SCHEDULE AT A GLANCE
Wednesday, May 1

New Technology, New Liability: Product Liability Risks in the Digital Age
2:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Technology CLE

Navigating Multidistrict Litigation
2:00 PM – 3:00 PM

General CLE

This panel will explore evolving technologies and the product liability risks and litigation trends surrounding those technologies.

Moderator: Tamar B. Kelber, Gass Weber Mullins LLC, Milwaukee, WI

Speakers: Shayna E. Sacks, Napoli Shkolnik PLLC, New York, NY; Mark Swanson, Kinetic Metrics LLC, Alexandria, VA; Jacob Yormak, Story Ventures, New York, NY

- This is not your typical cybersecurity presentation. In this interactive session, the presenters will demonstrate actual hacks and techniques of hackers. The panelists will then engage the audience in a discussion on the legal ramifications of the security events demonstrated and how to prevent or mitigate the impacts.

Moderator: Guillermo Christensen, Ice Miller LLP, Washington, D.C.

Speakers: Michael DeNicola, Federal Bureau of Investigation, New York, NY; Leezza Garber, Capsicum Group LLC, New York, NY; Adrienne Valencia Garcia, IBM Corporation, Armonk, NY; Reginald M. Rasch, Rakuten USA Inc., New York, NY

Big Firm v. Small Firm: No More: How Small Firms & Boutiques Are Effectively Litigating Against BigLaw
2:00 PM – 3:00 PM

General CLE

Courtroom thrillers like A Civil Action and The Rainmaker paint long odds when smaller firms take on BigLaw in court. Litigators from small and boutique firms will address strategies (including use of technology) for leveling the playing field, and through which these firms are succeeding in litigation against their BigLaw counterparts.

Moderator: John B. Mumford, Jr., Hancock Daniel & Johnson PC, Richmond, VA

Speakers: Carolyn Beck, Pierce Bainbridge Beck Price & Hecht LLP, Washington, D.C.; Peter Gronvall, Ankura Consulting Group LLC, Washington, D.C.; Timothy A. Litzenburg, Roundup Cancer Firm LLC, Richmond, VA

- The MDL Act was passed in 1958. Now 50 years later, this panel will discuss the process to pursue consolidation of multidistrict litigation before a transferee judge, how transferee judges try to manage cases for pre-trial purposes, and a variety of commonly encountered issues and challenges faced by those confronted with modern multidistrict litigation.

Moderator: Kent A. Lambert, Baker Donelson Bearman Caldwell & Berkowitz PC, New Orleans, LA

The Trial Lawyer's Guide to Success and Happiness II: Mindfulness and Wellness in Your Legal Career and Beyond
2:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Wellness CLE

- This panel will preview a new version of The Trial Lawyers’ Guide to Success and Happiness, and focus on mental and physical health and wellness by exploring mindfulness, spirituality, and interacting with nature and life beyond the law. Panelists will also present important tips for dealing successfully with the challenges and stresses arising from aggravated clients, counsel, and judges.

Moderator: Lawrence D. Rosenberg, Jones Day, Washington, D.C.

Speakers: David A. Soley, Bernstein Shur Sawyer & Nelson PA, Portland, ME; Deborah A. Topol, Georgetown University School of Medicine, Washington, D.C.; Hon. Tiffany M. Williams (Ret.), New Jersey Civil Service Commission, Trenton, NJ

The Secret Is Out: Strategies for Protecting Trade Secrets
2:00 PM – 3:00 PM

General CLE

- Trade secret protection remains paramount for many companies. With the advent of the Defend Trade Secrets Act, counsel have more tools at their disposal. This panel will explore what companies can do to protect their trade secrets before, during, and after litigation, including discussion surrounding the DTSA.

