Revised and adopted by the Standing Committee on Paralegals March 2, 2018
CRITERIA FOR APPROVAL OF ACCREDITING AGENCIES UNDER G-303(e)

1. The accrediting agency must be approved by the United States Department of Education.

2. The accrediting agency must be either regional or national in scope.

3. The accrediting agency must accredit whole institutions, not specialized programs within institutions, i.e., general institutional accreditation as opposed to specialized programmatic accreditation.

4. The accrediting agency’s standards must be established for the purpose of assessing general educational quality and institutional strength and stability.

5. The accrediting agency’s practices and procedures must have a rigorous form of evaluation that includes documented self-evaluation and peer evaluation with periodic comprehensive visits to the institutions it accredits.

6. The accrediting agency must itself demonstrate stability and consistency in its work over time.
