“During this global health crisis, the Hispanic Commission is committed to providing helpful, accurate resources to support our members as they continue to serve the Hispanic community across the country.”

BIO:

Jessica A. Massey is an Assistant United States Attorney at the U.S. Department of Justice, focusing on the prosecution of narcotics, firearm, and violent crime offenses. Prior to this role, she conducted corruption and fraud investigations in-house at Walmart, Inc., and was a state prosecutor in Massachusetts for over eleven years. She currently serves on the American Bar Association's Commission on Hispanic Legal Rights and Responsibilities and is the National Vice-President of Regions and Affiliates at the Hispanic National Bar Association.