Why You Should Attend
This conference will be held at the Logan Hotel in Philadelphia, PA, November 15–17, 2017. Join us for this dynamic ABA CLE event! Learn from and network with women from across the nation at the Women in Litigation Joint Conference. The ABA Section of Litigation is partnering with the Woman Advocate Committee (WAC), Women in Insurance Network (WIN), Women in Products Liability (WIPL), and Women in Securities Litigation (WISL) Subcommittees to offer this outstanding event. This two-and-a-half-day conference will include an opening plenary session, in which women general counsel will share their views and advice about how to help women develop critical skills to succeed; and a full day of cutting-edge plenaries and four separate programming tracks addressing trial advocacy skills, business development, insurance, securities litigation, and product liability issues. Network with expert litigators and in-house counsel at the Welcome Reception, the Reception Honoring Federal and State Women Judges in Philadelphia, and the Thursday dinner event at the Reading Terminal Market. The conference will also include a Keynote Luncheon featuring:

Valerie Jarrett
Senior Advisor to the President of the United States and Assistant to the President for Public Engagement and Intergovernmental Affairs in the Obama Administration

Who Should Attend
• All litigators, mediators, judges, and consultants who look to enhance their professional outreach, benefit from updates in critical areas of the law, and hone their trial advocacy skills.

• In-house representatives (we are offering your registration for just $50).

• Anyone who wants to meet leading litigators, expand cross-marketing, and engage in networking and professional outreach.

• Young lawyers who want to meet and learn from successful litigators, mediators, judges, and consultants in a wide array of practice areas.

• Anyone who has previously attended a WAC, WIN, or WIPL regional meeting.

• The women of the Section of Litigation, who will ensure this event is a great success.

What You Will Learn
• The skills needed to succeed in-house, in the courtroom, as judges, and in public service

• The business of law and management of law firms

• Cutting-edge legal developments in product liability, insurance, securities litigation, and trial advocacy

Who You Will Meet
• Nationally known litigators

• Renowned judges and mediators

• Consultants and experts

• Corporate counsel

• Industry representatives

• Women who can help shape your future

Plenary: Women as General Counsel—Working Together to Help Women Develop Skills Needed to Succeed and Achieve Better Results for Their Clients
5:00 pm – 6:15 pm

This distinguished panel of general counsel includes women from top companies of different sizes and types who represent an array of industries. They will discuss how general counsel can help their outside counsel counterparts develop professionally by insisting on having women as key or lead trial counsel. The panel will discuss the benefits of this action, which include improved advocacy and effectiveness of trial teams and better results for clients. In addition, support from in-house counsel goes a long way to help law firms retain women and helps eliminate pipeline issues plaguing the profession by ensuring that women see a path to meaningful, substantive career development, and growth. The panelists will also discuss other ways that in-house and outside counsel can work together to address retention and pipeline issues, including encouraging outside counsel to provide opportunities for more junior lawyers to effectively transition from being subject matter experts to trusted business advisors, and will discuss the importance of such advisors to them as clients.

Moderator: Tonya G. Newman, Neal Gerber & Eisenberg LLP, Chicago, IL
Speakers: Victoria L. Donati, Crate & Barrel, CB2, The Land of Nod, Northbrook, IL, Sandra Phillips Rogers, Toyota, Torrance, CA, Monica Weed, Navigant, Chicago, IL, Linda A. Willett, Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield of New Jersey, Newark, NJ

Thursday, November 16

Plenary: Women Lawyers in Service to the Public: The Challenges and Triumphs of Public Service Careers
8:00 am – 9:15 am

How does the attorney-client relationship change when the public is your client? How can law schools and law firms help train lawyers to commit to public service careers and service to the profession? These talented and committed women will share their experiences in representing the U.S. government in civil litigation, serving in an executive role in the courts, and serving the profession through legal education and leadership in the American Bar Association.

Moderator: Laura J. Hanson, Meagher & Geer PLLP, Minneapolis, MN

Plenary: A View from the Top: What It’s Like to Be the Firm’s Managing Partner
9:30 am – 11:00 am

A rare opportunity to hear from managing partners of major law firms about their experiences in running an AMLAW 200 firm. Having attained the Chair/Managing Partner position, are their views about diversity any different than they were before?

Moderator: Helen B. Kim, Thompson Coburn LLP, Los Angeles, CA
Speakers: Hilarie Bass, Greenberg Traurig, Miami, FL, Kathleen F. McDonough, Potter Anderson Corroon LLP, Wilmington, DE, Madeleine M. McDonough, Shook Hardy & Bacon, Washington, D.C., Jami W. McKeon, Morgan Lewis, Philadelphia, PA

Breakout: WAC: Revealing the Secrets of a Winning Pitch (Non-CLE)
11:15 am – 12:30 pm

Whether you’re just starting your career or have been practicing for years, you need to be generating business. Lawyers rarely get feedback on what distinguishes a winning pitch from the others. Three two-person teams of lawyers will pitch a case to our group of experts who will share tips on what works, what not to do, and how to feel more confident in your next pitch.

