About the Speakers...

Sally Abel
Fenwick & West LLP
Mountain View, CA

Brian Ainsworth
Price Heneveld
Grand Rapids, MI
Brian Ainsworth is a partner of Price Heneveld LLP in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Brian worked as a professional pilot before obtaining two Bachelor of Science degrees in Mechanical Engineering and Engineering Business Management, both from Michigan State University. He then worked as an engineer in the die cast industry before receiving his J.D. from Wayne State University Law School in Detroit, Michigan. Brian’s practice emphasizes counseling U.S. and worldwide clients on patent and trademark prosecution, opinion work, product development, product clearance, and developing and managing global intellectual property portfolios. His experience includes a background in furniture components and systems, heavy-duty vehicle systems, photonics, fiber optic designs and systems, and automotive components.

Erich Andersen
Microsoft
Los Angeles, CA
Erich Andersen is Corporate Vice President and Deputy General Counsel at Microsoft with responsibility for leading the company’s Intellectual Property Group. He joined Microsoft in 1995 and has worked very closely with the Microsoft business groups over the years on legal, regulatory, technical and policy issues, handling many strategic relations with partners. Andersen has traveled extensively in Europe and Asia during his time with the company and was based in Paris, France from 2006 – 2009, where he led the EMEA legal and government affairs team. He previously held the positions of Vice President and Deputy General Counsel for the company’s Office and Windows product divisions and has worked closely with Paul Maritz, Jeff Raikes, Bob Muglia and Steven Sinofsky among others. Before joining Microsoft, Andersen served as a law clerk for Judge Diarmuid F. O’Scannlain of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and James P. Churchill of the United States District Court. He began his law practice with Davis Wright Tremaine in Seattle, Washington. Andersen graduated from the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) in 1986 and from the UCLA School of Law in 1989, where he served as Chief Managing Editor of the law review.

Andrea Bauer
IBM
Los Angeles, CA
Ms. Andrea Bauer-Barbuto is a Senior IP Attorney with IBM. She specializes in intellectual property law including: patents, copyright, licensing, and open source. Ms. Bauer-Barbuto has been a member of IBM’s patent portfolio group, managing and supporting IBM’s extensive worldwide patent holdings. She received her Juris Doctor from Santa Clara University of Law in 2005, and graduated with honors from the University of Western Ontario in 2002 with a B.S. in Computer Science and specialization in Software Engineering. She has been a highly respected member of the State Bar of California since 2005, a Registered Patent Attorney with the US Patent and Trademark Office since 2006, and a member of The Upper Canada Law Society Ontario Bar since 2009.

Linden Bierman Lytle
Viacom Media Networks
Marina Del Rey, CA
Linden Bierman-Lytle is a Vice President in Business and Legal Affairs for Viacom Media Networks in their Hollywood office. She currently focuses on unscripted and scripted television development and production for Viacom’s new Paramount Network (formerly Spike), CMT and TV Land and previously handled development and production for MTV and VH1. Prior to working at Viacom, Ms.
Bierman-Lytle was the Vice President for MGM/Mark Burnett Productions in Business and Legal Affairs handling shows like “Shark Tank” and “The Voice”. Ms. Bierman-Lytle earned her J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law and her B.A. from the University of Southern California’s School of Cinema-Television. She is admitted to practice in California.

Enrica Bruno
Steinfl + Bruno
Pasadena, CA
Enrica Bruno is a U.S. Patent Attorney and European Patent Attorney, Co-Chair of AIPLA IPP in Europe Committee and CEIPI tutor. Enrica has extensive professional experience in Europe and the U.S. managing world-wide patent portfolios, developing intellectual property strategies for protecting companies’ technology, preparing and prosecuting national and PCT patent applications before the U.S. and European Patent Office, prosecuting patents in other countries, due diligence, litigation support, and drafting agreements relating to various areas of intellectual property. Enrica is admitted to the State Bar of California, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, and the Italian Patent and Trademark Office. She has been admitted to practice law in Italy and before the European Patent Office. Enrica earned both a Laurea Specialistica (Masters Equivalent) degree in Biology and the equivalent of a Juris Doctorate both issued by the Italian University System (Università degli Studi di Palermo).

Jonathan Burns
Google
San Francisco, CA
Jonathan B. Burns is a patent counsel at Google Inc. in San Francisco, California. He earned his J.D., magna cum laude, in 2006 from the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law, and his B.A. in Chemistry and Computer Science in 2001 from DePauw University. He is admitted to practice in Indiana, Washington DC, and is a registered in-house counsel in California.

John Cabeca
Silicon Valley USPTO
San Jose, CA
As the Regional Director of the West Coast United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), John Cabeca carries out the strategic direction of the Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of the USPTO, and is responsible for establishing and leading the USPTO’s west coast regional office located in Silicon Valley. Focusing on the region and actively engaging with the community, Mr. Cabeca ensures the USPTO’s initiatives and programs are tailored to the region’s unique ecosystem of industries and stakeholders. A veteran of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office for over 28 years, Mr. Cabeca previously served as the Senior Advisor to the Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of the USPTO. In this role, he worked closely across the Agency’s leadership to implement the policies and priorities for the USPTO. He began his career at the USPTO as a patent examiner after graduating from Widener University with a bachelor’s degree in electrical engineering. Mr. Cabeca became a Supervisory Patent Examiner in 1997 and joined the Senior Executive Service in 2008 serving as a Patent Technology Center Director over the semiconductor and electrical systems technologies.

Mr. Cabeca has dedicated much of his career to the USPTO’s outreach and education programs focusing on small businesses, startups and entrepreneurs. Over the years, he served in the Office of Petitions, the Office of Patent Legal Administration, the Office of Governmental Affairs and the Office of the Under Secretary. In 2006, Mr. Cabeca was appointed a Department of Commerce Science and Technology Fellow and served on special assignment to the Executive Office of the President in the United States Trade Representative’s Office. At USTR, he worked with multiple agencies on a variety of international intellectual property rights issues and played an integral role in the Free Trade Agreement negotiations with the Republic of Korea.