Moderator: Brian A. Berkley, Fox Rothschild LLP, Philadelphia, PA

Speakers: Jennifer B. Routh, McDermott Will & Emery, Washington, D.C.; Thomas A. Warnock, Corteva Agriscience, Agricultural Division of Dow Dupont, Wilmington, DE

Effective Legal Writing: Greater Clarity Taught with Hilarity
3:15 PM – 4:15 PM

Skills CLE

- This panel offers a concentrated study of the basic rules of English composition as they apply to legal writing. The goal is to achieve a style that is simple and understandable to those who read judicial documents. By improving your writing ability, you will enhance both your productivity and efficiency. You will also be able to share many of the concepts and techniques learned through the course with your colleagues. Any judge, judicial officer, law clerk, or court-affiliated staff person who writes briefs, opinions, findings of fact, conclusions of law, jury instructions, or correspondence can benefit from this presentation.

Speaker: Ron Hofer, National Judicial College, Brookfield, WI

Implications of Sharing the Attorney-Client Privilege: When and How It Should Be Done
3:15 PM – 4:15 PM

Ethics CLE

A number of cases have addressed the common interest doctrine as it applies to attorney-client privilege. A panel of judges and litigators will discuss the scope of the doctrine, jurisdictional variations, and the ethical issues that arise when a lawyer represents multiple clients in litigation matters and transactional matters.

Moderator: Landis C. Best, Cahill Gordon & Reindell LLP, New York, NY

Speakers: Hon. Jacqueline Becerra, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, Miami, FL; Hon. Loretta A. Preska, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, New York, NY; Yolanda P. Strader, Carlton Fields Jorden Burt PA, Miami, FL
NEW YORK, MAY 1

The Courtroom: A Reenactment of Hamilton’s Argument

3:15 PM – 4:15 PM  |  General CLE  |  Moderator: Mary Margaret O’Donnell, Blue Filament Law PLLC, Birmingham, MI
Speakers: Melissa P. Bernier, Bernier Legal LLC, New York, NY; Tiffany Johnson, The Estee Lauder Companies Inc., New York, NY; Julie Zerbo, The Fashion Law, New York, NY

NEW YORK, MAY 2

With the 10th Amendment? State Attorneys General, Federalism, and Litigation

The Internet of (Hackable) Things (IoT): Liability and Insurance for Smart Technology

10:00 AM – 11:00 AM  |  Technology CLE

THE FIRST AMENDMENT

The First Amendment is facing unprecedented challenges. This panel of superstar experts will examine the state of press freedom in our nation today, providing insights into such topics as the causes of press unpopularity, the “fake news” phenomenon, the polarization of news reporting, assaults on the institution of the press, and the prognosis for the future.

Moderator: R. Bruce Rich, Weil Gotshal & Manges LLP, New York, NY

THE MEDIA IN THE CROSSHAIRS

The Media in the Crosshairs: The Vital First Amendment Values at Stake

4:30 PM – 6:00 PM  |  General CLE

THURSDAY, MAY 2

Issues of federalism are as old as the Constitution. Yet, important recent cases have raised the profile of State Attorneys General, the chief lawyers for their states and the citizens thereof. Whether the cases involve immigration, healthcare, implementation or disregard of federal mandates, litigation initiated by Attorneys General has grown in the past decade in response to initiatives from administrations in Washington from both parties. State AGs on both sides of the aisle have played a major role in federalism-styled litigation during the Trump and Obama administrations. Hear from those in the trenches in state AG offices (both AGs and solicitors) who will share their views as to why they bring (or defend against) these cases and as to how these cases fit into historical context. After listening to this balanced presentation, decide for yourself whether these cases are purely about politics or about the Rule of Law. (Or maybe it’s really some of both!)

