RESOLUTION

RESOLVED, That the American Bar Association strongly urges the highest court or bar admission authority of each jurisdiction to immediately adopt emergency rules that would authorize

(1) 2019 and 2020 law graduates, and

(2) graduates of prior years who have been since graduation serving as judicial law clerks, who have not yet taken a bar examination, and who apply for admission to the bar, to engage in the limited practice of law, if the July 2020 bar examination in their jurisdiction is cancelled or postponed due to public health and safety concerns arising from the coronavirus pandemic.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That this authorization to engage in limited law practice should apply only if the applicant is a graduate of a law school accredited or provisionally accredited by the Council of the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association and the applicant has successfully completed all requirements to be eligible to take the July 2020 examination.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That this authorization to engage in the limited practice of law would extend through licensure of the applicant, or until further order of the court or bar admission authority.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That this limited authority to practice law should be an emergency measure, available only for a specified time, as necessary to accommodate public health and safety concerns arising from the coronavirus pandemic.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That in adopting such an emergency rule, the court or bar admission authority should consider requiring that:
(1) The applicant register with the jurisdiction’s bar admissions authority (or other appropriate agency) and comply with all applicable registration requirements;

(2) The applicant be directly supervised by a lawyer authorized to practice in the jurisdiction whose license is active and in good standing; the supervising lawyer confirms in writing to the appropriate agency that he or she will directly supervise the practice of the applicant; and the supervising lawyer is identified as such in all papers submitted to a court, government agency or authority, or alternative dispute resolution tribunal, on which the applicant’s name appears;

(3) The applicant be subject to the disciplinary authority of the jurisdiction in which the applicant is practicing and the applicant comply with all ethics and related rules of the jurisdiction, including specifically but not limited to rules requiring truthful and non-misleading advertising or other public statements concerning his or her limited authority to practice;

(4) The applicant and the supervising lawyer disclose, in a clear and prominent manner, the applicant’s limited authority to practice to any client for whom the applicant does any work, and the supervising lawyer, by direct contact with the client, obtain the client’s consent to be represented by the applicant and provide the client with the supervising lawyer’s name and contact information;

(5) The applicant disclose, in a clear and prominent manner, the applicant’s limited authority to practice to any person with whom he or she interacts in the practice, including any court, government agency or authority, or alternative dispute resolution tribunal;

(6) The applicant adhere to any conditions set by the emergency rule as to limitations on the authorization given to appear before any court, tribunal, governmental agency, or alternative dispute resolution tribunal.

(7) The applicant take the bar examination by the end of 2021; and

(8) The applicant’s limited authorization will terminate if the applicant fails the bar examination.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That nothing in the Resolution shall be construed to amend, limit, or call into question, the historic and longstanding policy of the American Bar Association supporting the use of a bar examination as an important criterion for admission to the bar.
As this Resolution and Report are written, the United States and the world are in the midst of a deadly coronavirus pandemic, and no U.S. community appears to have reached the peak of new infections or deaths. All business and government activities other than those involving health care and public safety have slowed dramatically, and much ordinary business activity has ceased. The primary focus of virtually all government and business has turned to health and safety.

Still, the judicial system, law schools, and the legal profession are today attempting to continue operations, as best they can, while complying with public health and safety orders and guidance that, for example, ban almost all in-person activities like in-person court proceedings, law school classes, and meetings with clients.

In recent days, several jurisdictions, in an effort to comply with public health and safety orders and guidance have decided to cancel or postpone the traditional July administration of the bar examination in 2020. As of this writing, at least four jurisdictions have canceled or postponed the July 2020 bar examination – Connecticut, Hawaii, Massachusetts, and New York. Other jurisdictions have acknowledged they are contemplating the same action. No one can doubt these decisions are necessary to public health and safety. This Resolution in no way questions the necessity for such decisions.

Yet there also can be no doubt that canceling or postponing a bar exam will significantly affect the lives, careers, and immediate personal plans of law graduates, their families, and the lawyers or other organizations with whom they

1 This Report was prepared and was current as of its submission to the Board of Governors on April 6, 2020. Between that time and approval by the Board, both Arizona and New Jersey have adopted rules similar to the kind proposed in the Resolution.