Rodney Caldwell
Pirkey Barber
Rodney Caldwell has practiced in the intellectual property field since 1970. His practice has been concentrated in the litigation of trademark and related intellectual property matters, alternative dispute resolution, and counseling, including advice on trademark licensing, franchising, and intellectual property/antitrust matters. He has represented large, mid-sized, and small business clients and has broad experience in litigation of trademark, trade secret, and related unfair competition matters. For more than twenty years, Rodney has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America under the Intellectual Property Law specialty. He also has been listed as one of the world’s leading trademark lawyers in Euromoney Legal Media Group’s Guide to the World’s Leading Trademark Practitioners. Prior to beginning his law practice, Rodney was a project engineer for the Apollo Spacecraft Program of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration in Houston, Texas, from 1962 to 1970, and he served on active military duty at Patrick Air Force Base (Cape Canaveral), Florida, with the Ballistic Missile Division of the United States Air Force from 1959 to 1962.

Bernard Cassidy
Juno Therapeutics
Seattle, WA
Bernard J. “Barney” Cassidy is the general counsel of Juno Therapeutics, Inc., which is developing cancer treatments that genetically engineer patients’ T cells (a type of white blood cell) to better recognize and kill certain cancer cells that otherwise evade immune surveillance. Barney received his J.D. from Harvard Law School, where he was an editor of the Harvard Law Review and research assistant to Professor Arthur R. Miller (focused on Federal Practice and Procedure), and later clerked for the Honorable John T. Noonan of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Barney practiced law at both Skadden, Arps and at Wilson, Sonsini, where on a pro bono basis he led the medical and mental health elements of a class action on behalf of Pelican Bay State Prison inmates that successfully challenged the constitutionality of prison conditions in the landmark case of Madrid v. Gomez, 889 F.Supp. 1146 (N.D. Cal. 1996). Barney also served as general counsel of two high tech public companies in Silicon Valley. He has testified twice before Congress on patent policy and is frequently invited to speak about the perspective of inventors within our innovation economy.

Ann Chaitovitz
USPTO
Lima, Peru
Ann Chaitovitz is the intellectual property (IP) attaché based in Lima, Peru. She advises U.S. government personnel and national IP offices, and coordinates the USPTO’s activities in Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, and Peru. She has more than 20 years of experience representing songwriters, publishers, recording artists, the U.S. government, and digital technology companies on music, technology, and copyright matters. Prior to arriving in Lima, Ann specialized in domestic and international copyright law as an attorney-advisor at the USPTO, where she handled copyright and related rights issues in various international regions. She holds degrees from Amherst College (B.A., cum laude) and New York University School of Law.

Cheryl Chang
Blank Rome
Los Angeles, CA

Kimberly Chotkowski
Licensing Executive Society
Philadelphia, PA

Rich Christiansen
Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP
San Diego, CA
Rich Christiansen is a senior associate at Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP in San Diego, California. Rich focuses his practice on patent prosecution and counseling, and transactional intellectual property. This practice covers a broad range of technologies, including electronics, medical devices, software, clean technology, and mechanical devices. Rich is a member of Licensing Executives Society and the American Intellectual Property Law Association. Rich earned his J.D. from New York University in 2009 and his B.S. in mechanical engineering from Brigham Young University. Rich is admitted to practice in California and is a registered U.S. Patent attorney.

Morgan Chu
Irell & Manella LLP
Los Angeles, CA

David Cohen
Kidon IP Corporation
David L. Cohen, is the President of DLCIP Corporation which provides legal and intellectual property services through David L. Cohen, P.C. and Kidon IP Corp. David is admitted to practice in NY, NJ, and D.C. as well as before the 2d and Federal Circuits and the USPTO. Previously, David was the Chief Legal and IP Officer and Corporate Secretary at FORM Holdings Corp., (formerly Vringo, Inc.) and Senior Litigation Counsel at Nokia. David has also worked in private practice in Lerner David and Skadden Arps. David is a popular speaker and author on international patent monetization and was listed in IAM 300 The World’s Leading IP Strategists in 2015 and 2016. Before practicing law, David earned a BA and MA from the Johns Hopkins University in the history of science and history; an M. Phil in the history and philosophy of science from Cambridge University, an MA (with distinction) in legal and political theory from University College London, and a J.D. (cum laude) from Northwestern University School of Law, where he was an associate editor of the Law Review. David received the Sara Norton prize from Cambridge University and the First Prize in Lowden-Wigmore Prizes for Legal Scholarship at Northwestern. David clerked for The Honorable Chief Judge Gregory W. Carman of the Court of International Trade.

Mark Cohen
USPTO
Alexandria, VA

Kim Cooper
Apple
Cupertino, CA
Kim Cooper is Associate General Counsel at Apple. She has been at the forefront of technology and innovation since joining the company in 1991. As head of the Hardware Products Law Group, Kim supported products ranging from iMac to Apple Watch, and everything in between. She advised engineering, marketing, and operations throughout development and negotiated key supplier relationships, including agreements with Foxconn, Intel, Qualcomm, and Samsung. Kim played a key role in the development and launch of iPhone, working closely with Apple’s executive team to create and negotiate groundbreaking agreements with AT&T and other wireless carriers. Since then, she has helped guide the iPhone business through massive growth, expanding sales to more than 150 countries and service to nearly 500 carriers. Now responsible for strategic relationships and initiatives, Kim works closely with Apple’s leadership on new businesses and innovative agreements to support them. Kim holds a bachelor’s degree in Psychology from UCLA and a J.D. from Loyola Law School.

Kim Cooper
Apple, Inc
Kim Cooper is Associate General Counsel at Apple. She has been at the forefront of technology and innovation since joining the company in 1991. As head of the Hardware Products Law Group, Kim supported products ranging from iMac to Apple Watch, and everything in between. She advised engineering, marketing, and operations throughout development and negotiated key supplier relationships, including agreements with Foxconn, Intel, Qualcomm, and Samsung. Kim played a key role in the development and launch of iPhone, working closely with Apple’s executive team to create and negotiate groundbreaking agreements with AT&T and other wireless carriers. Since then, she has helped guide the iPhone business through massive growth, expanding sales to more than 150 countries and service to nearly 500 carriers. Now responsible for strategic relationships and initiatives, Kim works closely with Apple’s leadership on new businesses and innovative agreements to support them. Kim holds a bachelor’s degree in Psychology from UCLA and a J.D. from Loyola Law School.

Joshua Curry
Dentons
Atlanta, GA
Joshua D. Curry is a partner in the Intellectual Property and Technology group at Dentons US LLP, in the firm’s Atlanta, Georgia office. Josh litigates patent, intellectual property, and technology cases. An experienced litigator with a science degree and considerable technical expertise, Josh’s clients call upon him because of his understanding of technology and ability to achieve successful results when enforcing and defending their IP rights. He has represented both large and small clients from a variety of industries in cases across a wide range of technologies and in courts and proceedings throughout the United States. Josh earned his J.D., cum laude, in 2006 from the University of Florida, and a B.A., cum laude, in Physics and Government in 2003 from Florida State University. He is admitted to practice in Georgia and Florida and at the United States Patent and Trademark Office, and he has appeared in district court cases nationwide and in cases at the International Trade Commission, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and U.S. Supreme Court.