Moderator: Ellen F. Rosenblum, Attorney General for the State of Oregon, Salem, OR
Speakers: Jeff Landry, Attorney General for the State of Louisiana, Baton Rouge, LA; Karl A. Racine, Attorney General for the District of Columbia, Washington, D.C.; Daniel B. Rodriguez, Northwestern Pritzker School of Law, Chicago, IL; Misha Tseytlin, Former Wisconsin Solicitor General, Troutman Sanders LLP, Chicago, IL

THE INTERNET OF (HACKABLE) THINGS (IoT): LIABILITY AND INSURANCE FOR SMART TECHNOLOGY

We have smart homes, smart cities, smart factories, and even smart refrigerators. But what happens when our connected devices are compromised? Who pays when a smart car causes an accident? What happens if a smart powerplant is hacked? This panel discusses liability and insurance for the IoT and smart technology.

Moderator: Geoffrey J. Miller, Saxe Doernberger & Vita PC, Trumbull, CT
Speakers: John G. Buchanan III, Covington & Burling LLP, Washington, D.C.; Lucy L. Thomson, The View, New York, NY; Darryl M. Woo, Goodwin Procter LLP, San Francisco, CA

Winning Commercial Cases at Trial: The Keys to Success
11:15 AM – 12:15 PM
General CLE

This program provides strategies and practical advice to help attorneys succeed in commercial trials. Topics will include jury selection, motions in limine, opening statements, direct examination, cross examination, evidence, expert witnesses, summations, trial and post-trial motions, damages, appeals, and settlement techniques.

Moderator: Robert L. Haig, Kelley Drye & Warren LLP, New York, NY

You’re Under Investigation: Expectations and Preparation Tips for a Government Investigation
11:15 AM – 12:15 PM
General CLE

This program will examine the key decisions that are needed after learning that your company is under a government investigation, including assembling an effective internal team, whether to engage outside counsel, communications with other professionals such as forensic consultants, whether to conduct a parallel internal investigation, recusal issues within the GC office, exposure of individuals within senior management, hiring separate counsel for witnesses, decisions about whether to terminate employees, public relations and press concerns, and other major issues.

Moderator: Hon. Sunil R. Harjani, U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Chicago, IL

What’s Hot in Financial Technology: Latest and Greatest Developments and Fintech Trends
11:15 AM – 12:15 PM
Technology CLE

Litigation is coming. Financial technology (Fintech) products and services offer consumers numerous benefits including lower costs and instant access, but are not without disruption and risk. Fintech also raises privacy and data collection issues, and the potential for litigation including private rights of action. This panel will discuss key – and sometimes confusing – Fintech trends, gaps under complex and fragmented regulatory and disclosure rules, and the associated compliance, operational, and litigation risks as the law lags behind innovation.

Moderator: Michael J. Breslin, Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP, Atlanta, GA

Technology Assisted Review in Investigations, Examinations, and Legal Assessments
2:00 PM – 3:00 PM
General CLE

Using Technology Assisted Review (TAR) in litigation to expedite the discovery process has become increasingly more common. TAR can also be used in many other analytical workflows where the main goal is to locate key documents in the early stages of a legal matter. Internal investigations, regulatory investigations, and litigation assessments can greatly benefit by implementing TAR as a tool. This panel will discuss data analytics tools and the application of those technologies to various types of legal inquiries.

Moderator: Danielle M. Panetta, Goodwin Procter LLP, Boston, MA
Speakers: B. Justin Goggins, Bank of America, Concord, NC; Nathaniel Huber-Fillet, Ankura Consulting Group LLC, New York, NY; John B. Koss, Mintz Levin Cohn Ferris Glovsky and Popeo PC, Boston, MA

Let’s Talk M&Ms: Mindfulness and Money
2:00 PM – 3:00 PM
Wellness CLE

In this course, lawyers will explore how incremental practices of mindfulness support the ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct as they relate to a lawyer’s duty to competency, marketing, and maintaining the integrity of the legal profession. Interactive exercises will demonstrate the process and leave audience members excited and energized about the importance of mindfulness and its effect on their money. Panelists will discuss how decreased stress and enhanced mental health and functioning will follow from lawyers building mindfulness practices into their schedule each day. The panelists will describe how mindfulness will create a growth mindset to increase revenues and maintain integrity.