3 Tennessee has not yet canceled or postponed the July 2020 bar examination, but its high court entered an order extending its current rule allowing law students to engage in limited practice to law graduates. (Order Temporarily Modifying Certain Provisions of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 7 Related to The July 2020 Bar Examination, In re: Covid-19 Pandemic, No. ADM2020-00428 (entered April 2, 2020), available at: http://tncourts.gov/sites/default/files/docs/ble_covid-19_order.pdf (copy of order and underlying amended rule attached as Exhibit A).
might otherwise practice. Every law graduate in this country has planned and worked for years toward the goal not only of graduation from law school, but admission to the bar and licensure. The inability of a law graduate to take the bar examination in July 2020 would mean a delay, at the very least, of months in their ability to begin the practice of law. This delay may lead not only to tangible financial and family hardship, but disruption in the plans and operations of the organization and clients for whom these law graduates may already be planning to work.

Cancelling or postponing a bar examination for public health and safety reasons is not without consequence. The livelihoods, families, and careers of 2019 and 2020 law graduates may be uprooted, and financial security immediately threatened, with even a delayed exam. Upon graduation, the average 2020 law graduate will bear a debt load of $142,870. That debt load remains unchanged while their job prospects disappear or diminish in part were their jurisdiction to deny them the opportunity to take the exam in July 2020 and begin to practice law. Public health and safety and the professional and financial security of law graduates need not be mutually exclusive.

This Resolution strongly encourages jurisdictions’ supreme courts and bar admission authorities to adopt emergency rules that would mitigate these hardships and disruptions. One state (Tennessee) has recently adopted such a rule; another state (Arizona) has published a proposed rule that would accomplish what this Resolution proposes now pending before its high court;

and a third state (New York) appears to be considering such a rule. There may also be some states whose rules already permit limited practice of this kind. Arizona’s petition, for example, asserts that its rule “currently allows recent law graduates to engage in a limited practice of law until the first offering of the Arizona bar examination, [but] the rule was drafted in a way that downplayed or masked this opportunity for recent law graduates,” and thus the petition seeks to clarify and add important elements to the grant of limited practice authority. This Resolution strongly supports these efforts and sets out a number of necessary and appropriate criteria that should be considered by jurisdictions in considering such rules.

Arizona’s pending petition for a rule change notes that at least sixteen jurisdictions allow recent law graduates to engage in the limited practice of law post-graduation and pre-bar admission. While these existing programs do share some common features, not all directly or clearly address the currently anticipated issue of the cancellation or postponement of the July 2020 bar examination. For example, as noted above, Tennessee recently acted to expand its program for this reason. Whether a jurisdiction chooses to use this approach to achieve limited practice authority for recent graduates pending admission in this context is, of course, a matter for each jurisdiction.

The Effects of Cancelling or Postponing the Bar Examination

Without adoption of a rule to mitigate the effect of the cancellation or postponement of the July 2020 bar examination, a delay in law graduates’ eligibility to practice law will place an unprecedented financial burden on thousands of law graduates. During this unexpected delay in admission, job security will be in question; reduced salaries are likely; and law student debt remains. Law graduates and their families have invested tens of thousands of dollars into their education with the expectation of promptly graduating, passing the bar exam, and entering the practice of law. Those expectations have been uprooted by an act of God. Without action, this financial burden will fall

Indeed, the deans of all fifteen New York law schools have urged the New York high court to adopt “a broad and universal system of provisional, temporary authorization for 2020 graduates to practice law under the supervision of an attorney admitted to practice in New York” (original emphasis). disproportionately on law graduates who had grounded their futures on taking the 2020 bar examination.

Further, law graduates are by no means the only ones affected. The immediate legal needs of individuals and businesses, from small to large, as a result of this pandemic, are already enormous and will continue to grow. Tens of thousands of graduating law students stand ready to help with those needs, if they are given the regulatory permission to do so. This resolution encourages states to permit these trained law graduates to help serve the public in this crisis.

Components of the Rule that the Resolution Advocates

This Resolution calls for the immediate adoption of an emergency rule, regulation, or policy. The Resolution recognizes that the problem is one of immediate concern and should be addressed as soon as possible. At least one state (Tennessee) has wisely addressed this issue before making any decision on whether its bar examination will be offered in July 2020. The Resolution calls for immediate action.

The Resolution also advocates for adoption of a rule that would be considered an emergency rule. The current public health and safety environment is changing daily, and a rule such as this might well need to be adapted to changed conditions in a few months. The Resolution does not advocate for adoption of any change in policy that would be permanent or survive the current challenges created by the coronavirus pandemic as it presents itself today.