Yu-Ming Dammann
Gilead Sciences
Foster City, CA

Alica Del Valle
Airbnb
San Francisco, CA

Brian Focarino
Cooley
Palo Alto, CA
Brian is an associate in the Boston office of Cooley LLP, having previously sat in the firm's Palo Alto office. His practice focuses on trademark and copyright litigation, enforcement, clearance and strategy. He represents some of the world’s most valuable brands and many of its most exciting and disruptive startups. His clients include house names in Internet and social media, virtual and alternate reality, digital media and other emerging industries. Brian earned his J.D. from William & Mary Law, his M.Sc. from the University of Edinburgh, and his B.A. from the College of William & Mary, all with honors. He is admitted to practice in California.

Hon. Beth Freeman
US District Court, Northern District of California
San Jose, CA
Judge Beth Labson Freeman is a Judge on the Federal Court in the Northern District of California, appointed by President Obama in 2014. Judge Freeman sits in the San Jose Division, hearing technology cases including patent, trademark, copyright and trade secret cases. She serves on the Northern District’s patent local rules and jury instruction committee. Judge Freeman previously was a Superior Court Judge in San Mateo County, California from 2001 to 2014. Judge Freeman served as Presiding Judge and Assistant Presiding Judge of the San Mateo Court. Prior to her appointment to the bench in 2001, Judge Freeman was deputy county counsel in San Mateo County, and an associate attorney at Lasky, Haas and Cohler in San Francisco and Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver and Jacobson in Washington, D.C. Judge Freeman is a graduate of the Harvard Law School and University of California, Berkeley.

Janet Fries
Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP
Washington, DC
Janet Fries is Of Counsel at Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP in the firm’s Washington, DC office. She has represented numerous authors, artists, collectors, estates, art organizations, musicians, filmmakers and producers in connection with issues involving contract negotiation and preparation, copyright and trademark protection and related matters. Janet is on the Advisory Board for the American Law Institute Restatement of Copyright project and is a fellow at the American Bar Foundation. She is an active member of the Intellectual Property section of the ABA; she is a member of the IP Law Council and the Copyright Reform Task Force. Janet is a member of the board of the Washington Area Lawyers for the Arts. Janet earned a B.A. from Smith College, an M.A. from San Francisco State University, and a J.D. from The George Washington University Law School where she is currently an adjunct professor. In addition to her legal practice, Janet is also an experienced professional editorial and fine art photographer; her work has been published and exhibited widely and is the permanent collections of museums including the National Portrait Gallery.

Nicole Galli
Law Firm of ND Galli LLC
Nicole D. Galli is the founder and Managing Partner of the Law Offices of N.D. Galli, LLC. She focuses her practice on commercial litigation, including all forms of IP and trade secrets litigation, as well as IP and trade secrets management counseling. Ms. Galli works with clients of all sizes in numerous industries including medical devices, software, consumer electronics, consumer products, automotive, energy, hospitality, food and beverage, construction, manufacturing and health care. She serves as the CLE Officer for the ABA’s Section of Intellectual Property Law (IPL) and is the Section’s Liaison to the Licensing Executive Society’s IP in the Supply Chain Committee, as part of LES’s IP Management Standards Setting project. She is a frequent speaker and author on a variety of topics including litigation and trial techniques, patent law and trade secrets management. Ms. Galli received her J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School and a B.A., cum laude, in European history from the University of Pennsylvania. She is admitted to practice in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the States of Delaware, New York and New Jersey, as well as numerous federal courts, including the U.S. Supreme Court and the U. S. Circuit Courts of Appeal for the Federal and Third Circuits.

John Gorman
Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP
Philadelphia, PA
John V. Gorman, is a partner with Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, in the firm’s Philadelphia and Wilmington offices. As the leader of the firm’s Intellectual Property Disputes practice, he practices IP litigation and advises on patent, trademark, trade secret, and copyright disputes in federal and state courts throughout the United States. John handles all phases of litigation from inception through trial and post-trial appeals. John is a member of the Philadelphia Bar Association, the Philadelphia Intellectual Property Law Association and the Intellectual Property Owners Association. He has been a featured speaker at conferences on the topics of reevaluating IP enforcement plans and the new federal trade secrets law. John earned his J.D., cum laude, in 1997 from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, where he was Associate Editor of the University of Pennsylvania Law Review and his B.A., magna cum laude, in 1994 from Villanova University. John is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania, as well as the U.S. District Court for the Eastern and Middle Districts of Pennsylvania and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third and Federal Circuits.

Cristina Guerra
Guerra IP
Rio de Janeiro,
Ms. Cristina is a highly experienced IP practice who specializes in portfolio management, trademark prosecution strategies and cross-border trademark litigation work across the Latin American region.

Hon. Andrew Guilford
US District Court, Central District of California
Santa Ana, CA

Hon. Marilyn Huff
US District Court, Southern District of California
San Diego, CA
Marilyn L. Huff was appointed in 1991 as a federal district judge for the Southern District of California. She was Chief Judge of the Southern District of California from 1998 to 2005. She took senior status on October 1, 2016. She is one of the patent pilot judges participating in a 10-year pilot project designed to enhance expertise in patent cases among United States district judges. She is the president of the Federal Judges Association and she is a member of the United States Judicial Conference Budget Committee, the Board of the Association of Business Trial Lawyers in San Diego and the Executive Board of the Louis Welsh American Inns of Court. Previously, she was a member of the U. S. Judicial Conference Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure, the Judicial Resources Committee, and liaison to the Evidence Rules Committee. She also was a member of the Ninth Circuit Education Committee, the Ninth Circuit Judicial Council, the Chairperson of the Ninth Circuit Public Information and Community Outreach Committee, and the Ninth Circuit Fairness and Gender Fairness Committees. She received her J.D. from the University of Michigan law school in 1976 and a B.A. from Calvin College in 1972. She was a lawyer in private practice in San Diego from 1976 to 1991. She received the San Diego County Bar Association’s awards for Legal Professional of the Year and Service to the Legal Profession.