Speakers: Kelly J. Adams, Alpha Omega Law Office LLC, Chadds Ford, PA; Melanie Bragg, Bragg Law PC, Houston, TX; Katy Goshtasbi, Puris Consulting, San Diego, CA

Seeing Is Believing! Effective Use of Demonstrative Evidence in the Digital Age
2:00 PM – 3:00 PM
General CLE

This panel will showcase the advances in technology concerning demonstrative evidence and will provide guidance for presenting such evidence in a simple yet entertaining and interesting manner. This program will include examples of modern demonstrative presentations in commercial, construction, and aviation litigation and will address different strategies for use at trial, arbitration, and mediation.

Moderator: Matthew A. Moeller, The Moeller Firm LLC, New Orleans, LA
Speakers: Karen M. Goodman, Goodman & Associates, Sacramento, CA; Andrew J. Maloney III, Kreindler & Kreindler LLP, New York, NY; Anthony Valerio, Magna Legal Services, New York, NY

Mastering Mass Tort Settlements
2:00 PM – 3:00 PM
General CLE

This program will explore best practices in the settlement of high-stakes mass torts. Our expert panel of distinguished judges, attorneys, and academics will discuss successful strategies, innovative solutions, and lessons learned, based on decades of experience resolving some of the most complicated mass torts cases arising in the U.S. judicial system.

Moderator: J. Stephen Bennett, Fageeg Baker Daniels LLP, Fort Wayne, IN Elimination of Bias in Spite of It

How It Is, and Winning Women Throwing

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

General CLE

Generation Y is turning 40, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA) turned 50, and the Bureau of Labor Statistics projects that by 2024, aging workers will make up nearly 25% of the labor force. Americans are living longer and working longer, resulting in an unprecedented transformation of the workplace. In addition, “older” workers are embracing the gig economy. This panel will discuss these workforce transformations, the resulting legal and litigation issues for employers, and how firms can help their clients take advantage and manage shifts in their labor pools.

Moderator: Nikki Odom Dibley, 3M Company, St. Paul, MN
Speakers: Kimberly F. Seten, Constangy Brooks Smith & Prophete LLP, Kansas City, MO; Kara Wilson, Instacart, San Francisco, CA

Spoiling for a Fight: Preventing, Spotting, and Addressing ESI Destruction

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

General CLE

Recent studies sponsored by the ABA and the Hazelden/Betty Ford Foundation found that lawyers have a higher frequency of depression, anxiety, alcoholism, and addiction than other professionals. How does one seek help when faced with ethical duties of competence, diligence, and reporting? This panel will explore a path forward.

Moderator: Richard M. Gaal, McDowell Knight Roedder & Sledge LLC, Mobile, AL
Speakers: Joseph Milowic III, Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan LLP, New York, NY; LaKeisha R. Randall, Benidin Sunnral & Ladner LLC, Atlanta, GA; Diana Uchiyama, Illinois Lawyer Assistance Program, Chicago, IL

Class actions face challenges on many fronts—changes to Rule 23, challenges to cy pres, increased notice requirements, “professional objectors,” concerns about intra-class conflicts, and more exacting standards for review of settlements. Have class actions become too difficult to bring—and settle?

Moderator: Hon. Jon S. Tigar, U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, San Francisco, CA

What’s Hot in M&A Today? The Latest Developments and Trends in Merger and Acquisition Litigation

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

General CLE

Join nationally prominent litigators from both sides of the “v,” an insurance coverage specialist, and a member of the Delaware Court of Chancery for a roundtable discussion of hot topics in the field of merger and acquisition litigation.

Moderator: Raymond J. DiCamillo, Richards Layton & Finger PA, Wilmington, DE

Ethical Considerations in Dealing with Clients and Colleagues Battling Opioid Use

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Ethics CLE

Prepare to handle a client or colleague with substance use disorder ethically. For clients, this may trigger ethics rules surrounding diminished capacity, confidentiality, or conflicts of interest while for a colleague there may be a duty to report, competency issues, or client abandonment.

