’s term or disability, whichever is the shorter period. Such service shall not reduce or change the Vice Chair’s term as Chair-Elect.

5.5 SECRETARY.

5.5.1 The Secretary shall:
(i) consult with and assist all the officers of the Division in the work of the Division in the manner and to the extent requested;
(ii) be the liaison between the Division and the Association staff with respect to the retention and maintenance of books, records, papers, documents, and information in any form and other property pertaining to the work of the Division;
(iii) keep a true record of the proceedings of all meetings of the Division and of the Council and maintain and distribute, as necessary, a current copy of the committee chair orientation handbook;
(iv) perform such duties and have such powers as usually pertain to the office of Secretary, or as may be designated by the Chair or Council;
(v) serve as Council Coordinator who shall assist the Chair in developing the Council agenda and establish protocol; and
(vi) serve as the Chair of the Bylaws Committee.

5.5.2 In case of death, resignation, disability or removal of the Vice Chair, the Secretary shall perform the duties of the Vice Chair as well as the duties of the Secretary for the remainder of the Vice Chair’s term or disability, whichever is the shorter period. Such service shall not reduce or change the Secretary’s term as Vice Chair.

5.5.3 In case of death, resignation, disability, or removal of the Secretary, the remaining voting officers shall appoint a person to serve in the position of Secretary until a special election is held during which the Council shall elect a person to serve as Secretary for the remainder of the term.

5.6 BUDGET OFFICER.

5.6.1 The Budget Officer shall:
(i) aid the Officers and Council in the performance of their respective responsibilities with regard to the Financial Policy of the Division;
(ii) assist the Chair-Elect in preparing the budget for the ensuing year;
(iii) report the state of the Division finances to the Council periodically and to the Division members at the Annual Meeting of the Division;
(iv) monitor the implementation of the approved budget;
(v) keep an accurate record of the Division's funds, income, and expenditures and any documents relating to them;
(vi) Advise the officers and the Council on whether any proposed action by the officers, Council, or Division may, in his/her judgment, have a significant impact on the Division's financial condition; and
(vii) perform such duties and have such powers as usually pertain to the office of Budget Officer or as may be designated by the Officers or Council.

5.7 REVENUE DIRECTOR.

5.7.1 The Revenue Director shall:
(i) develop a structure, policies, and procedures to increase the Division's revenues and for monitoring revenue development;
(ii) monitor all sponsor relations with the Division or any part of the Division;
(iii) monitor all forms of non-dues revenue generated by or for the Division; and
(iv) perform such duties and have such powers as usually pertain for the office of Revenue Director or as may be designated by the Officers or Council.

5.8 TERMS.

5.8.1 The term of office for the Chair-Elect, Vice Chair and Secretary is one Association year, beginning with the adjournment of the Annual Meeting during which each such officer is elected.

5.8.2 With the exception of the Budget Officer, the Officers of the Division shall succeed one another, culminating with the Chair-Elect becoming Chair. Upon the adjournment of the Annual Meeting of the Association, the following automatic succession of the Officers shall take place:

(i) The Chair-Elect shall become the Chair;
(ii) The Vice Chair shall become the Chair-Elect; and
(iii) The Secretary shall become the Vice Chair.

The Chair shall become the Immediate Past-Chair (which is not an Officer) and is not eligible for nomination or election to any of the Officer positions.

5.8.3 The term of the Budget Officer is three Association years, beginning with the adjournment of the Annual Meeting one year after the Budget Officer is elected. At the adjournment of the Annual Meeting in which the Budget Officer is elected, he/she shall serve as Budget Officer-Elect unless such person has previously served as Budget Officer, in which case his/her term shall commence immediately after the adjournment of the Annual Meeting in which he/she is elected.
5.9 VACANCIES. If any officer or Division Delegate shall fail to attend two successive meetings of the Council, or the ABA House of Delegates in the case of Division Delegates, that officer's or Division Delegate's office shall be automatically vacated unless that officer or Division Delegate is excused for good cause by action or consent of the Council. In the event of any such vacancy or the inability for any reason for an officer to serve, the vacancy shall be filled pursuant to Sections 5.2 through 5.5 of these Bylaws. In the event of any such vacancy or the inability for any reason of any Division Delegate to serve, the Council shall elect a successor to serve until the end of the term of the position for which the vacancy exists. Any Division Delegate elected to fill an unexpired term shall hold all House of Delegate offices or positions held by the Delegate whose seat became vacant. If a Division Delegate prospectively knows that he or she will be unable to perform his or her responsibilities for an extended period of time, said Delegate shall inform the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall appoint an alternate Delegate to represent the Division in all respects until the return to duty of the original Delegate. At its next meeting following said appointment, Council may act to ratify or modify the alternate Delegate selection of the Executive Committee.

5.10 REMOVAL FOR CAUSE.

5.10.1 VOTE TO REMOVE FOR CAUSE. The Council may vote to remove or discharge any Officer or Council member for cause, upon a two-thirds vote of the membership of the entire Council (pursuant to 4.2 “Composition” above).