Matthew Hult
Intel Corporation
Santa Clara, CA

Karen Huoth
Hulu
Santa Monica, CA

Kim Jessum
Heraeus Inc
Yardley, PA

Shilpi Jha
USPTO
Shilpi Jha, senior counsel, is a policy and legal advisor on all aspects of intellectual property (IP) issues for India and other South Asian countries. Ms. Jha serves as lead IP specialist for Pakistan, Bangladesh, Nepal, Bhutan, Sri Lanka, and the Maldives. She is responsible for monitoring, consulting, advising, analyzing, and reporting on IP in those countries. Ms. Jha started her career at Bhasin & Co. as a litigator at the Delhi High Court. Prior to joining the USPTO, she was the IP lead at the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), where her primary responsibilities included providing input to the government of India on policies related to IP protection and enforcement. She coordinated with national-level committees for IP at CII and organized national and international workshops on IP matters. Ms. Jha holds a B.Sc. (Hons) and M.Sc. in statistics, and an LLB, all from Delhi University.

Baraa Kahf
Knobbe Martens
Irvine, CA
Baraa Kahf is a partner at the law firm of Knobbe Martens Olsen & Bear where he practices intellectual property litigation, with an emphasis on computer software and information technology. He currently serves as the chair of the firm’s Diversity Committee. Baraa earned a Bachelor’s degree in Information and Computer Science from the University of California, Irvine, and a J.D. from the University of California, Davis. Before law school, Baraa worked as an Information Technology Specialist for IBM Global Services. He now serves on the board of directors for the Orange County chapter of the Constitutional Rights Foundation, and is president of the Muslim Basketball League.

Dominic Keating
USPTO
Alexandria, VA
Dominic Keating is the Director of the Intellectual Property Attaché Program at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. He provides legal and policy direction to USPTO’s Intellectual Property Attaches based in Belgium, Brazil, China, India, Kuwait, Mexico, Peru, Russia, Switzerland, and Thailand. Mr. Keating is an Adjunct Associate Professor at American University Washington College of Law. He earned his Masters of Science Degree in Biotechnology from Johns Hopkins University and he has worked as a scientist for American Cyanamid Corporation.

Jeff Kichaven
Jeff Kichaven Commercial Mediation
Los Angeles, CA
JEFF KICHAVEN is an independent mediator with a nationwide practice and an emphasis on intellectual property cases. He is an Honors Graduate of Harvard Law School (J.D. Cum Laude, 1980) and a Phi Beta Kappa Graduate of the University of California, Berkeley (A.B. Economics, 1977). He practiced business litigation for 15 years before he started his full-time mediation practice in 1996. He has served as Chair of the ADR Committee in the ABA’s Section of Intellectual Property Law and as Chair of the Entertainment Law and IP Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association. Best Lawyers has named him "Best Mediation Attorney in Los Angeles" and he has also been honored as California Lawyer Attorney of the Year in ADR. He is a Member of the American Law Institute, and his views on mediation have been cited in The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal.

Hanna Kim
Microsoft
Redmond, WA
Hanna Kim is an attorney at Microsoft providing open source software counseling across the company and providing general legal support to Microsoft’s Developer Division in the Cloud + Enterprise group. Before joining Microsoft, she worked 10 years in the Patent & Technology Law Group of the
Wm. Wrigley Jr. Company (a subsidiary of Mars) providing support for all aspects of IP law globally. Prior to her career as a patent attorney, Hanna was an engineer in the petrochemical field. Hanna received her B.S. Chemical Engineering and B.A. English Literature from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and her J.D. from The John Marshall Law School in Chicago, Illinois.

Joshua Klayman
Morrison Foerster
New York, NY

Amit Kumar
Adidas
Carlsbad, CA
Amit Kumar is the primary lawyer for adidas’s worldwide golf business and he also supports adidas’s M&A team. Prior to joining adidas, Amit was Counsel at Kilpatrick Townsend, where he advised companies – in particular consumer product brands – on matters relating to technology transactions, mergers, strategic alliances, manufacturing, distribution, and advertising. Prior to joining Kilpatrick Townsend, Amit was the Vice President of Legal Affairs for TaylorMade-adidas Golf, where he represented the company in a variety of matters for over ten years.

Deborah Lashley-Johnson
USPTO
Geneva
Deborah Lashley-Johnson is the USPTO’s IP Attaché for the World Trade Organization (WTO) at the U.S. Permanent Mission to the United Nations and Other International Organizations in Geneva, Switzerland. She works on issues involving the WTO Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS) and certain substantive committees of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO). While on detail in Geneva, she is also the Africa IP lead for the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR). Ms. Lashley-Johnson earned a B.A. in International Relations from Georgetown University, and a J.D. from American University’s Washington College of Law.

Richard Levin
Polsinelli, PC
Denver, CO
Richard B. Levin is the Chair of the Financial Services Technology (FinTech) and Regulation Practice at Polsinelli PC. His practice focuses on the representation of early stage and publicly traded companies in the FinTech industry, including broker-dealers, hedge funds, alternative trading systems (ATSS), exchanges, peer to peer lending platforms, robo advisors, crowdfunding portals, and digital currency platforms. He represents these firms before the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC), and the Financial Industry and Regulatory Authority (FINRA). Richard has represented clients before regulators in Australia, Canada, Hong Kong, Japan, and the United Kingdom and he counsels companies that appear before the United States Senate and the House of Representatives.

Richard played a leadership role in the launch of two joint ventures of leading investment banks, including: Bank of America, Barclays, BlackRock, Citibank, Credit Suisse, Deutsche Bank, Goldman Sachs, JPMorgan Chase, KCG, Merrill Lynch, Morgan Stanley, Northern Trust, State Street, and UBS. He has served in senior legal, business, and compliance positions in publicly traded and privately held financial services firms. Before entering private practice, he was the Global Head of Product Development for Compliance and Operations for Deutsche Bank. Richard served as the General Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer of two U.S. ATSs and a U.K. based multi-lateral trading facility (MTF). He began his career on Wall Street by serving as the General Counsel of one of the original Electronic Communications Networks (ECNs), and as Assistant General Counsel and Regulatory Affairs Officer of Knight Capital Group. Richard is a frequent speaker at conferences on blockchain technology, regulatory, and market structure issues and is the co-author of the chapter on U.S. regulation of virtual currencies for the Handbook of Digital Currency published by Elsevier.