Moderator: John Hardin Young, Sandler Reiff Lamb Rosenstein & Birkenstock PC, Washington, D.C.
Speakers: Kelly K. Dineen, Creighton University School of Law, Omaha, NE; Myles V. Lynk, Arizona State University Sandra Day O’Connor College of Law, Phoenix, AZ; Tish Vincent, The State Bar of Michigan, East Lansing, MI

You Can Check Out Anytime You Like, But You Can Never Leave: Are Class Actions Impossible To Settle Now?

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

General CLE

Spending a lifetime litigating a case only to have the judge rule against you is not the way many practitioners envision settling a case. That is, unless the case is a class action. What is the state of class actions today? How can parties structure and negotiate for a settlement in class actions which are likely to be ruled on by just one or a few judges?

Moderator: Myles V. Lynk, Creighton University School of Law, Omaha, NE

Possible for a Fight: Preventing, Spotting, and Addressing ESI Destruction

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

General CLE

With a mouse click, a determined tech-savvy litigant can obliterate electronically stored information (ESI) with wiping programs or other tactics. The sheer volume and cost of processing ESI makes it difficult for counsel to detect the withholding, alteration, or destruction of ESI. Effective defense to spoliation begins with informed counsel. Artificial intelligence can help.

Moderator: Mitzi T. Shannon, Kemp Smith LLP, El Paso, TX
Speakers: Amy DeCesare, Allied World Assurance Company, Farmington, CT; David A. Greetham, ROICH USA, Houston, TX; David J. Shuster, Kramon & Graham PA, Baltimore, MD; Richard A. Simpson, Wiley Rein LLP, Washington, D.C.

Women Throwing Shade: How It Was, How It Is, and Winning in Spite of It

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Elimination of Bias CLE

This program will involve historical reflection combined with practical advice from prominent successful attorneys who have been there and dealt with bias. Attendees will learn how to deal with explicit/implicit biases and win in spite of them.

Moderator: Kathryn A. Belfance, Roderick Linton Belfance LLP, Akron, OH
Speakers: Vanessa Blanchfield, Wells Fargo & Company, Des Moines, IA; Kathleen Hopkins, Real Property Law Group PLLC, Seattle, WA; Betsy C. Manifold, Wolf Haldenstein Adler Freeman & Herz LLP, San Diego, CA; Heather White, TIAA, Charlotte, NC

FRIDAY, MAY 3

The Power of Partnering: The Case for Counsel Collaboration
8:00 AM – 9:00 AM
General CLE

This presentation discusses teaming outside counsel to work jointly with in-house legal departments and how this can increase diversity in counsel teams. It also explores the new trends of forming counsel teams with lawyers from different firms and teaming small or solo practitioners with other law firms to handle a specific matter.

Speakers: Debra T. Baker, Baker Botts LLP, Houston, TX; Ronald R. Curtis, Jr., ExxonMobil Environmental Services Company, Spring, TX; Theos McKinney, Exelon Corporation, Philadelphia, PA; Gregory L. Phillips, Phillips Kaiser PLLC, Houston, TX.

International Discovery: Gathering Evidence from Around the Globe
8:00 AM – 9:00 AM
General CLE

The panel provides an interactive example of how U.S. attorneys can obtain evidence from foreign jurisdictions. Based on a factual scenario, this presentation follows a U.S. attorney’s journey through the twists and turns typical in the quest for discovery across the international stage, including Mexico, Canada, the United Kingdom, and China.

Moderator: Jorge A. Mestre, Rivero Mestre LLP, Miami, FL
Speakers: Gavin Foggo, Fox Williams LLP, London, UK; Brett G. Harrison, McMillan LLP, Toronto, ON; José Antonio Rodríguez Marquez, Bufete Rodríguez Marquez SC, Mexico City, MX; Meg Utterback, King & Wood Mallesons, Shanghai, China.

