U.S. Immigration Systems during COVID 19

Guadalupe Perez
With offices in Chicago, Indiana, California and Washington, D.C., Heartland Alliance's National Immigrant Justice Center is a nongovernmental organization dedicated to ensuring human rights protections and access to justice for all immigrants, refugees, and asylum seekers through a unique combination of direct services, policy reform, impact litigation, and public education.
Detained v. Non-detained Court

- Detained court continued to hold hearings.
USCIS suspended all in-person services, which included field office interviews, asylum office interviews, and biometric appointments.
COVID 19 Immigration Bans

March 20, 2020: Trump administration sealed the U.S Border.

April 22, 2020: Prevents family reunification for those with pending petitions abroad.

June 22, 2020: Extends the “freeze” on green cards and work visas.