Examples of rules of the type advocated by this Resolution include the rules very recently adopted by the supreme courts of Arizona and Tennessee, copies of which are attached to this Report.

A number of the specific features of the type of rule advocated by this Resolution bear comment. The Resolution urges that the following would be the most important features of a rule:

- The rule would cover law graduates from both 2019 and 2020. Some law graduates do, for legitimate reasons (such as judicial clerkships), delay taking the bar exam for a time after their graduation.

- The rule would only apply to first-time takers of the bar examination, consistent with its emergency nature. Thus, a law graduate who had taken either the bar examination of the jurisdiction adopting the rule or any other jurisdiction, whether the law graduate passed or failed the exam, would not qualify under the rule.
• The rule would only cover 2019 and 2019 law graduates who apply for admission to the bar, again consistent with the narrow, emergency nature of the relief granted by the rule.

• Applicants must also be graduates of law schools accredited or provisionally accredited by the Council of the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the ABA.

• The limited authority to practice law would extend through an applicant’s licensure, including the taking of the bar examination, the time needed for the examination to be graded and results known, and any time after that ordinarily needed for the bar admission authority to complete its normal licensure process.

The Resolution also advocates that adopting jurisdictions should seriously consider the following features be included as part of such a rule:

• A requirement that the applicant register with an appropriate regulatory authority and comply with any appropriate registration requirements, ranging from completing an application to paying fees associated with the process. The Resolution contemplates that a jurisdiction might decide to impose certain fees associated with the regulation of the profession, as they might deem appropriate.

• Direct supervision of the applicant’s limited practice by an identified lawyer already admitted in the jurisdiction. The Resolution contemplates that this supervision be consistent with that required by ABA Model Rule of Professional Conduct 5.1(b) concerning the responsibility of a lawyer with “direct supervisory authority” over another lawyer. The supervising lawyer would be required to commit in writing to the requirements of this role as a part of the applicant’s application for this limited authority.

• Disclosure to clients, courts, and others of the limited nature of the applicant’s authority to practice law would be required, as would appropriate disclosure of the same limitations in any interactions with others or the public.

• The rule would allow court appearances by the law graduate, but each jurisdiction should consider what conditions it wishes to set on this authorization, such as court permission or attendance by the supervising lawyer.
• The rule would also require that the applicant actually take and pass the bar examination by the end of 2021.

This Resolution does not take any position on decisions that are appropriately within the authority and discretion of the highest court or bar admission authority of each jurisdiction, such as whether the July 2020 administration of the bar examination by any jurisdiction should be canceled or postponed, or whether the July 2020 administration of the bar examination by any jurisdiction should be administered online, remotely, or in small groups.

Finally, the Resolution does not intend in any way modify or limit the historic and longstanding policy of the ABA supporting the use of a bar examination as an important criterion for admission to the bar.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF TENNESSEE
AT NASHVILLE

IN RE: COVID-19 PANDEMIC

No. ADM2020-00428

ORDER TEMPORARILY MODIFYING CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF TENNESSEE SUPREME COURT RULE 7 RELATED TO THE JULY 2020 BAR EXAMINATION

Consistent with the Tennessee Supreme Court’s COVID-19 Pandemic Orders entered March 13, 2020, and March 25, 2020, and in furtherance of the Judicial Branch’s obligation to mitigate the risks and effects of mitigation of risks associated with COVID-19, the Court adopts temporary changes to the provisions of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 7 listed below. These changes are intended to provide applicants for the July 2020 administration of the Uniform Bar Examination (“UBE”) assurance regarding application deadlines and the steps that the Board of Law Examiners (the “Board”) is to take in the event a July 2020 examination is not deployed and/or a fall 2020 UBE is offered. With the exception of the modification to sections 3.05(a) of Rule 7, these modifications apply to applicants to the July 2020 administration of the Uniform Bar Examination (UBE) in Tennessee.

