Where Are We and Where Are We Headed? US Copyright in Review

Are we headed towards the next great Copyright Act—with the Register of Copyright’s call for copyright revision, what does this mean for the future of copyright law? The program will first start by examining the history of copyright revision, since the enactment of the Copyright Act of 1976. Panelists will then address the current plea for copyright revision and the House Judiciary Committee’s copyright review hearings and if legislative development is on the horizon. Specific copyright revision proposals that are currently being drafted by various governmental, industry and academic groups for consideration will be highlighted. The conclusion will highlight differing views surrounding where the future of copyright law is headed.

1:45 – 3:15 pm

CLE PROGRAMS - THREE CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Lights, Camera, IP: IP in Popular Culture

Intellectual property often takes a guest star turn in popular culture, but the close up is not always in focus. Portrayals of patent, trademark, and copyright law in television shows, movies, books, comics and other media will be highlighted. The legal matters involved, and the accuracy of these portrayals will be reviewed in an interactive discussion among IP law professionals.

SPEAKERS:
Adrienne Fields, Artists Rights Society, New York, NY
Matthew P. Hintz, Servilla Whitney LLC, Iselin, NJ
David Postolski, West Orange, NJ

Latest Developments in Trade Secret and Non-Compete Law

Experienced in-house and outside counsel will discuss recently passed trade secret legislation in Texas, New Jersey, and other jurisdictions, as well as the recent efforts to create a federal civil cause of action for trade secret theft. Panelists will review recent cases on pleading standards, identification requirements, summary judgment, and damages. Best practices for protecting trade secrets from the in-house perspective, as well as the latest cases addressing reasonable secrecy measures will also be addressed. The ABA-IPL Trade Secrets Committee will also provide the audience with its annual survey of the latest developments in Trade Secrets Law.

Inequitable Conduct, Ethics and Emerging Issues for Patents and Patent Practitioners (Ethics)

The Patent Office has its own ethical rules for those that practice in the patent and trademark areas. The America Invents Act and recent developments continue to influence the evolution of ethical patent practice and potential pitfalls. Violations of those rules carry stiff penalties and can result in loss of patent rights. Panelists will discuss current trends in inequitable conduct and new techniques to remedy these issues. Recent case law and strategies will be examined to minimize the risk to patent portfolio rights and patent practitioners.

MODERATOR:
Thomas Franklin, Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP, Denver, CO

Stolen Art?: Who Owns the Art Hanging on the Wall?

From art stolen as part of Nazi-era looting to difficulties of identifying chain of title to Native American artifacts, the number of legal disputes involving works of art continues to grow. Panelists will explore the “spoils of war” and other legal theories in recent cases including, the increased risks for legal liability and reputational loss for galleries and museums, the provenance policies needed to assure proper chain of title to art collections, and the recent efforts by the German government to ease the return of art stolen during World War II.

CLE PROGRAMS - THREE CONCURRENT SESSIONS

The Supreme Court Speaks on Crucial Patent Topics: Alice Corporation, Limelight and Nautilus

In 2014, the US Supreme Court considered three important patent cases that will likely have profound effects on how patent practitioners practice patent law for years to come. Alice Corporation v. CLS Bank addresses the type of technology that is patent-eligible, Limelight v. Akamai is directed to the standard for induced infringement and Nautilus v. Biosig concerns when a claim is invalid for lack of clarity. Panelists will discuss these decisions and offer practice tips for navigating the new playing field laid down by the Court.

MODERATOR:

Daryl L. Joseffer, King & Spalding, Washington, DC
John M. Whealan, George Washington University Law School, Washington, DC

Dress Up Your Brand: Litigating and Managing Trade Dress Portfolios across Different Industry Sectors

Whether it's a packaging design that stands out, a unique product shape, or in-store décor, trade dress rights play an increasingly important role in distinguishing and promoting a brand. Panelists will provide an overview of unique issues related to preparing a trade dress case for trial, including proving distinctiveness, designing a consumer survey, and presenting your case to a jury. From tires to athletic gear to consumer goods, this program will examine managing a variety of trade dress portfolios across different industry sectors.

