To meet the needs of IP practitioners, this year's conference contains two days of comprehensive continuing legal education programming and one day of CLE roundtables featuring prominent speakers that include in-house counsel, private practitioners, academics, the federal judiciary and government agency officials. ABA-IPL stands as the rigorous and innovative voice of intellectual property law.

ABA ANNUAL MEETING INFORMATION

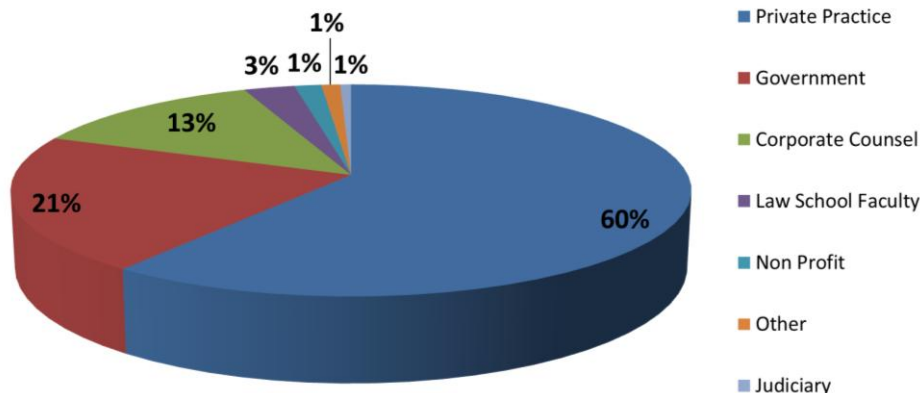

The ABA Annual Meeting is a convention of lawyers from across all fields of law from throughout the nation and international. The Section of Intellectual Property Law's Summer Conference takes place in conjunction with the ABA Annual Meeting. Stationed in its own headquarter hotel within the ABA Annual Meeting city, the Section stages a variety of events—educational programming, business meetings, and social activities to provide for networking opportunities among IP practitioners. The 2014 ABA Annual Meeting will take place from August 7-10, 2014 in Boston, MA.

Attendance at the greater ABA Annual Meeting is about 9,000 lawyers annually, of which approximately 400-500 are members of the Section of Intellectual Property Law. All registrants for the ABA Annual Meeting are invited to attend Section events and the conference mailer is sent to 26,000 Section members in advance of the Annual Meeting.

ABA-IPL CONFERENCE ATTENDEES BREAKDOWN

Section member attendance at Section conferences in the past has broken down as follows: about 13% corporate in-house counsel, 21% government officials, interest groups or academics, and the remainder in private practice, either in large firm settings, or specialty IP law firms. Attendees have been primarily U.S. practitioners, although about 12% on average are foreign lawyers, from nations including Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, China, Colombia, France, Germany, Greece, Guernsey Channel Islands, India, Japan, Mexico, Paraguay, Qatar, South Korea, Switzerland, United Kingdom, and Venezuela.