Moderator: Kim Stuart, Ackert Inc., Sherman Oaks, CA

Breakout: WIN: Allocation Nation: Deal or No Deal?
11:15 am – 12:30 pm

Come on down for an exciting game show panel that will address new developments in the allocation of loss under directors and officers liability policies, including current application of the “larger settlement rule” and “relative legal and financial exposure.” Engage with our panelists as they decide whether to make a deal!

Moderator: Heather W. Habes, Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP, Los Angeles, CA
Speakers: Lauren M. Case, Duane Morris LLP, San Francisco, CA, Kelly B. Castriotta, Arch Insurance Company, Chicago, IL, Therese A. Guertin, Saxe Doernberger & Vita PC, Trumbull, CT, Danya J. Pincavage, Wolfe Pincavage, Atlanta, GA

Friday, November 17

Plenary: Superstars in the Courtroom Share Their Secrets of Success
8:00 am – 9:30 am

Come hear women at the top of their game share their secrets of success. Each of them serves as lead trial or appellate counsel in major litigation. Our distinguished panel will share how they achieved their role, what style and substance guarantees their success, and their tricks for making sure they stay at the peak of their performance. You will leave inspired and equipped to be at the top of your game!

Moderator: Monique M. Weiner, Kuchler Polk Weiner LLC, New Orleans, LA

Speakers:
- Paula W. Hinton, Winston & Strawn LLP, Houston, TX
- Roberta “Bobbi” Liebenberg, Fine Kaplan and Black RPC, Philadelphia, PA
- Mary-Christine “M.C.” Sungaila, Haynes and Boone LLP, Costa Mesa, CA
- Beth Wilkinson, Wilkinson Walsh + Eskovitz, Washington, D.C.

Breakout: WAC: May It Please the Court . . . and the Jury: Tips for Giving Memorable Openings and Closings
9:45 am – 11:00 am

Learn how to start a trial with an opening argument that captures the jury’s attention and interests them in your theory of the case and to deliver a closing argument that sends jurors into the jury room ready to vote in your client’s favor and prepared to persuade other jurors to vote the same way.

Moderator: Beatrice O’Donnell, Duane Morris LLP, Philadelphia, PA

Speakers:
- Nadeem Bezar, Kline & Specter PC, Philadelphia, PA
- Hon. Abbe F. Fletman, Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia, PA
- Angela Hart-Edwards, Akerman LLP, Washington, D.C.

Breakout: WIN: When the Cloud Bursts, Will There Be Coverage for Your Dependent Network Business Interruption Loss?
9:45 am – 11:00 am

The recent Amazon cloud service outage and the Dyn denial of service attack had a widespread cascading effect on businesses depending on these Internet services, disrupting their own online services. They spotlight the risk of depending on the Internet for business, even if the company’s own network is not attacked. When the Internet is disrupted, will there be coverage for business interruption losses under the company’s cyber insurance policy or other policies?

Moderator: Dorothea W. Regal, Hoguet Newman Regal & Kenney LLP, New York, NY

Speakers:
- Alyssa Greenspan, New Avon, New York, NY
- Emily Lowe, Willis Towers Watson, Boston, MA
- Ernest Martin Jr., Haynes and Boone LLP, Dallas, TX
- Paulette S. Sarp, Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP, Minneapolis, MN

Breakout: WIPL: Can Homeland Become a Reality? How the Internet of Things is Changing Products Liability Litigation
9:45 am – 11:00 am

We live in a world where cars, wearables, medical devices, buildings, and even kitchen appliances can all be connected through the Internet. Some experts predict that the Internet of Things market will reach $267 billion by 2020. The panel will address this ever-evolving area that raises unprecedented and complex issues for consumers, businesses, and regulators alike.

Moderator: Carolyn Ryan, Cipriani & Werner PC, Blue Bell, PA

Speakers:
- Kevin Dean, Ironshore Insurance, Weatogue, CT
- Yarmela Pavlovic, Hogan Lovells LLP, San Francisco, CA
- Benjamin Stone, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Philadelphia, PA
| Breakout: WISL: Arbitrating in the FINRA Forum: Issues and Strategies | This panel of in-house, outside, and investor counsel will provide practical advice for arbitrator selection and effective cross-examination strategies for key witnesses in FINRA customer arbitrations, including the customer, financial advisor, and suitability experts. The panel will also address the fiduciary duty standard, including the impact of the Department of Labor’s fiduciary rule and related litigation strategies.
Moderator: Kathryn Dietrich Perreault, Bressler Amery & Ross PC, Birmingham, AL
|---|---|
| Breakout: WAC: Effective Cross-Examination: Case Studies from Recent Trials | With examples from actual trials, our panel will demonstrate how to impeach a witness with documents and with deposition testimony, tried and true methods for handling a difficult witness, ways to tell a story through cross-examination, and how to deal with objections.
Moderator: Hailyn J. Chen, Munger Tolles & Olson LLP, Los Angeles, CA
Speakers: Patricia Astorga, U.S. Attorney’s Office for the Western District of New York, Buffalo, NY, Juanita R. Brooks, Fish & Richellardson, San Diego, CA, Miranda Lundeen Soto, Shook Hardy & Bacon LLP, Miami, FL |
| Breakout: WIN: Building the Right Foundation: How to Avoid Insurance Coverage Litigation with Proper Policy Placement | The challenges posed by new cyber risks and insurance forms have offered insurance counsel new opportunities for client counseling, which touches on the services brokers offer to clients. Counsel and brokers are not always easy allies. This panel discussion will explain what policyholder counsel need to know and understand about the insurance coverage placement process, and how to maximize the relationship with brokers to achieve the best result for mutual clients and their C-suites.
Moderator: Jennifer E. White, Hunton & Williams LLP, Washington, D.C.
| Breakout: WIPL: Can Freud Help? The Interplay of Psychology and Mediation Strategy | This experienced panel of mediators and in-house counsel will explain how psychological issues impact negotiations at all phases of a mediation and how understanding these issues can help you reach a satisfying settlement. Live simulations will dramatize key concepts in critical phases of the mediation process while encouraging audience input.
Moderator: Lara E. White, Adams and Reese LLP, New Orleans, LA
Moderator: Shannon Eagan, Cooley LLP, Palo Alto, CA