David Levine
Red Hat, Inc
Raleigh, NC
David currently serves as Red Hat’s Vice President and Assistant General Counsel with responsibility for the products, technology and licensing legal group. In this role, David is responsible for managing the full range of legal responsibilities associated with Red Hat’s product and service offerings and business models, licensing of open source software, the creation and maintenance of Red Hat’s standard contract terms and administering Red Hat’s anti-corruption compliance program. Among his recent achievements, in 2015 David served as the lead negotiator in concluding an historic cloud computing and intellectual property agreement with Microsoft. David was previously responsible for establishing leading Red Hat’s global Business Affairs function, which included responsibility for commercial transactions with all of Red Hat’s customers, channel partners, OEMs and alliance partners. Prior to Red Hat, David served in various roles in the IBM legal department and as Assistant General Counsel at PricewaterhouseCoopers.

David started his legal career in the Washington, DC office of Gibson Dunn & Crutcher where he helped to launch and grow the firm’s technology transactional practice. David graduated from Binghamton University with a degree in Economics and received his law degree from the University Of Wisconsin School Of Law where he served as a senior editor on the law review.

Deshan Li
Unitalen Attorneys at Law
Beijing, China
Dr. Deshan Li is a senior partner of Unitalen Attorneys at Law, which is one of the largest IP law firm in China and has more than 25 offices. Dr. Li began his patent practice in 1996 as a patent attorney and attorney at law. His legal experience covers all areas of IP laws, including patent procurement, reexamination, invalidation, patent infringement litigation, patent licensing and patent transferring. Dr. Li has been actively engaged in patent theory and practice research and published articles in influential IP magazines, such as the Chinese publication, Intellectual Property. He is the co-author of “Chinese Patent Course”. Dr. Li also speaks frequently about the Chinese patent law and practice in international conferences and seminars. He also serves as director of Chinese Group of AIPPI, member of LES, FICPI and IPO and director of ACPAA. He earned his Ph.D. in physics in 1996 from Frankfurt University, Germany, and his LL.M. in 2001 from Peking University. He was admitted to the bar in 1997 and qualified as patent attorney in 1998.

Tiffany Li
General Assembly
New York, NY

Jennifer Longnion
Dollar Shave Club
Marina Del Rey, CA
Marty Lorenzo
PetCo
San Diego, CA
Marty Lorenzo brings over 28 years of experience derived from the legal, business and military fields. Marty is currently the Vice President of Legal Affairs at Petco Animal Supplies, Inc. He provides sophisticated strategic legal advice and counsel on a wide range of commercial matters. Prior to joining Petco, Marty was in private practice, most recently at Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP, where his practice focused on international business, corporate finance, and securities. He advised clients on a wide variety of business issues and strategic transactions, such as mergers and acquisitions, initial public offerings, capital formation, international expansion, technology licensing, and corporate governance.

Richard Lutton
Nest Labs, Inc.
Palo Alto, CA

Nehal Madhani
Alt Legal
New York, NY
Nehal Madhani is an attorney and the founder and CEO of Alt Legal. Nehal was a practicing attorney at Kirkland & Ellis, LLP, an internationally renowned law firm. Inspired to make legal practice more efficient, Nehal taught himself programming and founded Alt Legal, a company whose cloud-based IP docketing software helps legal professionals prepare and manage hundreds of thousands of IP filings and deadlines daily. Nehal has a J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, a Certificate in Business and Public Policy from the Wharton School of Business, and a B.A. from Northwestern University. He graduated Northwestern University with a double major in biology and economics. Nehal is currently a CodeX fellow at Stanford Law School.

Eloise Maki
3M
Shanghai, China
Eloise Maki, 3M Assistant Chief Intellectual Property Counsel, has over 30 years of experience at 3M as an intellectual property attorney and she focused a considerable portion of her career on international intellectual property practice. Eloise was posted to Brussels, Belgium, where she managed 3M’s intellectual property operations for Europe, Middle East and Africa, she was the first manager of 3M’s international intellectual property operations and she was most recently posted in Shanghai, China where she managed 3M’s Asia Pacific region intellectual property operations. In addition, Eloise has supported a wide range of 3M business and staff groups and managed 3M’s Trademark Group. Eloise is currently managing the team of intellectual property professionals who serve 3M’s corporate laboratories and she is the manager of 3M’s Intellectual Property Liaison Group, a group of technical and intellectual property professionals who support 3M’s laboratories and legal function in invention identification and management, patenting, portfolio management, competitive analysis and IP strategy. Eloise is a member of the ABA, AIPLA and MIPLA, and she is a member of the IPO Asian Practice Committee.

Mike Mangelson
USPTO
Shanghai, China
Michael Mangelson is the intellectual property (IP) attaché based in Shanghai, China, where he is responsible for advocating U.S. IP interests in China. Mr. Mangelson began his post at the U.S. Consulate General Shanghai in August 2014, bringing with him 20 years of experience as a business IP attorney with a focus on China services. He is fluent in Mandarin Chinese and has frequently been recognized for excellence in intellectual property law, being selected by Best Lawyers in America,® a well-known attorney rating service, as “Trademark Law Lawyer of the Year” in 2012, and has been consistently named as a top IP attorney in Best Lawyers and Chambers USA: Guide to America’s Leading Lawyers for Business. Mr. Mangelson holds a Juris Doctor degree from Brigham Young University Law School.

Michael McCabe, Jr.
McCabe Law LLC
Potomac, MD

Heather Meeker
O’Melveny & Myers LLP
Menlo Park, CA
Heather Meeker is a partner in O’Melveny & Myers’ Silicon Valley office. She advises clients on technology transactions and intellectual property matters. She is an internationally-known specialist in open source software licensing. She received the prestigious IP Vanguard Award for private practice from the Intellectual Property Section of the California state bar for 2016. She is a graduate of The UC Berkeley School of Law and Yale College. Her latest book, Open Source for Business, is a definitive handbook for lawyers, engineers, and businesspersons on open source licensing in business.

Vicenzo Melilli
Bugnion S.p.A.
Milano, Italy
Vicenzo Melilli is the Head of Design Law Department at Bugnion S.p.A. His practice focuses on EU Trademark and Design Law for domestic and international clients. He lectures on trademark and design law as well as complex comparative Intellectual Property strategies at universities. Mr. Melilli has been selected as a member of the EU cooperation program and as lecturer at the EUIPO Academy. He is the author of many trademark and design law publications for the IP Media Group, London and other publishers worldwide. Also, through the INTA EUIPO subcommittee, he has contributed to the series of review sessions of the Regulation (EU) No 2015/2424 of the European Parliament and the Council amending the Community trade mark regulation (the Amending Regulation) entered into force on 23 March 2016.