5.10.2 CAUSE DEFINED. For purposes of this paragraph, “cause” shall be defined as substantial and extreme misconduct, serious breach of responsibility or fiduciary duty and/or other similar act or acts of gross dereliction.

Article 6: Division Delegates to the House of Delegates; Division Delegate to the Nominating Committee; Division Member at Large to the Board of Governors

6.1 DIVISION DELEGATE TO THE HOUSE. In each bar year when a vacant position of Division Delegate to the House becomes available to the Division, the Council shall elect, during its first meeting of the new bar year held during the Association’s Annual Meeting, Division Delegate(s) to the House of Delegates for a three-year term commencing at the adjournment of the Annual Meeting at which the Delegate is elected. Any Division member seeking election as Division Delegate shall so inform the Division Secretary in writing at least ten (10) days prior to the beginning of the Association’s Annual Meeting. The Division Delegates shall represent the Division in the House of Delegates and in the absence of the Chair, Chair-Elect and Vice Chair, one of the Delegates shall present to the House of Delegates the report of the Division. Division Delegates to the House of Delegates shall be responsible for advocating and advancing the policy of the Division not only at the House of Delegates meetings, but also between such meetings.

6.2 DIVISION DELEGATE TO THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE. In each bar year when a vacant position of Division Delegate to the Nominating Committee becomes available to the Division, the Council shall elect, during its Fall Meeting, Division Delegate(s) to the Nominating Committee. The term commences at the adjournment of the next Annual Meeting of the Association. Any Division member seeking election as Division Delegate shall so inform the Division Secretary in writing at least ten (10) days prior to the beginning of the Council’s Fall Meeting.

6.3 DIVISION MEMBER-AT-LARGE TO THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS. In each bar year prior to a vacant position of Division Member-at-Large of the Board of Governors becoming available, the Council shall nominate a member of the Division during its Fall Meeting. The term of office is a three-year term commencing at the adjournment of the next Annual Meeting of the Association. The selection of the Division Member-at-Large shall be made by the Council with due regard for the eligibility requirements for election to the Board of Governors. Any Division member seeking election as Division Member-at-Large shall so inform the Division Secretary in writing at least ten (10) days prior to the beginning of the Council’s Fall Meeting.

Article 7: Nomination and Election of Officers and Council Members

7.1 NOMINATING COMMITTEE. At any time not later than thirty (30) days after the Annual Meeting of the Division, the Nominating Committee, consisting of five (5) members from the Division membership, shall be formed to make nominations, as necessary, for the positions of Secretary, and Council Members-at-Large. None of the members of the Nominating Committee may be a candidate for any office, a current officer, or an officer of the Division within the preceding three Association years. The Chair shall designate the first member who shall serve as chair of the Nominating Committee; the Chair-Elect shall designate the second member; the Vice Chair shall designate the third member; the Secretary shall designate the fourth member; and the Immediate Past-Chair shall designate the fifth member. When a vacancy occurs hereafter in the Nominating Committee, the Officer whose appointee has created the vacancy shall replace such vacancy.

7.2 PUBLICATION AND PROCEDURES OF NOMINATING COMMITTEE. The Chair shall, not later than thirty (30) days after the Annual Meeting of the Division, submit the names and addresses of the Nominating Committee to the GPSolo magazine for publication in its Fall issue or to any other appropriate Division publication. The Committee shall provide such applications as are necessary for completing its duties and may establish deadlines for submission of applications.

7.3 NOMINATIONS, PUBLICATIONS AND CAMPAIGN PRACTICES.

7.3.1 NOMINATING COMMITTEE NOMINEES. The Nominating Committee shall meet prior to the Midyear Meeting of the Association, and make and report one nomination for each position that is to be filled by election. The Nominating Committee shall include in the report a brief statement of each nominee's activities in the Division and in the law profession generally. The Nominating Committee shall strive to ensure strong leadership for the Division. The Committee shall submit its report to the Secretary who shall cause it to be published in a Division publication prior to the beginning of the Midyear Meeting of the Association.

7.3.2 PETITION. Nominations for the positions of Secretary, Budget Officer and Council Members-at-Large shall be made only by the Nominating Committee or by signed petition. No nominations from the floor at the Division’s Annual Meeting shall be allowed. Nominations by petition shall be signed by not less than fifty members of the Division, not more than twenty-five of whom shall be from any one state. The nomination petition shall state that the nominee has agreed to be nominated. The petition shall be sent to the Secretary of the Division and must be received by the Secretary not later than ten (10) days after the Midyear Meeting of the Association.

7.3.3 CAMPAIGN LITERATURE IN CONTESTED ELECTIONS.

(i) Unless unopposed, all candidates for Secretary or Council Member-at-Large positions nominated by the Nominating Committee or by signed petition may submit one (1) eight and a half by eleven-inch single-sided sheet of campaign literature or statement of candidacy to the Secretary for distribution by the Association

(ii) The submission shall be received by the Secretary by the close of business on June 15th preceding the Annual Meeting, or, if June 15th should occur on a Saturday, Sunday or national holiday, by the close of business on the next business day for delivery of mail, for distribution to Division Annual Meeting registrants as registered to attend on July 1st, preceding the Annual Meeting. Should the date scheduled for the Annual Meeting be changed from the month of August, the dates provided in this subdivision shall be adjusted accordingly.