1. Section 11.03 of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 7 is suspended temporarily only for applicants for the July 2020 bar examination to permit limited transfer of applications or full refund of fees, as follows:

04/02/2020
a. The July 2020 application for admission by examination and fee paid to the Board will be valid for the UBE administered in July 2020 or on an as-yet-unscheduled fall 2020 date.

b. Applicants will be given the option to choose either the July or fall 2020 UBE, but not both.

c. After a decision is made regarding the July bar examination and regardless of what that decision is, applicants for the July 2020 administration of the UBE who complete the application process prior to the May 20 deadline will be given the option to transfer the July 2020 application and fee paid to the Board to either the fall 2020 UBE, if one is scheduled, or the February 2021 administration of the UBE on or before a deadline to be set by the Board.

d. If a fall examination is not offered and a July 2020 examination is not deployed or cannot be administered, applications and fees paid to the Board will be transferred to the February 2021 examination automatically unless the applicant requests a full refund of the fee paid to the Board on or before a deadline to be set by the Board.

2. Section 10.04 of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 7 (practice under supervision) is modified for applicants who graduated from law school between March 1, 2020, and July 24, 2020, who completed the application process by the deadline for the July 2020 administration of the UBE, and who register for § 10.04 practice under supervision, by extending the time applicants are permitted to engage in supervised practice until November 15, 2021. This modification permits qualified applicants the opportunity to practice under supervision until the admission ceremonies in November 2021.

3. Section 10.07 of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 7 (practice pending admission) is modified for applicants who have an active license in good standing in another jurisdiction, who completed the application process by the deadline for the July 2020 bar examination, and who register for practice pending admission under § 10.07, by extending the time applicants are permitted to engage in practice pending admission until November 15, 2021, provided however, that the applicant sits for and completes the earliest examination offered. This modification permits qualified applicants the opportunity to practice pending admission until completion of the admission ceremonies in November 2021.

4. Section 4.07(d) of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 7 is modified for applicants who have completed the application process by the deadline for the July 2020 bar examination and have a qualifying score from the August 2018 or November 2018 administration of the MPRE, to extend the validity of the scores for the August and November 2018 MPRE scores through grade release for the February 2021 examination.

5. Section 3.05(a) of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 7 is modified to permit concurrent applications in order to prevent delays in licensing that applicants for the July 2020 UBE would otherwise experience. A “concurrent application” permits an applicant to apply for admission by Uniform Bar Examination administered in another state and, prior to earning that score, apply to Tennessee for admission by transferred Uniform Bar Examination score. Sec. 3.05(a)(1) is amended to permit filing of an application to transfer a UBE Score prior to the time an applicant has achieved the required score as long as the applicant achieves the required score on an examination administered between July 2020 and February 2021.

Nothing in this order is to be construed as changing the current status of the July 2020 bar examination. The modifications to Rule 7 are applicable to July 2020 bar examination applicants only and all other provisions of Rule 7 and Board Policies remain unchanged. The Board of Law Examiners remains open and shall continue to provide services, while balancing the health and safety of Board members, staff, exam proctors and the public.

It is so ORDERED.

Any communication other than internal communications may be signed by the applicant with the accompanying designation “Tennessee Bar Applicant” but must also be signed by the supervising attorney.

If any such filings set forth the name of the applicant as a counsel of record in addition to the supervising attorney, the name of the applicant must be accompanied by the designation “Tennessee Bar Applicant” but must be filed in the name of the supervising attorney. Upon motion by the supervising attorney, the applicant may request authorization to argue the matter before the appellate court but, even if the applicant is permitted to argue, the supervising attorney must be present and is responsible for the conduct of the applicant at the hearing.

(h) Board Permitted to Disclose. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 12.11, the Board may disclose that an applicant is authorized to practice pursuant to this section and may disclose if and when that authorization is terminated.

Pursuant to Rule 28, Rules of the Supreme Court of Arizona, the Task Force on the Delivery of Legal Services ("Task Force") petitions the Court to amend Arizona Rules of the Supreme Court 38, as reflected in the attachments hereto, effective January 1, 2021.

I. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND.

Established on November 21, 2018, by Arizona Supreme Court Administrative Order 2018-111, the Task Force was asked to address five charges and to make recommendations on each. The Administrative Order gave the chair discretion to consider and recommend other rule changes on any topic concerning the delivery of legal services. Members of the legal community approached the Task Force with a proposal to amend Rule 38(d). The Task Force agreed to consider the proposal and worked with members of the legal community to draft this proposed rule amendment.

Although Rule 38(d) currently allows recent law graduates to engage in a limited practice of law until the first offering of the Arizona bar examination, the rule was drafted in a way that downplayed or masked this opportunity for recent law graduates. Further, current Rule 38(d) is unduly complicated and unclear in large part and fails to include certain program essentials. Thus, the amendments proposed in this petition revise and reorganize the rule for clarity and substantive completeness. As revised, the proposed rule sets out the program requirements and practice restrictions for both law students and recent law graduates in a clear, organized, consistent, and complete manner.