Ethics of Engaging in Cloud Computing and Social Media (Ethics)

Social media is a hot discovery. It's fun, fast-paced, and allows you to connect with colleagues and clients in an instant. And for IP lawyers, it levels the marketing playing field, allowing you to display your work for developing a network of connections, at a fraction of the cost. With all of the cool features, there are ethical and legal landmines to avoid. Panelists will conduct a thought-provoking discussion on the ethics of engaging in cloud computing and social media.

For a full description of IPCENTRAL events and programs, visit www.ambar.org/IPCentral2014. Additional registration packages and à la carte tickets for Magnitude360 and the ABA events are available online at www.ambar.org/annual.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

To register, visit the ABA Annual Meeting website at www.ambar.org/annual. Housing, registration, tour and event tickets can all be accommodated through online registration.

Badges and pre-ordered tickets will be available with your registration packets onsite at the ABA main registration in the Exhibition Hall D, 2nd Level, Hynes Convention Center, during ABA registration hour and at the satellite registration desk at the Boston Marriott Copley Place Hotel.

Tickets may also be purchased onsite at the registration desks. Note that ticket availability may be limited and may sell out, so order your tickets in advance. Tickets will not be available at the door of the events.

Checks and money orders must be drawn on a US bank and in US dollars, made payable to ABA/CDS. For registration and event ticket information, call CDS at (800) 915-9801, Monday through Friday, 9:00 am to 5:00 pm EDT. Registration, hotel reservations and requests for tickets cannot be accepted by phone. To make changes to or add additional items to an existing registration, send an email message to abanet@xpressreg.net. Please include your CDS Badge ID number on all correspondence.

ABA CANCELLATION & REFUND POLICY

A nonrefundable processing fee of $50 will be deducted from all registration fees for cancellations. All cancellation requests must be submitted in writing according to the procedures outlined below.

Written requests for cancellations received on or before August 7, 2014, may be sent by email to abanet@xpressreg.net; by fax to (508) 743-9602 or by mail to ABA/CDS/Travel Planners, 107 Waterhouse Road, Bourne, MA 02532.

After August 7, 2014, written cancellations may be sent by email to meetingsandtravel@americanbar.org; by fax to (312) 988-6338; or by mail to the ABA Meetings and Travel Department, 321 North Clark Street, 16th Floor, Chicago, IL 60654. Please include your Badge ID number on all correspondence. All cancellation requests must be accompanied by an explanation for cancellation.

No cash refunds will be made on-site in Boston. Credit card refunds will be processed after the meeting and may take up to two billing cycles to appear on your statement. Requests for cash or check refunds on-site at the Annual Meeting will be processed after the conclusion of the meeting.

Individual tickets to ABA events are refundable up to 72 hours prior to the event.

HOUSING

In order to make your hotel reservation at the ABA negotiated rate, you must first register. A list of official ABA hotels, rates, amenities and locations can be found at www.ambar.org/annual.

IPCENTRAL HOTEL

Boston Marriott Copley Place Hotel
110 Huntington, Ave.
Boston, MA 02216
(617) 236-5800

The ABA has appointed CDS/Travel Planners as the registration and housing vendor for the 2014 Annual Meeting in Boston. Reservation requests will be directed to Travel Planners by registering online at www.ambar.org/annual. Please indicate your first, second and third hotel choice. If your preferred hotel choices are unavailable, Travel Planners will be happy to place you on a wait-list for one of your choices. Please call Travel Planners at (800) 221-3531 or send an email message to res@tphousing.com stating your wish to be wait-listed. Wait-list reservations will be confirmed on a first-come, first-served basis and as cancellations are received.

CDS/Travel Planners will acknowledge your reservation request in writing within 72-hours (3 business days) of receipt of your ABA registration. Hotels will be confirmed on a first-come, first-served basis. Choice of accommodations will become more limited as the deadline for registration approaches.

