Thursday, January 10, 2019

Plenary: Lessons Learned from the Prosecution of the Boston Bombers

5:00 PM – 6:15 PM

Grand Ballroom I and II

General CLE

Speaker: Aloke S. Chakravarty, Snell & Wilmer LLP, Denver, CO

A high profile case is not “just like any other case.” Added scrutiny by the public and the media, as well as other interested parties, can lead to less attorney control of a case and its momentum, as well as ethical quandaries in a pressure-packed environment. Aloke “Al” Chakravarty navigated these issues while the world watched as one of the lead prosecutors in the Boston Marathon bomber case. Al will share lessons learned from a trial lawyer’s perspective, ranging from the legal challenges surrounding the multi-agency hunt for the bombers to the construction and delivery of his highly critiqued and powerfully successful closing argument.

Friday, January 11, 2019

Ethics Plenary: When Ethics and Civil Procedure Intersect: How to Avoid the Collision

7:00 AM – 8:00 AM

Grand Ballroom I and II

Ethics CLE

Speaker: John M. Barkett, Shook Hardy & Bacon LLP, Miami, FL

Civil procedure conundrums can produce ethical dilemmas. To avoid both—whether you are dealing with possession, custody, or control; 502(d) orders; client management of document production; spoliation; or expert communications—learn what Model Rules 1.1 and 1.3 really mean in what will be a highly interactive, educational, and entertaining presentation.

---

Plenary: In-House Counsel Panel: Help Me Help You—Managing the Relationship with Outside Counsel

8:15 AM – 9:30 AM

Grand Ballroom I and II

Moderator: Joshua L. Johanningmeier, Godfrey & Kahn SC, Madison, WI

Speakers: Kevin R. Costello, Johnson & Johnson, Irvine, CA; Neal S. Krokosky, Caesars Entertainment, Las Vegas, NV; Nicole M. Willette, Franklin Energy, Port Washington, WI; Megan S. Wynne, Turtle Beach Corporation, San Diego, CA

This panel of experienced in-house counsel will share a candid discussion about best practices to ensure that clients and their outside counsel work well together and benefit from their relationship.

Plenary: A Funny Thing Did Happen on the Way to the Forum: Navigating the New Landscape of Personal Jurisdiction Challenges

9:45 AM – 11:00 AM

Grand Ballroom I and II

General CLE

Moderator: Dale M. Weppner, Greensfelder Hemker & Gale PC, St. Louis, MO

Speakers: Michelle Molinaro Burke, Porzio Bromberg & Newman PC, Morristown, NJ; Hon. Rex Burlison, 22nd Judicial Circuit Court, St. Louis, MO; Karen Barth Menzies, Gibbs Law Group LLP, Oakland, CA; James Oliva, Honda North America Inc., Torrance, CA

Two recent landmark decisions by the U.S. Supreme Court have significantly altered longstanding principles of personal jurisdiction that lawyers have been taught for decades. The expert faculty will explore the ramifications of recent changes to the jurisprudence of personal jurisdiction in the aftermath of Daimler and Bristol-Myers Squibb, while also providing practical considerations for both plaintiffs and defendants when considering where to file or whether to challenge jurisdiction, and insights into the expected future wave of jurisdictional challenges.
This breakout session will focus on the hot issues in environmental and energy litigation, including Pennsylvania pipeline issues, California’s Proposition 65, and the latest trends in current federal enforcement initiatives and experiences. The panel will discuss the benefits of having a proactive Proposition 65 compliance program and the difficulties and risks posed by Proposition 65 litigation.

Speakers: Randall J. Lee, Walsworth WFBM LLP, San Francisco, CA; Roy A. Powell, Jones Day, Pittsburgh, PA

Panel members will discuss strategies and techniques to elicit favorable testimony at depositions.

Moderator: Jennifer L. Seme, Philadelphia, PA

This panel will discuss how associates can provide good client service and distinguish themselves to firm clients; how to better understand clients as an associate; how partners and senior attorneys can bridge the relationship between the associate and the client; and other relevant topics.

Moderators: Kasey M. Adams, Butler Snow LLP, Jackson, MS; Natassia Kwan, Greenberg Traurig LLP, San Francisco, CA
Speakers: Salman Alam, Western Digital, Irvine, CA; Adil M. Khan, Greenberg Traurig LLP, Los Angeles, CA; Sheniece Smith, Children’s Hospital of Orange County, Orange, CA

Panelists will provide an update on the ubiquitous emerging chemicals known as perfluoroalkyl/polyfluoroalkyl substances (PFAS) by discussing cutting-edge PFAS toxicology and forensic chemistry; analyzing the legal landscape for clients that made or used PFAS products; and considering actions to avoid potentially significant products, environmental, and toxic tort liabilities.

Moderator: Lydia R. Dorrance, Roux Associates, Oakland, CA
Speakers: Jason Conder, Geosyntec Consultants, Huntington Beach, CA; Jeffrey D. Dintzer, Alston & Bird LLP, Los Angeles, CA; Matthew K. Edling, Sher Edling LLP, San Francisco, CA; Shukla Roy-Semmen, Department of Toxic Substances Control, Cypress, CA
