The Commission on Homelessness and Poverty and the Criminal Justice Section invite you to a free luncheon to

ADVOCATE FOR SURVIVORS:
TRAFFICKING OF HOMELESS/AT-RISK YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS IN THE BAY AREA AND HOW LAWYERS CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

FRIDAY, AUGUST 9TH, 12:30PM – 2:00PM
WESTIN ST. FRANCIS, EAST ROOM, 12TH FL
SAN FRANCISCO, CA

Nola Brantley, Nationally Acclaimed Advocate and Survivor
Lucia Murillo, Supervising Attorney, Children’s Law Center of California
Palmer Buchholz, Attorney, Bay Area Legal Aid
Amba Johnson, Director, DreamCatcher Program, Covenant House California
Moderator Darla Bardine, Executive Director, National Network for Youth

An estimated 4.2 million young people experience homelessness annually, including 800,000 youth who are victims of sex or labor trafficking. Join survivors, attorneys and national advocates as they discuss the trafficking of youth in the Bay Area and across the country. Learn about the wide range of legal needs, related law and policy, gaps in legal services, and how you can get involved full time or pro bono to advocate for survivors!

Cosponsors:
Center on Public Interest Law
Center on Pro Bono
Center on Children and the Law
Commission on Youth at Risk
Civil Rights and Social Justice Section