A credit card with a valid expiration date (August 31, 2014 or later) is required to guarantee your hotel reservation. If an invalid card is provided, we will not be able to reserve a hotel room for you. A customary one night's deposit may be charged to your credit card days before your arrival (depending on hotel policies). Please consult your housing confirmation, which you will receive from CDS/Travel Planners, the official ABA Registration and Housing Bureau, for your hotel's specific policy.

To change/cancel your hotel reservation, prior to July 30, 2014, contact Travel Planners by email at res@tphousing.com or by phone at (800) 221-3531. After July 30, all requests for changes/cancellations must be directed to the hotel. If you are cancelling your reservation, all cancellations must be made 72 hours prior to your scheduled arrival date. Failure to cancel prior to 72 hours or failure to check-in on the scheduled arrival date will result in a one night's room and tax charge to the credit card provided.

The advance housing deadline is Wednesday, July 16, 2014, 5:00 pm Central Time. After July 16, reservations will be made as space is available.

For housing and hotel specific questions, please call Travel Planners at (800) 221-3531, Monday – Friday, 9:00 am to 7:00 pm EDT.

CLE INFORMATION

In order to be eligible for CLE credit, all attendees must register at www.ambar.org/annual and select the appropriate registration package (see page 15).

ABA-IPL Section CLE programs on Thursday, August 7 and Friday, August 8 will take place at the Boston Marriott Copley Place Hotel - IPCENTRAL. For a complete listing of the ABA-IPL Section CLE Programs, please visit www.ambar.org/IPCENTRAL2014. Attendees have the option to either purchase a CLE All Access Pass (includes 6 CLE programs) or individual CLE Program Tickets. Discounted CLE All Access Pass and individual CLE Program Tickets will be available for academic practitioners, registered government lawyers and judges. Law Student registrants will be admitted to all CLE programs at no additional charge. Admittance to each CLE program will require one individual program ticket OR the CLE All Access Pass. If you purchase a CLE All Access Pass, purchasing individual CLE Program Tickets is NOT necessary.

The ABA directly applies for and ordinarily receives CLE credit for ABA programs in AK, AL, AR, AZ, CA, CO, DE, GA, GU, HI, IA, IL, IN, KS, KY, LA, MN, MS, MO, MT, NM, NV, NY, NC, ND, OH, OK, OR, PA, SC, TN, TX, UT, VT, VA, VI, WA, WI, and WV. These states sometimes do not approve a program for credit before the program occurs. This course is expected to qualify for 9 CLE credit hours (including 3 ethics hours) in 60-minute states, and 10.8 credit hours (including 3.6 ethics hours) in 50-minute states. This transitional program is approved for both newly admitted and experienced attorneys in NY. Attorneys may be eligible to receive CLE credit through reciprocity or attorney self-submission in other states. For more information about CLE accreditation in your state, visit www.americanbar.org/cle or contact the Section's Meetings Assistant at (312) 988-6268 or porscha.boyd@americanbar.org.

ABA Magnitude360 will offer CLE Showcase Programs on Saturday, August 9 and Sunday, August 10 at the Hynes Convention Center. For a complete listing of CLE programs during ABA Magnitude360, please visit www.ambar.org/annual. Attendees have the option of purchasing the ABA Magnitude360 Value Package, which includes the CLE Showcase Programs or the option of purchasing individual CLE Showcase Program tickets (max of 3 tickets). Discounted ABA Magnitude 360 Value Package and individual CLE Showcase Program tickets will be available for registered government lawyers and judges. A Discounted ABA Magnitude 360 Value Package will be available for law students. Admittance to each CLE Showcase Program will require the ABA Magnitude 360 Pass OR one individual CLE Showcase Program ticket. If you purchase an ABA Magnitude360 Value Package, purchasing individual CLE Showcase Program tickets is NOT necessary.

In accordance with the American Bar Association policy, all ABA programs are open to media unless they are to conduct business sessions of a confidential nature.
