ABA Standing Committee on Law and National Security
Luncheon Program featuring
Ambassador Stuart Eizenstat

“President Carter: The White House Years”

As a White House insider in several Administrations, Ambassador Stuart Eizenstat will discuss his new book, President Carter: The White House Years. Stuart will address some of the key national security law issues that arose during his tenure, including the negotiations of the Transatlantic Agenda with the European Union; the development of the Transatlantic Business Dialogue among European and US CEOs; the negotiation of agreements with the European Union regarding the Helms-Burton Act and the Iran-Libya Sanctions Act; the negotiation of the Japan Port Agreement with the Japanese government; and the negotiation of the Kyoto Protocol on global warming, where he led the US delegation.
