<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Service Provider</th>
<th>Services Offered</th>
<th>Populations served (and restrictions)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Texas Rio Grande Legal Aid: Texas Foster Youth Justice Project</td>
<td>Texas Rio Grande Legal Aid:  - Economic and social justice (consumer protection, guardianship, reentry, civil litigation)  - Disaster assistance  - Domestic violence and family law (protective orders, divorce, custody)  - Housing (public housing, private landlord-tenant, homeless prevention, fair housing)  - Individual rights (disability rights, education and special education, immigration and human trafficking, juvenile justice, LGBTQ rights, mental health)  - Employment (discrimination, unpaid wages, workers’ compensation, retaliation, farmworkers and migrant workers)  - Public benefits (health law, homeless advocacy, veteran’s advocacy)  - Victims’ rights (survivors of sexual assault)</td>
<td>Texas Rio Grande Legal Aid: clients must meet income and immigration-status requirements; serves any age in any county in specified service area (LASSA project serves clients in a total of 182 Texas counties from the panhandle to the border)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Texas Foster Youth Justice Project (of Texas Rio Grande Legal Aid): clients must meet income and immigration-status requirements; serves any age in any county in Texas; serves current and former foster youth and certain unaccompanied youth | assault [LASSA], survivor-centered economic advocacy, services to family violence centers and rape crisis centers)
• Public defender program (in certain counties only)

Texas Foster Youth Justice Project (of Texas Rio Grande Legal Aid):
• Getting a copy of one’s own CPS record
• Going to CPS hearings
• Letting the court know what you think about where you live, go to school, and other care and services you’re receiving while in foster care
• Having a say in what medication you take and making medical decisions
• Getting a Texas ID card, original birth certificate, and social security card
• Getting Former Foster Youth benefits: college tuition and other funds to help with getting an education and training, money
• Immigration
• Getting into programs and training to help transition out of foster care to living on your own
• Staying in contact with siblings
• Name and/or gender marker change
• Emancipation
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Region: East Texas</th>
<th>Sealing juvenile records or expunging criminal records</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Lone Star Legal Aid

1415 Fannin
Houston, TX 77002

1714 E. 29th Street
Bryan, Texas 77802
979-775-5050

800-733-8394; 713-652-0077

www.lonestarlegal.org

Serves 72 counties of east Texas and 4 counties of southwest Arkansas, including Austin, Brazos, Burleson, Fayette, Grimes, Lee, Leon, Madison, Robertson, Washington

Type of program: Legal services organization

- Legal clinics
- Public benefits
- Landlord/tenant, other housing
- Seal/expunge records, court fines/fees, warrants, sex offender registration issues
- Domestic violence/protective orders
- Credit/debt/identity theft issues
- Accessing child welfare system and/or extended foster care (for the youth, not their child)
- Child custody, child support, parenting plans, CPS defense
- Obtaining ID documents (unrelated to name/gender change)
- Changing name and/or gender marker on ID documents
- Immigration
- Education
- Emancipation
- Other

All ages
Clients must meet income guidelines
Cannot serve undocumented individuals (unless some narrow exceptions apply: crime victims, human trafficking, etc.)

Juvenile and Capital Advocacy Project Legal Practice, University of Houston Law Center

www.jcaptexas.org

713-743-1011

Serves:
Harris County (parts of Houston); occasionally

- Juvenile record sealing
- Adult record expungement
- Guardian ad litem representation for dual status youth (pre- and post-adjudication).

- Individuals with juvenile records (even if they are now legal adults)
- Individuals with adult/criminal records
- Dual status youth (child welfare & criminal justice system)
- Adult record expungement
surrounding counties (Brazoria, Galveston) if there is also a Harris County record

Law School Clinic with services available year-round