Jennifer Miller
Renmatix
Philadelphia, PA
Jennifer works closely with Renmatix technical and business teams to advise and advance the strategy and success of Renmatix. She is responsible for the company’s intellectual property strategy, and oversees the prosecution and maintenance of its robust and growing patent portfolio. Jennifer is an integral member of the commercial and business development team, working to structure, negotiate and document joint development, testing, and licensing arrangements with potential corporate partners and licensees. She plays an important role in financing transactions and works closely with CEO, Mike Hamilton, and the Board of Directors on corporate governance and serves as the Corporate Secretary of Renmatix. As a former partner of Ballard Spahr LLP, her clients included entrepreneurs, emerging technology developers, global conglomerates, venture capitalists, universities, and more. Jennifer brings to bear more than 20 years of experience working with science, biotech and technology companies of all sizes and stages of development, with particular expertise in licensing, strategic alliances and corporate collaborations; equity, debt and project finance both public and private; mergers and acquisitions; and corporate governance and board counseling. She served as chair or co-chair of Ballard Spahr practice groups and Ballard Women, and served as the Program Chair of Pennsylvania BIO and co-chair of Pennsylvania BIO’s Enterprise Creation Summit.
She holds a Juris Doctor from Widener University School of Law, serving on Law Review, Moot Court Honor Society, and as a Wolcott Clerk to the Delaware Supreme Court. She received her BA from Dickinson College.

Julie Mowers
Amazon.com
Seattle, WA
Julie Mowers is a senior corporate counsel at Amazon Web Services, working out of AWS’s corporate headquarters in Seattle. Ms. Mowers is product counsel for AWS’s developer and management tools and she also leads Amazon’s worldwide Open Source compliance programs. Prior to Amazon, Ms. Mowers was an associate in the technology transactions group at Kirkland & Ellis LLP in Chicago. Ms. Mowers earned her J.D. and her B.S.E. in biomedical engineering from the University of Iowa. She is admitted to practice in Illinois.

Natalie Nicol
Tealium
San Diego, CA
Natalie Nicol is Corporate Counsel at Tealium in the company’s San Diego, CA office. She advises the company on a broad range of legal matters, including intellectual property, privacy, corporate, and employment issues. Ms. Nicol is an Internet Law & Policy Foundry Fellow. In addition to her work at Tealium, she is Project Manager at Without My Consent, a non-profit focused on combatting serious online invasions of privacy. She earned her J.D. in 2013 from University of California, Hastings College of the Law and her B.A., summa cum laude, in 2008 from the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication at Arizona State University.

Scott Partridge
Baker Botts
Houston, TX
Scott Partridge is former head of the intellectual property department in Houston and Washington. He has extensive intellectual property law experience, concentrating on litigation involving patents, copyrights and trade secrets for technologies in the electrical, computer systems, telecommunications and mechanical fields. He has particular experience representing clients in litigation matters before the International Trade Commission and in numerous federal and state courts across the United States and has served as an arbitrator and special master in patent matters. From 1969 through 1971, Mr. Partridge was a patent examiner in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, and from 1972 to 1976 he was employed as an international and legislative specialist for the Office of Legislation and International Affairs of the Patent and Trademark Office. In 1973 and 1974 he served as executive secretary of the U.S. Side of the Joint Working Group on Intellectual Property for the U.S./U.S.S.R. Agreements on Scientific Cooperation. He was the assistant deputy general counsel and section director for the United States Presidential Clemency Board in 1975. Mr. Partridge is a frequent lecturer on intellectual property law and has addressed many audiences (both in the United States and internationally) regarding intellectual property law issues. For seven years, he taught intellectual property law as an adjunct professor at Georgetown University Law Center.

Pamela Passman
CREATe.org
Washington, DC

James Pooley
Menlo Park, CA
As lead counsel for Adobe Systems in the country’s first major software patent infringement case, he won a jury verdict that the National Law Journal chose as one of the year’s Top Defense Verdicts. His later $90 million technology copyright settlement for ESS Technology earned him California Lawyer magazine’s Lawyer of the Year award. He was a driving force behind the recently adopted Defend Trade Secrets Act, which created a federal civil claim for misappropriation of a company’s know-how. The U.S. Senate Committee on the Judiciary invited Jim, as a recognized expert on trade secret law and litigation, to testify and provide drafting advice about the proposed legislation. In addition to a successful career as a Silicon Valley trial lawyer, Jim has held leadership roles in several national organizations, including president of the American Intellectual Property Law Association and chairman of the National Inventors Hall of Fame. In 2009, the White House appointed Jim Deputy Director General of the World Intellectual Property Organization, an agency of the United Nations, where he served for five years as director of the international patent system.

David Postolski
Gearhart Law
Summit, NJ

Todd Reves
USPTO
Mexico City, Mexico J. Todd Reves is the USPTO’s regional intellectual property (IP) rights attaché for Mexico, Central America, and the Caribbean. Prior to this position, Mr. Reves served as a senior advisor in the Office of the Intellectual Property Enforcement Coordinator, Executive Office of the President, where he worked primarily on border measures and IP crime in the digital environment. Mr. Reves also served as an attorney-advisor in the USPTO’s Office of Policy and International Affairs, where he oversaw IP enforcement activities in the Middle East and North Africa. In this capacity, he planned and delivered technical assistance and capacity-building programs for judges, prosecutors, police officers, and customs officials.

Emory Roane
Internet Law and Policy Foundry
San Diego, CA
Emory Roane is a Legal Fellow at the Internet Law and Policy Foundry, focusing on IP, privacy and legal tech. Emory earned his J.D. in April of this year, from California Western School of Law, in San Diego, and in November hopes to be admitted to practice in California. Occasionally a co-host on the legal-technology podcast “This Week in Law,” Emory is passionate about communicating the disruptive effects of the technology we find ourselves immersed in. From virtual reality, augmented reality and data privacy to cryptocurrencies and smart contracts – Mr. Roane is thrilled to be here talking about our legal future, today.

