ABA Policies Organized by the Manifestations of Poverty

1. Substandard and unaffordable housing and homelessness
   - Implementation of the Human Right to Adequate Housing (August 2013)
   - Affordable Housing Trust Fund (February 2005)
   - Comprehensive measures to address Homelessness (August 1995)
   - Expanding the Federal Definition of Homelessness (August 2006)

2. Disproportionate involvement in criminal and civil justice systems
   - Decriminalization of Homelessness (February 2007)
   - Runaway and Homeless Youth Act (February 2010)
   - Principles for Homeless Courts (August 2006)
   - Principles for Veterans Treatment Courts (February 2010)
   - Youth Who Age Out of Foster Care (August 2007)

3. Food inadequacy
   - The Human Right to Adequate Food and Nutrition (February 2014)

4. Inadequate healthcare and poor health outcomes
   - Principles for Veterans Treatment Courts (February 2010)
   - Medical-Legal Partnerships (August 2007)
   - Medicaid Eligibility (August 2007)
   - Medicaid Coverage Expansion (February 1990)

5. Inadequate education outcomes
   - Postsecondary Education by Youth in Foster Care (August 2012)
   - School Discipline/Zero tolerance Policies (February 2001)

6. Lack of opportunity for full employment at a living wage
   - Opportunities for Youth in the Juvenile or Criminal Justice Systems. (February 2010)
   - Due Process and Access to Legal Assistance in Workplace Enforcement Actions (February 2009)
   - Employment of People with Convictions (February 2007)
• Youth Jobs Program (February 1993)
• Rights of Farmworkers (August 1999)
• Discrimination on the basis of Homeless Status (August 1986)

7. Living through an unending and continuous cycle of crises

• Legal Assistance to Prisoners Regarding Family Law Issues (February 2010)
• Legal Assistance to low-income residents affected by major disasters (August 2009)

8. Lack of personal and physical safety

• Non-discrimination against victims of domestic violence (August 2007)
• Non-discrimination against victims of domestic violence (February 2003)
• Tolerance and Anti-Bias Education (August 2002)
• School Discipline/Zero tolerance Policies (February 2001)

9. Stigma and lack of personal dignity

• Collateral Consequences for Youth in the Juvenile or Criminal Justice Systems (February 2010)
• Tolerance and Anti-Bias Education (August 2002)
• Permanent Residence (August 2002)

10. Isolation from community and political infrastructure

• Voting Rights for persons with disabilities (August 2014)
• Voting Rights for persons experiencing homelessness (August 1993)
• Voting by persons with disabilities (August 2007)
• Permanent Residence for certain noncitizens (August 2002)