The Attorney-Client Privilege and the Work-Product Doctrine, Sixth Edition
By Edna Selan Epstein
This two-volume treatise, written by Edna Selan Epstein and now in its sixth edition, is the go-to reference by attorneys and judges nationwide on common issues that arise in the attorney-client privilege and work-product protection contexts. This comprehensive new edition incorporates the general coverage from previous editions but has been extensively updated and expanded to include the most recent legal developments.

Model Jury Instructions: Product Liability
Edited by Tina Schaefer, Laura Whitmore, and Jana Wozniak
Model Jury Instructions: Product Liability provides model jury instructions and verdicts from interrogatories for use in most product liability cases, as well as law and commentary from which the instructions are derived. Each chapter provides an overview of the current state of the law, including the pivotal cases and a discussion of the practical issues to consider. Where applicable, the chapters provide model instructions based upon both the Restatement (Second) and Restatement (Third) of Torts so that readers can easily select the instruction applicable to their jurisdiction.

International Aspects of U.S. Litigation
Edited by James E. Berger
This two-volume set edited by James E. Berger serves as a comprehensive reference guide to practitioners, both in the U.S. and abroad, on the various issues that can arise when cross-border cases are litigated in U.S. courts.

Fifty-State Survey: Daubert v. Frye—Admissibility of Expert Testimony
By The Trial Evidence Committee; Edited by Eric R. Harlan and Jennifer B. Routh
This book surveys the standard for admissibility of expert testimony applicable in all 50 states and the District of Columbia, including legal authority and an appendix of sample pleadings and checklists. These materials provide a starting point for research and drafting motions, and also provide context for the landscape of expert testimony admissibility across jurisdictions.

When Products Kill: Litigation and Regulatory Responses
By James T. O’Reilly and Thomas G. Neltner
Fatal accidents often lead to litigation, and attorneys involved in this type of litigation, in order to succeed in representing their clients, need to understand what information is available about the product associated with the death and what the product regulatory agency does or could do about the allegations that the product has caused a death.

The Art of Cross-Examination: Essays from the Bench and Bar
Edited by Charles B. Gibbons
Decades of articles on cross-examination from Litigation magazine comprise this group of essays, which collectively cover all aspects of the art. Read together, these pieces resemble vigorous conversation on the art of cross-examination amongst skilled advocates, judges, and law professors, sometimes agreeing and occasionally disagreeing and contradicting each other, giving the reader a well-rounded understanding of the subject.

Avoiding Bad Depositions: A Simple Guide to Complex Issues
By Janet S. Kole
Avoid mistakes—and malpractice claims—when preparing for depositions by following the advice in this short guide. To help navigate the minefield of problems inherent in taking and defending depositions, topics covered include an explanation of a deposition and its purpose, how to defend and take depositions, and how to skilfully deal with difficult opponents, problem witnesses, and experts.

Build Your Practice the Logical Way
By Carol Schiro Greenwald and Steven Skyles-Mulligan
Consistent, strategic, and sustainable firm growth depends on strong client relationships rooted in practices that are designed to meet the needs and expectations of clients. The authors identify strategies designed to retain clients and help you grow your business.

Model Witness Examinations, Third Edition
By James Kenway Archibald and Paul Mark Sandler
The Rules of Evidence are one thing. The mechanics of correctly eliciting facts—in the heat of trial—can be quite another. In this concise handbook, 70 model examinations show you how to deal effectively with practical evidentiary issues that every trial lawyer faces. The models cover a broad variety of basic issues that must be dealt with in direct, cross, and redirect, and the use of depositions and interrogatories.

McElhaney’s Trial Notebook, Fourth Edition
By James McElhaney
One of the all-time bestselling books on trial practice, this edition covers everything from discovery through rebuttal, and provides techniques, tactics, and strategies for every stage of trial. The information is grounded in actual courtroom experience that litigators want to read, can understand, will enjoy, and will use daily in court.