Matt Sarboraria
Oracle Corp.
Redwood City, CA
Matt Sarboraria is Vice President and Associate General Counsel at Oracle Corporation, where he leads the company’s Patent, Trademark and Copyright group. His team is responsible for developing and implementing strategies and policies for identifying, protecting, and managing the company’s intellectual property. His practice includes patent prosecution and portfolio management, IP licensing, litigation support, M&A support, and copyright, trademark and brand management. He is actively involved in IP policy initiatives on Oracle’s behalf. He serves as a board member or advisor to several IP-focused industry associations. Prior to his current position, Mr. Sarboraria served as Managing Patent Counsel in Oracle’s Litigation group, where his practice focused on IP disputes and related licensing matters. Before joining Oracle in 2006, Mr. Sarboraria was in private practice at Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, where he focused on IP litigation. He has litigated cases throughout the country involving a wide variety of technologies, including database, middleware and application software, semiconductors, computer networking, and telecommunications equipment. He earned his undergraduate degree from U.C. Berkeley and his J.D. from U.C. Berkeley’s Boalt Hall School of Law.
Chrissie Scelsi
Wargaming (USA), Inc.

Chrissie Scelsi (SHELL-SEE) is U.S. General Counsel for Wargaming, an award-winning online game developer and publisher that is a leader in the free-to-play MMO market across PC, console, and mobile platforms. She is responsible for legal and business matters for the company’s operations in the United States, including copyright, trademark, advertising, privacy, compliance, esports, licensing, events, and basically any question involving what can be done with a tank. Prior to joining Wargaming, Ms. Scelsi practiced entertainment and new media law, and was in-house counsel for a serious games company. She has served as an editor of the book Computer Games and Virtual Worlds: A New Frontier in Intellectual Property Law, which was published by the ABA Section of Intellectual Property Law, and is a chapter contributor to The American Bar Association’s Legal Guide to Video Game Development. Ms. Scelsi earned an LL.M. in Entertainment and Media Law from Southwestern School of Law, a J.D. from Saint Louis University School of Law, and a B.B.A. in marketing from Loyola University New Orleans.

Lorenz Siddiqi
Allergan
Irvine, CA

Joshua Simmons
Kirkland & Ellis LLP

Joshua Simmons focuses his practice on intellectual property, including copyrights, patents, publicity rights, trademarks, and trade secrets. His practice includes litigation and counseling, as well as regulatory and legislative policy. He also advises clients on intellectual property matters that intersect with antitrust, computer and Internet fraud, false advertising, privacy, and social media issues, along with contract, licensing, and domain name disputes. Mr. Simmons routinely represents clients in appellate and trial courts around the country—particularly in complex cases and those of first impression. These high-profile matters involve a range of industries, including computer software and services, consumer and leisure products, financial services, health care and pharmaceuticals, media and entertainment—such as electronic games, film, news, publishing, sports, television and theatre—and telecommunications. They have been featured in the mainstream media, legal periodicals, and trade press. In addition to maintaining a full-time litigation practice, Mr. Simmons is a frequent speaker—including guest lectures at Harvard Law School, Columbia Law School, and Northwestern University—and has authored numerous articles on emerging trends in intellectual property. He is an active member of the ABA Intellectual Property Law Section, chairing its Copyright Division and Copyright Law Reform Task Force, as well as being the immediate past chair of the Copyright & Social Media committee. He also is an adviser to the Uniform Law Commission’s Right of Publicity Study Committee. In addition, he is an appointed member of the IPO Software Related Inventions Committee, and the INTA Internet Committee. The Legal 500 has named Mr. Simmons a “Next Generation Lawyer” and recognized him for his trade secrets and media and entertainment practices. In addition, each year from 2014 to 2016, Super Lawyers named Mr. Simmons a “Rising Star” for his intellectual property litigation practice. He also was part of the Kirkland team that was honored by Managing Intellectual Property magazine for its work on “Milestone Case of the Year” Oracle America v. Google. It further has recognized Kirkland’s intellectual property department as US Trademark Contentious Firm of the Year and Copyright Firm of the Year for the Northeast region. Mr. Simmons’s pro bono matters include the representation of asylum seekers before the Department of Homeland Security—for which he twice has received the Immigration Equality Safe Haven Award—as well as matters for the American Theatre Wing, Comic Book Legal Defense Fund, and other IP-related pro bono projects. He also is a member of the board of directors of the York Theatre Company, which is dedicated to developing and producing new musicals.

Kalpina Srinivasan
Susman Godfrey LLP
Los Angeles, CA
Kalpina Srinivasan is a partner in the Los Angeles office of the litigation boutique Susman Godfrey L.L.P and a member of the firm’s Executive Committee. She handles high-stakes cases for plaintiffs and defendants in courtrooms across the country with a focus on patent, unfair competition, antitrust, trade secret and copyright disputes. In 2017, she was recognized by The Daily Journal as one of California’s top intellectual property lawyers. She also was included among The Recorder’s 2017 and 2016 Women Leaders in Tech Law. Ms. Srinivasan earned her J.D. from Stanford Law School, graduating with distinction, and received her B.A. from Yale University, where she majored in Comparative Literature. Ms. Srinivasan clerked for Judge Raymond C. Fisher of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

Teresa Stanek Rea
Crowell & Morning LLP
Washington, DC

John Steele
John Steele, Attorney at Law
Palo Alto, CA

Craig Summers
Knobbe Martin
Irvine, CA
Craig Summers is a partner in the Orange County office of Knobbe Martens Olson & Bear. His practice focuses almost exclusively on intellectual property litigation, with the majority of his cases involving the assertion and defense of patent and trademark infringement claims in federal courts throughout the country. He has represented his clients as lead counsel through jury and bench trials, and appeals, as well as achieving resolution without trial through early summary judgment motions, IPR proceedings, settlement and other alternative dispute resolution means. Over the years, he has been an active member of the IP Section, having chaired numerous committees and served as a member of Council. He received his undergraduate degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Southern California and his law degree from Loyola Law School in Los Angeles.

Joseph Taffy
Thermo Fisher Scientific
Carlsbad, CA
Joseph Taffy is a business-oriented IP attorney well-versed in international IP procurement & portfolio management, licensing, dispute resolution, litigation, and due diligence, with a focus on life sciences. Joseph currently is Sr. Director, IP Counsel, responsible for the Genetic Sciences Division at Thermo Fisher Scientific and is based in San Diego. He has held other leadership roles at Thermo Fisher Scientific and legacy companies Life Technologies and Invitrogen. Prior to that, Joseph was in private practice for several years.

