2019 ABA-IPL Annual Meeting and 34th Intellectual Property Law Conference

About the ABA Section of Intellectual Property Law: Since 1894, the Section has advanced the development of intellectual property laws, and their fair and just administration. As the forum for rich perspectives and balanced insight on the full spectrum of IP law, the Section, of nearly 20,000 members serves as the ABA voice—within the profession, before policymakers and with the public.

About the Conference: The 2019 ABA-IPL Annual Meeting and 34th Intellectual Property Law Conference, is a gathering of the foremost authorities covering the most current topics in IP law. Recognized for its national and international scope and preeminent programming, the conference attracts between 700 – 800 attendees annually. This year the conference will be held at:

Crystal Gateway Marriott Hotel
Arlington, VA
April 10-12, 2019

Meeting the CLE needs of IP practitioners, this year’s conference contains two days of comprehensive CLE programming featuring prominent speakers that include in-house counsel, private practitioners, academics, the federal judiciary, and government agency officials.

Attendee Profile: Attendance at Section conferences; includes: corporate in-house counsel, government officials, interest groups or academics, and practitioners in private practice, either in large firm settings, or specialty IP law firms. Attendees are primarily U.S. practitioners, although foreign lawyers, from nations including Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, China, Colombia, France, Germany, Greece, Guernsey Channel Islands, India, Japan, Mexico, Paraguay, Qatar, South Korea, Switzerland, United Kingdom, and Venezuela have attended past conferences.

A Sponsorship with the ABA-IPL Section Provides Opportunities for:

Marketing to an influential and exclusive audience of IP law practitioners who are the primary decision-makers for the purchase and use of legal, and legal support, services;

Increasing your visibility through direct contact with leading IP law practitioners and opinion-makers while highlighting and reinforcing your organization’s position as an industry leader;

Gaining maximum exposure through recognition within the meeting brochure, monthly e-mails, and the website, reaching approximately 45,000 IP practitioners worldwide;

Enhancing your organization’s name and reputation, and differentiating your organization from your competitors, by associating with one of the most respected and largest IP law associations in the world;

Building long-term relationships with key industry leaders and groups, by taking advantage of substantial networking opportunities offered; and Supporting diversity and inclusion. The ABA-IPL Section is committed to fostering an atmosphere of inclusion to facilitate and encourage the recruitment and retention of diverse lawyers to the IP profession. Through a strategic and action-oriented plan to advance diversity-related initiatives, the conference and its events, brings the chance to jointly embrace the principle of diversity and bring it to the forefront of the profession.