The Task Force presented its recommendation to the Arizona Judicial Council (“AJC”) on October 24, 2019. The Report and Recommendations of the Task Force (Report), along with other Task Force information, can be found at the Task Force’s webpage: https://www.azcourts.gov/cscommittees/Legal-Services-Task-Force. AJC adopted all recommendations of the Task Force, including the recommendation to amend Rule 38(d), identified as Recommendation 4 of the report.

II. SUMMARY OF PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ARIZONA RULE OF SUPREME COURT 38(d).

In Arizona, law students can practice law under the supervision of a licensed attorney in accordance with Arizona Supreme Court Rule 38(d). Participants in this limited practice of law must be supervised by an attorney in a public or private legal office or by a clinical law professor in conjunction with a law school clinical program. As discussed above, although Rule 38(d) currently allows recent law graduates to engage in a limited practice of law until the first offering of the Arizona bar examination, the rule was drafted in a way that downplayed or masked this opportunity for recent law graduates. The proposed amendments clarify that recent law graduates may be certified to engage in the limited practice of law under the supervision of an attorney. The proposed amendments also clarify that neither law students nor law graduates must also participate in a clinical law program.

At least 16 states allow recent law graduates to engage in the limited practice of law post-graduation and pre-bar admission. These state programs share common features:

- All programs have specified durations. For example, some programs authorize practice only during the period in which the graduate has applied to take the first bar examination after his or her graduation and is awaiting the results. Other programs include similar restrictions and incorporate a tiered expiration date for the authorization to practice, such as no later than 12 or 18 months after the graduate graduated from law school.

- Most of these programs authorize graduates to practice law to the same extent law students are authorized to practice law under programs like existing Rule 38(d)(5). Thus, graduates are permitted to meet with clients, go to court, try cases, argue motions, and the like. Most of the states authorize graduates to handle civil and criminal cases, although some restrict the criminal cases to misdemeanors or less-serious felonies.

- Several programs authorize graduates to practice for certain types of employers, such as legal-aid clinics, public defenders, prosecutor’s offices, or city, county, and state offices or agencies.

- Many programs impose supervisory requirements that are similar to the supervisory requirements imposed under existing Rule 38(d).

- A few programs require the dean of the graduate’s law school, or the graduate’s proposed supervising attorney, to certify the graduate’s good character and competence to the state supreme court or another entity. Other programs simply require the employer to comply with the requirements of the program and do not require the employer to file any other documentation with any court or state agency.
Although these other state programs vary in operational details, they all provide a means by which law students and non-licensed law graduates may practice law, and effectively result in expanding the delivery of legal services, especially by public agencies or public service groups that provide legal services to individuals with limited resources. These programs do this by allowing recent law school graduates in the process of becoming licensed to gain experience by practicing law under the supervision of admitted lawyers for a limited duration. Because this limited exception to licensure is anticipated to benefit the public, the Task Force’s proposed amendments to Rule 38(d) fall squarely within the mandate to consider and evaluate new models for delivering legal services.

Further, the amendments would eliminate, or at least lessen, many of the practical problems experienced by law school graduates given the workload of the individuals involved in the admission and character and fitness process. The amendments permit recent law graduates to practice under the supervision of a lawyer after graduation from an ABA accredited law school if the graduate takes the first Arizona uniform bar examination, or the first uniform bar examination offered in another state for which the graduate is eligible. Certification to practice terminates automatically if the graduate fails the bar examination, if the Committee on Character and Fitness does not recommend to the Supreme Court the graduate’s admission to practice, if the graduate is denied admission to practice law by the Supreme Court, or on the expiration of 12 months from the date of the graduate’s graduation from law school unless the Supreme Court extends the 12-month period. If the graduate passes the bar examination, certification terminates 30 days after the graduate has been notified of approval for admission to practice and eligibility to take the oath of admission. Certification to practice for both graduates and law students also terminates on the occurrence of other events such as failure to meet the requirements for certification.

Finally, the amendments set out the program requirements and practice restrictions for both law students and recent law graduates in a clear, organized, consistent, and complete manner. Thus, for example, the amendments separately set out the program details for law students and law graduates and clarify as well as simplify the supervisory obligations of the supervising attorneys.

CONCLUSION