MaCharri Vorndran-Jones
Eli Lilly and Company
Indianapolis, IN
MaCharri Vorndran-Jones is Assistant General Patent Counsel with Eli Lilly and Company, at Lilly’s corporate headquarters in Indianapolis, Indiana. She practices patent, international, transactional, and corporate law in the pharmaceutical industry. Ms. Vorndran-Jones is a member of the American Intellectual Property Law Association, American Chemical Society, Lifetime Fellow of the American Bar Foundation, and a member of the IPO. She is a past chair of Division IV, a past committee chair for numerous Division I committees, and a current ABA Council Representative for Division I. Ms. Vorndran-Jones earned her J.D. in 1992 for Indiana University, a M.S. (Research) in chemistry from St. Louis University, Graduate Studies in Pharmacology from University of Toledo, and B.S. from Manchester University. She is admitted to practice in Indiana, as well as the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals for the 7th and Federal Circuit, and she is a registered U.S. Patent attorney.

Hon. Scott Waidenfeller
USPTO
Washington, DC

Kandace Watson
Sheppard Mullin
San Diego, CA

Kandace P. Watson, Corporate Partner at Sheppard Mullin, has extensive experience representing companies, corporate boards and executives in intellectual property (IP) intensive industries, including biomedical, biotechnology, chemical, healthcare, pharmaceutical, social media, software and technology. She was recommended in 2016 by Legal 500 US for Mergers & Acquisitions and Buyouts. She was named San Diego’s “Top Attorneys 2015” in the Corporate Transactional practice category presented by The Transcript. In 2014, Ms. Watson was profiled by the San Diego Business Journal and was recognized as a nominee for "Power of Attorneys 2015 – San Diego's Top corporate Counsel." In 2008, she was a recipient of the Earl B. Gilliam Bar Association’s Distinguished Service Award, and in 2004, she was profiled by American Business Gazette. Corporate boards and management teams seek Ms. Watson’s legal and strategic advice to structure, negotiate and close complex transactions, comply with related SEC and other federal and state regulations, and expand operations globally. She also advises corporate boards and management teams regarding corporate governance and compliance, strategic planning, and ongoing operations. Structuring joint ventures between majority and minority-owned business enterprises is among her specialties. Ms. Watson has frequently handled matters involving non-practicing entities (“NPEs” or “Patent Trolls”) for a number of her clients. She regularly drafts and negotiates patent purchase and license agreements and develops defense strategies for companies, often when NPEs are involved as a point of consideration. Her expertise includes board governance, director and officer duties, complex commercial transactions, consortium agreements, corporate spin-offs and reorganizations, intellectual property (IP) licenses, CRADAs and other cooperative research, development and commercialization agreements, material transfer agreements (MTAs), joint ventures, public and private offerings, securities compliance, cross-border and multi-jurisdictional transactions, and supply, manufacturing and distribution agreements.

Judge Scott Weidenfeller
USPTO
Alexandria, VA

Scott C. Weidenfeller is Senior Counsel for Patent Law and Litigation in the Office of the Solicitor of the United States Patent & Trademark Office, where he represents the Office in the Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and district courts in cases involving patent issues. Prior to joining the USPTO, Mr. Weidenfeller was an associate at Covington & Burling LLP, where he represented clients in patent, trade secret, and copyright cases involving software technology, electronic devices, biotechnology, and pharmaceuticals before numerous district courts and the Federal Circuit. He also served as a law clerk to the Honorable Timothy B. Dyk. He received his Juris Doctor magna cum laude from Georgetown University Law Center, and he received degrees in mechanical engineering and economics from Rice University.

Eliot Williams
Baker Botts
Palo Alto, CA

Eliot Williams is an Intellectual Property Partner in Baker Botts’ Palo Alto office, where he is co-chair of the Firm’s PTAB Practice. He has extensive experience with disputed Intellectual Property matters, in federal courts throughout the country and in the Patent Trial and Appeal Board of the United States Patent Office. He has testified regarding implementation of the America Invents Act before the judiciary Committee of the United States House of Representatives and has over 100 appearances in the Patent Trial and Appeal Board. Mr. Williams earned his J.D. cum laude from the New York University school of law in 1999, and his B.S. in electrical engineering magna cum laude from Texas A&M University. He is admitted in New York, California, and is a registered Patent Attorney.

Susan Wilson
USPTO
Brussels, Belgium
Susan Wilson currently serves as the first U.S. intellectual property attaché to the European Union (EU). Her responsibilities include monitoring intellectual property-related developments in institutions and in its member states. She also contributes to bilateral IP-related dialogues with Switzerland and Turkey, advances U.S. IP policy objectives at the OECD, and supports fellow Geneva-based U.S. IP attachés in their work with the WTO and various U.N. institutions. Prior to being sworn in as attaché, Ms. Wilson was a director for intellectual property and innovation at the Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR), where she coordinated the annual Special 301 Review of trading partners’ IPR policies and practices and the development of the annual Notorious Markets List of physical and online marketplaces that facilitate trademark counterfeiting and copyright piracy worldwide.

Mark Wittow
K&L Gates
Seattle, WA
Mark Wittow is a partner in the Seattle office of K&L Gates LLP, where he is practice leader for the firm’s international IP/technology transactions and data protection practice group. His work focuses on complex transactions for the acquisition, development, marketing, licensing and distribution of computing devices, software and related services, other types of technology and media content, electronic commerce issues, and complex patent licensing and patent dispositions. Mr. Wittow is an active member of the International Technology Law Association, ABA Intellectual Property Law Section and Copyright Law Society. Mr. Wittow teaches or has taught the Arts Legal Clinic and Advanced Copyright Law courses at Seattle University and University of Washington law schools. He is an active pro bono lawyer with Washington Lawyers for the Arts and Wayfind, chairs the board of The Westerlies Music, Inc., and is a board officer of Hanford Challenge. Mr. Wittow is a graduate of Hampshire College and Harvard Law School and is admitted to practice in Alaska and Washington.
Gabriella Ziccarelli
Blank Rome
Washington, DC
Gabriella Ziccarelli is a DC-based intellectual property attorney of Silicon Valley career origins, with multi-faceted experience in the tech industry. She’s served as outside counsel, worked in-house at technology companies in Silicon Valley, advised tech start-ups, clerked for a magistrate judge, and actively brings the technology community together through dynamic programming. She is a fierce proponent for the empowerment and creation of opportunities for women and minorities in the tech industry and currently serves as an advisory board member to SEED SPOT DC, a tech incubator supporting minority entrepreneurs that create socially conscious tech. Gabriella received her J.D. from Santa Clara University School of Law and her B.A. from the University of Arizona.