Breaking Through Barriers: Lawyering with a Disability
8:00 AM – 9:00 AM
Elimination of Bias CLE

Although diversity within the law is front and center these days, disability diversity among lawyers is often overlooked. In this program, attendees will hear personal anecdotes from lawyers who have disabilities about how they navigate the courtroom, the office, and beyond.

Effective Storytelling Through Data Visualizations: How to Tell a Persuasive Story Through Data Graphics
8:00 AM – 9:00 AM
General CLE

Everyone wants to be able to tell a story, and persuasive storytelling is an important part of an attorney’s role. This program is designed to teach litigators and in-house counsel proper data visualization techniques to tell a more powerful story. The program will cover the four O’s (Observable, Original, Objective, and Open) of great graphics and how litigators and in-house counsel can portray a better story using data visualizations. Specifically, the program will cover 1) How to use facts and information in pictorial form; 2) Useful graphic techniques for trial exhibits or presentations; and 3) Good and bad data visualization methods, pitfalls, and other considerations when creating or analyzing a graph.

Arbitration: Where Does It Belong and Not Belong?
8:00 AM – 9:00 AM
General CLE

Arbitration has been the subject of numerous recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions that generally have supported its use in a wide variety of areas. As the use of arbitration has grown, there has been a counter-movement to prevent what has been termed “forced arbitration” from stifling class actions and preventing lawsuits by consumers, employees, customers of securities brokers, and victims of discrimination. This program will explore the law as it stands and discuss the practical and policy issues on both sides of these sometimes divisive issues.

Moderators: Mitchell L. Marinello, Novack and Macey LLP, Chicago, IL; Betsy A. Hellman, Skadden Arps Slate Meagher & Flom LLP, New York, NY

Developments in Insurance Law: The Top 10 Things Every Litigator Must Know About Insurance
8:00 AM – 9:00 AM
General CLE

Whether you represent the plaintiff or defendant, every lawyer must have a basic understanding of insurance to adequately represent the client. Insurance is often a game changer. It can provide the path to a meaningful recovery or serve as an important safety net. Insurance is important because “Somebody Else Pays!”

Moderator: Ernest Martin, Jr., Haynes and Boone LLP, Dallas, TX
Speakers: Mary E. Borja, Wiley Rein LLP, New York, NY; Hon. Arnold L. Natale, Superior Court of New Jersey, Appellate Division, Jersey City, NJ.

Rising Litigation and Compliance Risks Facing Higher Education
9:10 AM – 10:00 AM
General CLE

This program will explore increasing complexities facing universities as they try to identify and address existential risks before they result in multifaceted litigation, enforcement actions, and reputational risks. The panel will delve into the growing risks that face universities from international research activities, NCAA regulations, and the #MeToo movement, among other topics. Panelists will explore how universities—and in particular their legal and compliance personnel—face unique challenges in identifying and mitigating these risks because of autonomy-afforded professors, more decentralized departments, and incenture structures that differ from typical corporate organizations.

Moderator: Erin R. Schrantz, Jenner & Block LLP, Chicago, IL
Speakers: Donna P. Fenn, Columbia University, New York, NY; Priya J. Harjani, Northwestern University, Evanston, IL; Sankar Suryanarayanan, Princeton University, Princeton, NJ.

Rule Changes for Rule 30(b)(6) Depositions: How to Meet the New Requirements in a Post-Rule Change World
9:10 AM – 10:10 AM
Law Practice Management CLE

Few Rules cause more controversy and confusion than 30(b)(6), governing depositions of businesses. At the Section’s request, the Advisory Committee on Civil Rules undertook to review the Rule and has made revisions. Hear from judges and practitioners on how the Rule will change/what practitioners need to know, including how many topics you can select, how many witnesses will be produced (and for how long), what objections can be made and when, and how binding witness testimony is, and what to do with inadequately prepared witnesses.