7.3.4 CAMPAIGN PRACTICES. The Election Committee will administer the campaign practices set forth in these bylaws. The Election Committee will consist of one appointee from each of the following members of the Division’s Executive Committee: Chair, Chair-elect, Vice Chair, Secretary and Immediate Past Chair. No member shall serve as a member of the Election Committee and the Nominating Committee during the same association year. In the event of a contested election, (a) no member of the Executive Committee or the staff shall support or endorse a candidate, (b) except for as provided in Article 7.3.3 of these bylaws, no Division resources or resources that the Division controls shall be utilized for campaigning, endorsing, or opposing a candidate for Secretary or Council-Member-at-Large. This includes, but is not limited to funds, meetings, print or electronic publications, listservs or forums, (c) no reception or social event shall be held on behalf of a candidate, (d) no gifts, favors, or paraphernalia shall be distributed on behalf of a candidate, (e) no campaign materials will be distributed at the Annual Meeting or to any meeting registrants room, (f) a candidate may not campaign via social media websites, and (g) the only campaign material that may be distributed is set forth in Article 7.3.3 of these bylaws.

7.3.5 ENFORCEMENT AND INTERPRETATION OF CAMPAIGN PRACTICES. A violation of this Article by a candidate or by a candidate directing or permitting agents to violate this Article may constitute grounds for action against or disqualification of a candidate at the discretion of the Election Committee. The Election Committee on its own motion or at the written request of any candidate, shall promptly interpret any factual question relating to campaign practices set forth in these bylaws or investigate any complaint. In discharging their duties, the Election Committee may seek opinions or guidance from the staff or Board of Governors of the American Bar Association.

(i) DUE PROCESS. The Election Committee may, on the basis of clear and convincing evidence take action against any candidate who has violated Article 7.3.4 The Secretary shall give notice to the candidate of the alleged violation within three (3) business days of the complaint being initiated by or filed with the Election Committee. The Election Committee shall convene and issue its decision on the complaint within five business days of initiating or receiving a complaint the candidate will have an opportunity to address the complaint before the Committee either verbally or in writing. Any such investigation shall be confidential.

(ii) ACTION/DISQUALIFICATION. If it is found by the Election Committee that the candidate has violated Article 7.3.4, the Committee shall decide on the appropriate action or disqualify a candidate from the election. Any action or disqualification by the Election Committee must be reported to Council.

(iii) REVIEW. Upon written request submitted to the Secretary within three business days after the candidate has received notice of the action or disqualification by the Election Committee, he/she may request that the Council review the Committee’s decision. The Council shall review the action taken by the Elections Committee and vote to uphold or overrule their decision. The Council vote must be taken within five business days after the candidate’s request for review. If the decision is overruled, the complaint will be referred back to the Election Committee for further action.

7.4 ELECTION AND VOTING PROCEDURES.

7.4.1 ELECTIONS. All elections for Secretary and Council Members-at-Large shall be held at the Annual Meeting of the Division, except special elections to fill vacancies that may occur. The election of the Budget Officer shall take place at the 2021 Annual Meeting and every third Annual Meeting thereafter. Electronic Notice shall be provided to all “Voting Members” no less than 30 days in advance of such election. The time, place and date of the election shall be included in the notice. The Chair shall vote in an election only for the purpose of breaking a tie.

7.4.2 CONTESTED ELECTIONS PROCEDURE. Elections for all contested positions shall be by secret ballot. If a petition is filed pursuant to 7.3.2, the election for Council Member-at-Large positions shall become an election at-large. The candidates receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected to the Council Member-at-Large positions that are vacant. It shall not be required to vote for each vacant Council seat. Separate elections for Secretary and Budget Officer shall be decided by a plurality of the votes cast in the election for such office. If an election for Secretary, Budget Officer or Council Member-at-Large position results in a tie vote and the number of tied candidates exceeds the number of available positions to be elected, the newly-elected Council, excluding all tied positions to be filled in the election, shall have the authority to resolve the tie and to elect the candidate(s) from among the tied candidates to fill the available position(s).

All Officers shall serve as ex-officio voting members of the Long-Range Planning Committee. The Budget Officer shall be an ex-officio voting member of the Long-Range Planning Committee.

Article 9: Representation of Association Position

Any action by this Division must be approved by the House of Delegates or by the Board of Governors of the Association before the action can be effective as the action of the Association. Any resolution or recommendation adopted or action taken by the Division, which is intended to be effective as an action of the Association, shall be reported by the Chair or Division Delegate to the House of Delegates or to the Board of Governors for action by the Association.

Article 10: Amendments

These Bylaws may be amended at any Annual Meeting of the Division by a majority vote of the Voting Members of the Division present, provided that any proposed amendment is first approved by a majority of the Council and provided further that no amendment will become effective until approved by the Board of Governors of the Association. Notice of an intention to amend these Bylaws at an Annual Meeting of the Division must be given to the membership no later than 60 days prior to the opening of the Annual Meeting of the Association.

Article 11: Parliamentary Authority

The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the parliamentary authority of the Division.