Moderator: John C. Coffee, Jr., Columbia Law School, New York, NY
Speakers: Nathan Heffman, Dechert LLP, Chicago, IL; Byron Shaw, McCarthy Tetrautt LLP, Toronto, ON; Audra J. Soloway, Paul Weiss Rifkind Wharton & Garrison LLP, New York, NY

Commercial arbitrations often involve complex disputes with multiple parties, issues, and procedural problems. If not well-managed, the hearings become too lengthy, reducing the ability of counsel and the panel to move with alacrity and cost-effectiveness. Using videos and a hypothetical construction case as an example, three commercial practitioners/arbitrators with extensive experience presenting and arbitrating complex disputes will discuss the newest and best practices that will help small and big firm advocates get their clients’ disputes resolved in a fair manner without sacrificing content, speed, or cost.

This interactive fireside chat will address some of the gaps between law school and practice. Attorneys with various degrees of experience will cover topics such as communicating effectively with in-firm and external clients, persuasive brief writing, and time management.

Moderator: Demetrius Pyburn, Haynsworth Sinkler Boyd, Greenville, SC

Wherever your client needs representation in an unfamiliar court, local counsel arrangements can provide important assistance and insights, but not without some risks. This program will identify ethical pitfalls and tips to avoid them and highlight best practices for selecting, retaining, and effectively using local counsel.

Moderator: Michael W. Jahnke, Thompson Hine LLP, New York, NY
Speakers: Elise Greenspan, AECOM, Charleston, SC; Steven S. Kaufman, Kaufman & Company LLC, Cleveland, OH; Ellen Yaroshesky, Monroe H. Friedman Institute for the Study of Ethics, Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY

This panel will explain recent decisions in the U.S. and Canada in cross-border litigation, class actions, and mass tort cases. Panelists will discuss the practical implications of the countries’ different approaches to jurisdiction, including jurisdiction against foreign defendants, national and global class actions involving absent foreign claimants, and securities claims against foreign-listed issuers.

GDPR: General Data Protection Regulation
One Year Later
2:00 PM – 3:00 PM
General CLE

What have we learned after a year under the GDPR? What implications does it have for the U.S. under the California Consumer Privacy Act and other possible U.S. privacy regulations?

Moderator: Jonathan Turley, Legal Commentator, NBC & CBS; George Washington University School of Law, Washington, D.C.

In courtrooms across the country, immigrants are pleading “the cultural defense,” invoking the traditions of their homelands to explain their actions. Even when they are not raised per se, customs are a factor in many cases—civil and criminal. How should these “cross-cultural” cases be decided? You be the judge!

Moderator: Jonathan Turley, Legal Commentator, NBC & CBS; George Washington University School of Law, Washington, D.C.

Mediation in Bankruptcy: Overview and Special Topics
2:00 PM – 3:00 PM
General CLE

A U.S. bankruptcy judge and three practitioners will discuss how to prepare for mediation, and special considerations involving mediation of disputes in bankruptcy. This program is suitable for attorneys and judges, both experienced and inexperienced with mediation. General practitioners and seasoned bankruptcy practitioners will also benefit from this program.

Moderator: Kristin B. Mayhew, McElroy Deutsch Mulvaney & Carpenter LLP, Southport, CT

A limited number of scholarships to defray registration fees may be available for government employees, public interest lawyers employed with nonprofits, academics, and law students, as well as unemployed attorneys. For courses costing over $500, attorneys who qualify will receive at least a 50% reduction in the course fee(s). This does not include any reduction in meals, lodging, or travel costs. To apply, send a letter outlining the basis for your fee waiver request to Antoinette Tanner at antoinette.tanner@americanbar.org. All requests must be received by Wednesday, March 27, 2019.

SERVICES FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES
If special arrangements are required, please contact Antoinette Tanner at 312-988-5710 or antoinette.tanner@americanbar.org. Please submit requests at least two weeks prior to the meeting.
